RECENTLY AFL Victoria announced the abolishment of the VFL Development League, which in reality is a reserves competition for the VFL.

Of the 14 clubs competing in the VFL, only eight field a Development League team.

The five AFL Clubs with teams in the VFL and North Ballarat, do not field a Development League team.

Next season North Melbourne will sever ties from Werribee and field a stand-alone VFL team but no Development League team, whilst recent media speculation suggests that Frankston are looking to return to the VFL fielding a senior team only.

The addition of these two senior teams creates a further imbalance between those VFL clubs with a Development League team and those without.

In announcing the abolishment of the Development League at the end of 2017, AFL Victoria CEO Steven Reaper sighted financial difficulties and a lack of administrative resources as key reasons for the decision.

"With only eight of the 14 clubs fielding a development team, scheduling difficulties have grown each year; adding pressure to staff and volunteers with games increasingly being played at different grounds and often on different days to senior VFL games," Reaper said.

"The cost of running the DL currently sits in excess of $1 million between the competition and the clubs, and this is both not viable nor the best possible use of investment into the future, when we are seeing clubs experience financial difficulties."

There has been plenty of rebuttal emanating from VFL Clubs, but if the investment in the Development League does in-fact exceed $1 million, then it is reasonable to suggest that there are better ways for the Victorian football industry to spend $1 million on development programs than by running a VFL Reserves competition.

Many VFL clubs and their coaches are arguing that the Development League is vital to the development of players who are not recruited immediately from the TAC Cup competition.

The development of Essendon's Anthony McDonald-Tipungwuti is evidence that players can still be developed into AFL quality players. Anthony joined Essendon's VFL team out of the TAC Cup and when not selected in Essendon's senior VFL team, Anthony played for Aberfeldie in the EDFL, playing in the 2013 Grand Final against Greenvale.

Having shown form, talent and potential at both EDFL level and VFL level, Anthony was selected by Essendon in the 2015 Rookie Draft. Anthony would later be upgraded to Essendon's AFL list and has gone on to play 38 AFL games for the Bombers.

Anthony's development was assisted by playing in the EDFL and the VFL senior competition, completely bypassing the Development League. Anthony's progression from the TAC Cup, through the EDFL and the VFL to the AFL demonstrates that player development is possible without the Development League.

Greater responsibility will shift to community leagues to ensure that players not selected for their senior VFL team continue to develop and progress to the AFL, in the same manner as Anthony McDonald-Tipungwuti.

Enjoy the weekend.

(via Hume Leader)

THE 'moment' came after all the excitement and hullabaloo had gone.

When all the cheering had dissipated, the cars stopped tooting, the crowd had returned to behind the fence and the oval became a football field once again.

The 196cm forward was standing at one end of Jacana Recreation Reserve when he took a big breath, let the shoulders relax and shook free of the tension he had been holding.

Cameron Cloke had just kicked his 100th goal of the season for Jacana — a tally he had long dreamt of but never achieved.

"I don't get nervous very often, but this is probably the only one I have been," he said.

"I was hoping to not get stranded on 99 or something.

"It was good, the feeling was good.

"I've ended seasons on 98 and 99 before, so to get it over and done with ... hopefully I can do this more often in years to come."

The former Collingwood, Carlton and Port Adelaide footballer entered Saturday's match on 96 goals, with most in attendance expecting the century to be a mere formality for a player who had averaged 7.4 goals a game, only three times kicking less than six majors.

But a six-goal gale made conditions difficult — "it was probably the hardest conditions I've ever played in" — as he reached 98 by halftime thanks to a scrappy first-quarter goal and a 40m bullet into the wind the next term.

With the Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 premiership contender trailing an impressive East Sunbury outfit by 34 points at halftime, the Jaguars lifted with the breeze.

Cloke's 99th goal gave the home side the lead for the first time in the match and, just when it looked the century might have to wait a while longer, the 32-year-old gratefully received a handball from Jacana captain Michael Evans 15m out to bang through the significant major.

"It was good to get it out of the way and the boys really helped me, to be honest," Cloke said.

"It was a great team effort to get me to 100. I might kick 100, but I can't do it without the boys."

Making the moment even more special was the presence of his cousin Luke Caine on the boundary, with whom he shared a handshake after reaching the milestone.

"I was really rapt to have him here," Cloke said.

"He broke his neck playing footy. He's been a big part of our life and followed us boys.

"He's travelled about two hours (from Dromana) to come down, so it was a pretty good moment having him here."

