LAST weekend saw the first round of the EDFL Junior Finals with some close matches and exciting finishes throughout the weekend.

It was great to see 27 different clubs represented in the junior finals series.

The grand finals for all age groups in Divisions 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 will be played this weekend with Glenroy, Hadfield and Keilor hosting grand finals.

This weekend will also see preliminary finals for Divisions 1, 2, 3 and 4 and for all of our girls and women's competitions. These preliminary finals will be played at different venues across the EDFL. The grand finals for these divisions will be played next weekend on Sunday 20th August.

Finals are a great opportunity to celebrate the junior football season and it is important that everyone attending finals this weekend appreciate the effort being put into the finals series, including our players, our officials and our umpires. Whilst it is great to win, ultimately we are not playing for sheep stations, therefore it is important to maintain the expected levels of behaviour and treat everyone with dignity and respect.

Prior to each grand final, the best & fairest winner and runner-up for each competition will be presented with their best & fairest medal for their outstanding performance throughout the season. Congratulations to all the players who have finished in the top two of their competition's best & fairest count.

At this time, the officiating umpires will also be presented with their medal for their achievement in being selected to officiate in a grand final. All umpires strive to officiate in a grand final and their selection is reward for their hard work throughout the year and recognition of their on-field performance. Congratulations to all umpires who have been selected to officiate in the finals series, and to those selected to officiate in grand finals.

Congratulations must also be extended to all the junior players who will play in a grand final over the course of these next two weekends.

This is a timely opportunity to remind everyone that an admission fee is charged for junior grand finals and senior finals. Most other metropolitan leagues charge an admission fee for all junior finals, or alternatively they charge the junior players a player registration fee in lieu of an admission fee. For the junior finals the EDFL only charges an admission fee for the junior grand finals, in an attempt to keep costs for families to a minimum.

I encourage the EDFL community to get along to the junior grand finals to support and encourage the junior players striving to win a premiership medal.

Admission prices for the junior grand finals are as follows:

Adults: $10.00

Valid Aged Pension Card Holders (must produce aged pension card): $5.00

Valid Secondary Student Concession (must produce photo ID card): $5.00

Children under 14: FREE

Enjoy the weekend.

KEILOR has done it again, beating Manor Lakes for the third time in as many games.

But this win had a little more significance, as it propelled the ever-so-dominant Blues into the Grand Final.

Tanay Barbuto stepped up to the plate, and starred with three big goals in the Qualifying Final win.

The match was one of the most worrying encounters for Keilor, only leading by 11 points at half time.

But Keilor kicked into gear and fired up in the third quarter, kicking four unanswered goals to send Manor Lakes into this weekend's Preliminary Final against Sunbury.

Despite a great game from Madisson Ahumada, the Storm couldn't match the skill and efforts displayed by Keilor's Rachael Knight, Bryana Jones and Jill McBain.

The Wright sisters and Brooke Todero were consistent as usual for the Blues, and it helped them score a fantastic 43-point victory.

KEILOR 7.10-52

Goal Kickers: T. Barbuto 3, B. Todero 2, E. Dunster, R. Foster

Best Players: R. Knight, S. Wright, G. Wright, B. Jones, J. McBain, T. Barbuto

MANOR LAKES 1.3-9

Goal Kickers: M. Ahumada

Best Players: M. Ahumada, A. Bettels, B. Borda, E. Hinton, J. Paten, S. Swanson

Meanwhile, the First Semi between the Sunbury Lions and Caroline Springs was a real coin toss, with both teams playing some excellent footy throughout the season.

Sunbury aimed to start off the game with a bang, but their inaccuracy hurt them on the scoreboard, kicking five behinds in the first quarter.

The Lakers fought back in the second quarter, and kicked two goals to Sunbury's one, reducing the deficit to just one point at half time.

In the third quarter, the Lions' inaccuracy plagued them again, ending the quarter with three goals and 13 behinds.

But to their credit, they managed to keep Caroline Springs to just one behind for the rest of the game, and in the end, it was a convincing 30-point win for Sunbury.

Ilesha Lauaki, Brooke Theodore, Natalie East and Simone Craige continued their great form in the blue and white.

This time, the girls were able to step up to the plate and deliver their team a Preliminary Final berth.

SUNBURY 5.15-45

Best Players: I. Lauaki, B. Theodore, N. East, S. Craige, B. Surgeon, J. Jonkers Albrecht

CAROLINE SPRINGS 2.3-15

Goal Kickers: S. Sanfilippo, K. Fitzsimons

Best Players: K. Raymundo, C. Lacey, K. Fitzsimons, S. Catania, R. Swallow, A. Jamieson

Are you suffering from dry skin, scars, stretch marks or wrinkles?

