THIS week an article written by Rick Edwards appeared in the Leader newspaper regarding an inspirational young boy, Luca Luvera, who plays for Avondale Heights. Some people from the EDFL community may already be aware of the story with an article by Julia Montesano appearing in The Footballer last year.

But for those who missed this week's Leader article, here is an extract:

IN 2013, surgeons took away Luca Luvera's right leg. But not his spirit.

The then six-year-old kept his mum and dad strong when they were weak. Now he inspires a whole football club.

It was a Sunday in April, 2013, when dad Rocco took Luca into The Royal Children's Hospital after he complained of a sore leg. Five days later — after X-rays found a tumour in his right thigh — chemotherapy started.

After four months of chemo, the Luveras knew Luca's leg had to be amputated for his life to be saved.

They considered rotationplasty, where Luca's calf would be transported to the top of his leg and his ankle would become his knee joint. Anna was hesitant, thinking about how Luca would look and feel as an adult. Rocco thought it was a good option until he saw a little girl in hospital with a prosthetic leg.

"I saw how well she moved," he said. "And I knew then that was going to be the best thing for Luca."

One week before the surgery in August, they sat Luca down to tell him.

"We just sort of said 'you know how you have a tumour, the doctor said we have to get rid of it to make you better and the only way we are going to get rid of it is if we take your leg,'" Anna said.

"And I think he did cry for two seconds but I think he said 'will that make me better?' and we said 'yes it's going to give you the best chance of being better' and he was like 'OK.'" Within a couple of days Luca was moving himself from his bed to his wheelchair. By April — seven months later — he had his first prosthetic leg.

Luca was beginning to inspire everyone who crossed paths with him. Rocco's brother and cousin both had cancer battles and drew strength from their brave boy. Words such as 'If Luca can do the treatment, I can do the treatment' spread through the Gowanbrae community where the Luveras live and Avondale Heights where Luca was going to school. But Luca wasn't finished. He told his parents he wanted to resume football, which he got a taste of as a five and six year old at Auskick.

His first training session at Avondale Heights Football Club was in April, 2016. His first game was days later.

Luca had a few disposals before the unexpected happen. He went to the kick the ball and his prosthetic foot came off. Trainers rushed out to carry him off the ground but under-11s coach Frank Davoli said Luca was not fazed.

"He said to the trainer 'No, let me walk. I want to show everyone I am OK'. He just pushed the trainer away."

Luca's season got back on track later and he was a member of the Heights' premiership team. Dad Rocco remembers jumping the fence on the siren and sprinting to his triumphant son.

Both his dad and coach agree, Luca has an impact on-field. He has shifted to the backline and is known for being tough and tackling hard. Not surprisingly, Luca never shirks a contest.

"He is a good mark and he lacks a bit of pace but that's his only downside," Rocco said. "What he lacks in pace he makes up in other areas."

Luca is getting a blade to replace his prosthetic leg, which will mean he'll be able to run faster.

"I like footy, just playing with my friends. I want to play for Richmond," Luca said.

Anna and Rocco know never to say Luca can't do anything. "Watch this space, we might have the first amputee to play AFL," Anna said.

"I used to cry sad tears for him but now all my tears for him have been happy tears. I am just so used to him achieving more than anybody would have expected."

INJURY-RIDDLED Tullamarine remains bullish about its Essendon Ford Division 1 finals aspirations — if it can get its best team on the park.

The Demons' six-game winning run was brought to a halt by Taylors Lakes on Saturday, falling 9.4-58 to 5.5-35.

Coach Anthony Leydin said losing at home to a team lower on the ladder added salt to Tullamarine's wounds.

"But we certainly knew it was going to be a tough contest and that's what it turned out to be," he said.

The coach said there was no reason for the low scoring other than the pressure applied by both sides, but added "we created enough opportunities, but just couldn't take them".

"That's been the story for quite some time, not having that key forward to clunk a few (marks)," Leydin said.

"With a couple of players down, I'm surprised we finished as close as we did."

While the Demons sit third on the ladder, the coach feels his team still needs "to improve a fair bit" if they are to challenge for finals.

"We're pretty stretched with our depth at the moment with injuries, as proven on the weekend," Leydin said.

"We need our best team on the park and playing well to be any sort of chance and we're a fair way off at the moment."

Joel Flanigan and Kane Mulvaney were both late withdrawals before the Lions match, a couple of players returning from holidays had not done enough to warrant senior selection and Brad Allen and Robbie Nikolic had injuries carried over from the week before.

Coupled with another player still overseas, the unknown availability of Anthony Liberatore and more injuries at the weekend, Leydin said the club would "hold our breath and hope for a bit of luck".

"We're still pretty bullish about our chances," he said.

"We need a bit of luck but we've been in worse situations and come through so I would expect the same again."

Tullamarine meets Glenroy today.

Are you suffering from dry skin, scars, stretch marks or wrinkles?