The Jaguars went on to record an impressive 13.9 (87) to 11.12 (78) victory to keep top spot on the ladder with three rounds to go.

"I am really enjoying it, really enjoying the footy," Cloke said.

"A lot happened at the start of the year, but I've had a lot of fun.

"The standard of footy has surprised me. The likes of East Sunbury — they're probably one of the best teams and they're going to miss finals, so it just shows the type of competition this is.

"But hopefully in five weeks' time we can hold the cup up."

JACK Di Giantomasso passed away from leukaemia at the age of 52 in 2013.

His brother, Peter, was especially affected by his passing, and wanted to find a way to let his brother's legacy live on.

"I didn't want to let him (Jack) just die in vain," Di Giantomasso said.

So Di Giantomasso approached the Greenvale Football Club to see if they would be happy to play a game in honour of Jack.

"I picked the footy (as a means of fundraising) because me, my brother and my whole family are mad Essendon supporters," he said.

Of course, the club happily agreed, and today's match against Keilor now means much more than just the four points.

The two clubs will be playing for the 'Leukaemia Cup', and the players will be playing for a best-on-ground medal in honour of Jack.

There will be a barbecue held by Di Giantomasso and his family, who are heavily involved in his wonderful initiative.

"I count my lucky stars every day," Di Giantomasso said about his family.

"They're the ones who come down to the barbecue and advertise the day."

His family will also be walking around the ground with donation tins, where people can donate money towards the Leukaemia Foundation.

All the proceeds from the barbecue and the donation tins will go towards finding a cure for the debilitating disease, something Di Giantomasso has wanted to do ever since his brother's passing.

"I'd love to stand over his grave and tell him we found a cure for this," Di Giantomasso said.

He and his family have raised close to $15,000 so far for the Leukaemia Foundation, through various 'World's Greatest Shave' campaigns and other fundraising initiatives.

Di Giantomasso's newest initiative, the 'Leukaemia Cup' match, is sure to contribute a generous amount of money towards the cause, thanks to the support of the EDFL community.

He hopes that the day at Section Road can continue to occur every year, and get bigger and better.

Jack would have loved that.

By JACOB MANZIE

PASCOE VALE v ABERFELDIE

AFTER finding some belief and defeating some of the better sides in the competition, Pascoe Vale were on a bit of a roll.

However, Greenvale were quickly able to shut down the Panthers and prove to them why they're sitting on top of the ladder come Round 15 in Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division.

This weekend they will face second-on-the-ladder Aberfeldie, in what will be another very tough test for the home side.

Aberfeldie have managed to utilise their great depth and experience and conjure up what has been an impressive season, and Pascoe Vale are one of few teams that stand in their way heading into finals.

Last time they met Abers made it look easy with a comfortable win.

Let's see if the Panther can change it up and surprise Aberfeldie.

GREENVALE v KEILOR

In what has been a very up and down season for Keilor, there have definitely been some impressive signs at times throughout the 2017 season.

They would certainly enjoy knocking off flag favourite Greenvale on their home deck at Section Road here.

In their last outing Greenvale made pretty quick work of Keilor and grabbed the win by 54 points.

Greenvale were able to reduce Keilor's avenue to goal and single out Dean Galea, as he was the only multiple goal kicker.

Keilor will be sure to watch Addam Maric as well as Fortunato Caruso, whom were strong for the Jets.

In the context of the season, there is much on the line for either team, however Greenvale will want to continue their winning form with finals around the corner.

WEST COBURG v CRAIGIEBURN – Radio Game @ Coburg City Oval

With no wins for the 2017 season, Craigieburn could possibly grab the points against West Coburg this weekend if they play like they did last week.

After sitting only three points behind Strathmore in the third quarter last weekend, Craigieburn showed positive signs.

Coming up against West Coburg, whom sit one spot above them on the Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division ladder, there is every chance of Craigieburn causing an upset if they get the jump on the home side.

West Coburg haven't been able to grab a win since they knocked off Strathmore in what was an impressive performance, so they will be hungrier than ever this weekend.

However, they may lack the confidence and determination they need.

If Craigieburn can come out strong early and stay in possession of the football, they may be able take it home from there.

MARIBYRNONG PARK v AVONDALE HEIGHTS

After a few shaky games over the past five weeks, Maribyrnong Park managed to steady against Keilor last week in what was a must-win game to ensure they would have a finals campaign.

Now from here on out, the Lions will want to find their peak form again and take it into September.

Last time they crossed paths with Avondale Heights they strung together a good four quarters and controlled the game, taking home the points.

However, Avondale Heights have found some decent form themselves and will be ready to come out hard from the first bounce.