If you suffer from acne scars, atopic eczema, dry skin, fine lines and wrinkles, pigmentation spots, premature ageing, skin burns, stretch marks, sun damaged skin, sun spots or surgical and accidental scars... here's some really great news.

If you suffer from one or more of the above conditions Uber Secrets Rosa Mosqueta Rosehip Oil may be just what you are looking for. Rosa Mosqueta Rosehip Oil has been validated by Scientific Research worldwide. Following are just a few amazing findings.

Scarring (surgical, injury and post-burn) and premature ageing

During a two-year study by a team of researchers from the Faculty of Chemistry and Pharmacology at the University of Concepcion, a prestigious University in Chile, the oil was applied to 180 patients with surgical, injury and post-burn scars, as well as to a group suffering from premature ageing. It was found that Rosa Mosqueta (Rosehip Oil) produced an effective regenerative action on the skin, helping to attenuate scars and wrinkles, preventing advancement of premature ageing, and regaining lost colour and tone.

Surgical scars

Women who had suffered unilateral or bilateral mastectomy applied Rosa Mosqueta Oil after the surgical stitches were removed. After three months of applying the oil twice daily (morning and evening) the scars were less apparent, without lumps, and skin elasticity had improved, as had the colour of the area. In another study treating post-operative scarring, both from surgery and laser treatment, the results have been excellent in over 90% of the cases over a period of around six months' use. With acne scars the results are equally encouraging, even where scarring is over 20 years old. (Do not use oil if acne is still active).

"Now the Duchess of Cambridge, Kate Middleton's skincare secret has been revealed and it won't cost you a King's ransom". "Kate Middleton is said to be using a Rosehip Oil right now and she apparently is a huge fan."

*Source (A Current Affair, March 11 2015)

Skin burns

In a study of 90 patients who had suffered burns, a four-month treatment of Rosehip - Rosa Mosqueta Oil resulted in 97% improvement in relation to their initial state. Dr Leonardo Rusowsky, surgeon at Enrique Deformes Hospital in Santiago, Chile, and acting president of the Corporation for Aid to Children with Burns has researched the healing properties of Rosehip - Rosa Mosqueta Oil and has stated that it improves the texture and quality of skin by increasing its elasticity, flattens out scarring and improves the colour of scars and surrounding skin.

AN ACCURATE Coburg Districts made the most of its chances to continue a successful Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 season last weekend.

The Lions conceded five more scoring shots but did enough to hold off a determined East Sunbury, 12.4-74 to 8.13-61.

"It was a hard grind. They used the ball and played their ground very well. They were very quick and young," coach Chris Tankard said.

"If they had kicked straight, I think for most of the day they were probably the better team."

Seeing his players think their way through the battle while under pressure was a pleasing aspect for the coach, who rated the games of on-ballers Tom Lucin and Nik Dimeski.

Ricky McGill, who shut down Tom Burnside, and performances by James Reid, Michael O'Dea and Cal Atkinson were also noteworthy.

Luke Vesnaver finished with four majors, taking his season tally to 40.

"We are very happy," Tankard said.

"We haven't used a lot of players (30), so we are backing these guys in to get the job done week-in week-out.

"We are very happy with how we've structured up.

"We like to try and provide our supporters and sponsors with an entertaining game of footy that hopefully gets a lot of goals and that they want to come and watch every time."

With not many absences, the team hopes to welcome back in-form player Spencer Aitken and Dan Campbell from a long-term injury in the coming weeks.

"We are just making sure we lock up a top-two spot, and then have a really healthy list come the first final," Tankard said.

"We are happy where we are. It is nice to have some good atmosphere and feeling around the club."

The team is top of the ladder and plays the Northern Saints today.

GLENROY v TULLAMARINE

AS Hillside jumped ahead of Tullamarine last week, it is a big game for the Demons if they want the second chance come September.

It will be interesting to see how this game pans out in the lead up to the finals, as they will most likely meet again.

Tullamarine definitely have the calibre to grab the four points, but it won't be easy.

After an upset loss to Taylors Lakes last week, they will be ready to fight back this weekend.

Glenroy still sit on top of the Essendon Ford Division 1 ladder comfortably, and nothing has really seemed to worry them this year.

However, if there is going to be anyone that's going to beat them, Tullamarine are the ones.

They will be hungry to get that second spot back.

HILLSIDE v OAK PARK

Oak Park's season hasn't gone as they would have planned, while Hillside have a massive chance come September as they are well-positioned to finish in the top four.

Sitting sixth with four wins and six losses after Round 12, Oak Park would love to win this to gain some confidence.

However, the game is still important for Hillside, sitting on equal points after taking Tullamarine's spot over the weekend, they would definitely like to give themselves every chance to secure a top two spot.

As well as the double chance.

Last time the two met it went right down to the wire, with Hillside taking the four points by two kicks.

This time around it is going to be interesting, knowing Oak Park would be eager to take home the win.

However, Hillside should be able to stay in control.

AIRPORT WEST v EAST KEILOR

In the context of Season 2017, this will be one of the biggest games of the year.