If they can shut down Jock Cornell and Robbie Castello - who gave them trouble in the last outing - the Heights will give themselves every chance of an upset.

If the Lions are ready to go, however, it may be a tough day for the Heights at Monk Oval.

STRATHMORE v ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS

After a confident start to the year, Essendon Douutta Stars haven't been able to keep up with the pace of the 2017 season.

Let's see if it shows against one of the top four in Strathmore.

The two will face off at Lebanon Reserve in what should be a good game of hard football.

Last time these two met, Strathmore were able to get the jump on Essendon Douutta Stars and take home the win by 40 points.

Can the Stars do anything differently this weekend to turn the tables?

It will be interesting to see which of the five senior players will come back into the squad for Strathmore after there were multiple outs for their game against Craigieburn.

The Stars couldn't keep up with Aberfeldie last weekend as they were blown away in the first three quarters.

Let see if they can pull their socks up to put up a strong, hard contest.

Are you suffering from dry skin, scars, stretch marks or wrinkles?

If you suffer from acne scars, atopic eczema, dry skin, fine lines and wrinkles, pigmentation spots, premature ageing, skin burns, stretch marks, sun damaged skin, sun spots or surgical and accidental scars... here's some really great news.

If you suffer from one or more of the above conditions Uber Secrets Rosa Mosqueta Rosehip Oil may be just what you are looking for. Rosa Mosqueta Rosehip Oil has been validated by Scientific Research worldwide. Following are just a few amazing findings.

Scarring (surgical, injury and post-burn) and premature ageing

During a two-year study by a team of researchers from the Faculty of Chemistry and Pharmacology at the University of Concepcion, a prestigious University in Chile, the oil was applied to 180 patients with surgical, injury and post-burn scars, as well as to a group suffering from premature ageing. It was found that Rosa Mosqueta (Rosehip Oil) produced an effective regenerative action on the skin, helping to attenuate scars and wrinkles, preventing advancement of premature ageing, and regaining lost colour and tone.

Surgical scars

Women who had suffered unilateral or bilateral mastectomy applied Rosa Mosqueta Oil after the surgical stitches were removed. After three months of applying the oil twice daily (morning and evening) the scars were less apparent, without lumps, and skin elasticity had improved, as had the colour of the area. In another study treating post-operative scarring, both from surgery and laser treatment, the results have been excellent in over 90% of the cases over a period of around six months' use. With acne scars the results are equally encouraging, even where scarring is over 20 years old. (Do not use oil if acne is still active).

*"Now the Duchess of Cambridge, Kate Middleton's skincare secret has been revealed and it won't cost you a King's ransom".
"Kate Middleton is said to be using a Rosehip Oil right now and she apparently is a huge fan."*

Skin burns

In a study of 90 patients who had suffered burns, a four-month treatment of Rosehip - Rosa Mosqueta Oil resulted in 97% improvement in relation to their initial state. Dr Leonardo Rusowsky, surgeon at Enrique Deformos Hospital in Santiago, Chile, and acting president of the Corporation for Aid to Children with Burns has researched the healing properties of Rosehip - Rosa Mosqueta Oil and has stated that it improves the texture and quality of skin by increasing its elasticity, flattens out scarring and improves the colour of scars and surrounding skin.

EAST KEILOR v TULLAMARINE

IN what has been an up and down season for East Keilor - where they haven't quiet been able to come up against the best - they have still had a reasonable year as they sit sixth with five wins and eight losses.

However this will be a big challenge, coming up against a very strong Tullamarine side who haven't done all that much wrong.

It will put the Cougars to the test.

Tullamarine sits a game ahead of Hillside and would love to stay there to earn their double chance in the finals - a win this week will pretty much cement that.

In their last outing Tullamarine got the jump early and were able to stay in control for four quarters, not allowing East Keilor back in.

East Keilor will be sure to come out firing so that history doesn't repeat itself here.

GLENROY v AIRPORT WEST

In what is a huge game for Airport West's season, they must try and cause an upset if they are any chance of making finals.

Glenroy last week showed why they sit on top of the table with a dominant win over Hillside, so this is going to be tough for the Eagles at Sewell Reserve.

Glenroy took home the points in a strong win against the Eagles on the last occasion, so Airport West will be hunting redemption, as well as a top four spot.

Last time they met, Jayden Walker kept the Eagles backline busy.

With five goals to his name that day, he will be one they will watch closely.

If the young players like Jesse Eddy, Jack Formosa and Tyson Young can stand up along with their more experienced team mates, there is a chance of an upset for Airport West.