Airport West currently sit in fourth and hold their finals spot.

But with a big win to the Lions last weekend against Tullamarine, Airport West is no guarantee to be there come the finals.

The only thing separating the Eagles and Lions is percentage.

East Keilor will want that spot for their chance to play on the big stage come the end of the season.

Airport West will come in confident coming off a big win against Hadfield last week, which would have helped some players find some good form.

The last time the two met, the Eagles were too strong, winning comfortably.

This weekend's game is going to be huge.

TAYLORS LAKES v HADFIELD

This is a must-win for Taylors Lakes in what should be a relatively easy win for the home side.

They would not want an upset.

Hadfield have nothing to lose, and winning this weekend will affect Taylors Lakes' chances of making the finals.

Hadfield are yet to get the points this year, with the season not going the way they could have hoped, they can only try to grab a win now.

Taylors Lakes know what is at stake, and how big each win is to make sure they are there come finals.

Coming off a strong win last week against third-placed Tullamarine, they wouldn't want to get over-confident.

They should not take a desperate Hadfield lightly.

EAST SUNBURY v MOONEE VALLEY – Radio Game

The closest two teams on the ladder in the entire competition are in this match-up up at Goonawarra Reserve and the Thunder's home crowd will be boisterous to rally their team into a finals spot, which is currently with the Fog marginally by percentage.

This is a must-win game for either side and will ultimately decide whether they will play finals or not.

This will bring out a tough brand of footy where players will leave nothing on the field and make for a thrillingly close game.

Moonee Valley's tough in-and-under style with athletic forwards, contrasts greatly with East Sunbury's pace across their large home ground, making for a high-scoring match that will come down to the final siren and ultimately shift the top four.

COBURG DISTRICTS v NORTHERN SAINTS

Powerhouses of Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 are head-to-head in this match-up and with first against third, a win for either team here could really shake up the finals campaign.

The Lions' form cannot be faulted and they are fully deserving to be at the top.

However, nerves will kick in over the next few weeks as the Jaguars are only one win behind that top spot and the Saints this week will be one of their toughest match-ups for the season.

It was a close encounter last time with the fitness of the Lions proving too much to handle for the Saints.

This will make them even hungrier to get the win and knock down the immense competition in the top two spots.

BURNSIDE HEIGHTS v JACANA

With the Bears precariously floating just above the wooden spoon and the Jaguars still hunting that number one spot, both teams are out to prove that they are better than the teams around them on the ladder and will bring a ferocious attitude.

Two of the sharpest shooters the division has ever seen are head-to-head in this match-up, which could result in some major goal hauls and a high-scoring affair.

Burnside Heights fan favourite Josh Covelli is second in the division with 56 goals already this season.

It's an astonishing effort but outdone by Jacana's key man and the most in-form player of the competition in Cameron Cloke - who already has 75 majors and is quickly closing in on the century.

Exciting players for both teams and an old school quick, long and direct style could make this match much more exciting than the ladder suggests, and will include many memorable moments.

ROXBURGH PARK v KEILOR PARK

The Devils' first win for the season last week will have their confidence sky high and will lift the playing group's belief that they can get another.

With great leadership and signs of great positivity against higher teams as of late, the Magpies are still eyeing off that last finals spot and with some consistency can still rise up the ladder.

It may seem almost out of reach to many but Roxburgh Park will want to get back into some form and prove to their home crowd that they mean business this season.

EDFL TONIGHT

Wednesdays 6-7pm

*EDFL Tonight is occasionally pre-recorded prior to the Wednesday evening broadcast on 98.9 North West FM. Every episode of EDFL Tonight is available as a podcast on the EDFL's SoundCloud Channel.

Upon review of EDFL Tonight at the end of the 2016 EDFL Season, it was decided Jambo spent way too much of the airtime rambling about nothing. So to enhance your listening experience, we decided to cut the show down from 90 minutes to 60 minutes for Season 2017. You're welcome.

IS there a junior footballer at your club that deserves some recognition for their efforts?

How about an up-and-coming young star that has managed to break into your club's senior team?

If so, we want to hear about it!

The EDFL Website and official game-day Record, The Footballer, will again be running our weekly EDFL Junior of the Week and AGA Apprenticeships Plus Rising Star nominee promotions for Season 2017.

At the end of the season, the 2017 AGA Apprenticeships Plus Rising Star will be awarded to one of our weekly nominees at the EDFL's senior league medal night. Last year's winner was Roxburgh Park's Luke Capuano.

Every week during the home-and-away season, our EDFL Junior of the Week and AGA Apprenticeships Plus Rising Star Nominee will have their photo and story published in The Footballer, as well as the EDFL's Website and Social Media platforms.

We are now taking nominations for both of these weekly promotions.

Please email your nominations to adem.s@essendondfl.com.au

*Criteria for the AGA Apprenticeships Plus Rising Star: An AGA Apprenticeships Plus Rising Star Nominee must be aged between 16 & 21 and must have played (or will play) senior football during the season.