WESTMEADOWS v TAYLORS LAKES

Sitting fourth but not comfortably, Taylors Lakes need to continue to win to make sure they make finals.

With Airport West breathing down their necks, one wrong move and the top four could change again.

With three rounds to go, the Lions wouldn't want to let finals slip.

Coming up against a good side in Westmeadows, there is every chance they might, though.

Although they sit eighth on the Essendon Ford Division 1 ladder, the Tigers have beaten some of the top sides this season, including both Hillside and Oak Park.

There is no doubt they will come out confident and ready to win today.

OAK PARK v HADFIELD

Not the biggest game in the context of the season, as neither team will be able to make finals.

However, Hadfield are still yet to put a win on the board in 2017 and there is no doubt they will still be hungry for victory.

Oak Park won't be the easiest of opponents.

Although the scoreboard doesn't reflect the Kangaroos having the best season, they have come within arm's length of taking the points home against some of the best sides in the competition.

Last time these two teams met Oak Park blew Hadfield out of the water down at Martin Reserve with a comfortable win.

After strong games from Jesse Hotchkin and Robert Ryan, Hadfield will have a close eye on them.

Burnside Heights vs East Sunbury

Northern Saints vs Keilor Park

Jacana vs Coburg Districts

Moonee Valley vs Roxburgh Park

By LIAM McALLION

NORTHERN SAINTS v MOONEE VALLEY

BOTH teams may at some point play each other in the finals and this is the chance to test tactics, making for an interesting contest at Charles Mutton Reserve.

Respectively locked into third and fourth positions, both teams will want to get into winning form before the finals and they match up extremely well.

Ned Wilson, who is having another great season for the Fog, will be again vital while Wally Abbouchi should again have an important impact for the Saints.

It's a great all round match-up with both teams featuring bigger bodies, so this will be a hard-hitting, close match, with a lot of talent on display.

Expect a finals-like atmosphere.

EAST SUNBURY v COBURG DISTRICTS

Coburg Districts, being on top of the ladder for the majority of the season, is still trying to cement the minor premiership ahead of the Jags.

The Lions will try to gain a big win here, but the Thunder's swift game play and young talent match up well against an experienced away side.

Forty-four goals for Lion Luke Vesnaver and 33 for the Thunder's Tom Burnside will provide an exciting atmosphere with two crowd favourites in consistent form on display.

Both teams are well-suited here at the big ground of John McMahon Reserve.

With open forward lines and plenty of space for run-and-carry, this should be a high-standard game.

BURNSIDE HEIGHTS v JACANA

The battle of two of the competition's most prominent and skilful forwards is on offer here at Tenterfield Drive.

With a combined total of 160 goals for the season between Burnside Heights' Josh Covelli and Jacana's Cam Cloke, we might see some big bombs from outside and around 50.

If we do, this could turn out to be a thriller.

The Bears are looking to avoid yet another wooden spoon and will want to again be competitive here.

With skilful leaders in their side playing well each week, this could be a real possibility.

At the other end of the ladder is Jacana, flying high and needing to keep winning to claim the minor premiership from Coburg Districts.

They will come out hard and their swift ball movement will be on display as they try to head into the finals on a positive note.

KEILOR PARK v ROXBURGH PARK

This battle of the 'Parks' seems to always bring a lot of hard contests and goals at each end, resulting in a close, exciting match-up.

Keilor Park's competitiveness of late doesn't show on the ladder and towards the end of the season, their pride could rally them to get another win on the board here.

The Magpies will come out hard at the ball and the body to try and shut down the vocal and always loyal home Devils crowd.

Tumay Hamza, such a big part of the Magpies outfit and Devils skipper Pete Corredig, both show great leadership and seem to perform and get on the scoreboard on a consistent basis.

They provide real threats around the ground for both sides and it will be exciting to see what they can deliver in this one.

Koby Young (Hillside)

KOBY Young has been with Hillside Football Club from his first game in Under 10s and is currently in Under 15s.

It is through his love for the game that he has achieved an amazing milestone at such a young age reaching 150 games.

He has done whatever is required of him, including playing almost all games in the Under 16s last year as well as his own side in the Under 14s, just to help out his brother and all his team mates so they could field a side each week.

He has also on occasion helped out the Senior group with running water.

He is an asset to the Hillside Football Club and we wish him all the success he desires.

Nominations have now closed for the EDFL Junior of the Week for Season 2017. We thank all clubs that have submitted EDFL Junior of the Week nominations in Season 2017.