If you suffer from acne scars, atopic eczema, dry skin, fine lines and wrinkles, pigmentation spots, premature ageing, skin burns, stretch marks, sun damaged skin, sun spots or surgical and accidental scars... here's some really great news.

If you suffer from one or more of the above conditions Uber Secrets Rosa Mosqueta Rosehip Oil may be just what you are looking for. Rosa Mosqueta Rosehip Oil has been validated by Scientific Research worldwide. Following are just a few amazing findings.

Scarring (surgical, injury and post-burn) and premature ageing

During a two-year study by a team of researchers from the Faculty of Chemistry and Pharmacology at the University of Concepcion, a prestigious University in Chile, the oil was applied to 180 patients with surgical, injury and post-burn scars, as well as to a group suffering from premature ageing. It was found that Rosa Mosqueta (Rosehip Oil) produced an effective regenerative action on the skin, helping to attenuate scars and wrinkles, preventing advancement of premature ageing, and regaining lost colour and tone.

Surgical scars

Women who had suffered unilateral or bilateral mastectomy applied Rosa Mosqueta Oil after the surgical stitches were removed. After three months of applying the oil twice daily (morning and evening) the scars were less apparent, without lumps, and skin elasticity had improved, as had the colour of the area. In another study treating post-operative scarring, both from surgery and laser treatment, the results have been excellent in over 90% of the cases over a period of around six months' use. With acne scars the results are equally encouraging, even where scarring is over 20 years old. (Do not use oil if acne is still active).

"Now the Duchess of Cambridge, Kate Middleton's skincare secret has been revealed and it won't cost you a King's ransom". "Kate Middleton is said to be using a Rosehip Oil right now and she apparently is a huge fan."

*Source (A Current Affair, March 11 2015)

Skin burns

In a study of 90 patients who had suffered burns, a four-month treatment of Rosehip - Rosa Mosqueta Oil resulted in 97% improvement in relation to their initial state. Dr Leonardo Rusowsky, surgeon at Enrique Deformes Hospital in Santiago, Chile, and acting president of the Corporation for Aid to Children with Burns has researched the healing properties of Rosehip - Rosa Mosqueta Oil and has stated that it improves the texture and quality of skin by increasing its elasticity, flattens out scarring and improves the colour of scars and surrounding skin.

(via Northern Star Weekly)

ROXBURGH Park is hoping to end a disappointing Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 season on a positive note.

The Magpies, who have played in two Grand Finals and a Preliminary Final in the past three years, are already out of contention to finish in the top four.

Magpies coach Travis McCarty said everyone in the club was disappointed with how the season panned out.

"We had a block of six weeks from Round 7 to Round 13 when we had ... six straight losses," McCarty said.

"We had a terrible run of injuries and unavailabilities and it derailed our season.

"It has come as a bit of a shock. The club hasn't been in that position for a number of years."

One positive to come from the poor season has been the development of a number of younger players.

"We've blooded a number of Under 19.5 players and two Under 17 players," McCarty said.

"It gives them exposure to senior football and it's more experience for the next generation."

While McCarty said the club was lamenting lost opportunities it was hoping to finish the season on the right note. Defeating

Keilor Park on Saturday was a step in the right direction for that. After a poor start the Magpies came from behind to win 9.13-67 to 6.3-39.

Hayden Farrelly and Turnay Hamza kicked two goals each for the Magpies, with Kajanithen Gnanapragasam named the best in the win.

Adrian MacKinnon and Harley Short were also instrumental in the win.

McCarty said it was pleasing to see the playing group step up instead of letting the game go the way of Keilor Park.

"We had been three to four goals down," he said. "We had to dig deep in the second half and even though guys were down, they were able to find a way to win.

"Regardless of ladder positions that was a gutsy win."

It's not all bad news this season for the Magpies with both the Under 19.5s and Reserves teams making finals.

The club has started planning for next season and is advertising coaching roles. McCarty told the club two weeks ago that he wouldn't continue on in the senior coaching role.

"I'm undecided whether I'll still coach, but I'd love to stay involved at Roxburgh Park."

ABERFELDIE v STRATHMORE

A PREVIEW of just what to expect in a few weeks' time as the finals begin for 2017, and it should be a cracker.

Fair to say the rivalry between Aberfeldie and Strathmore has always been quite prominent over the years and this weekend will definitely be a hard, exhilarating game of football at Clifton Park.

Strathmore handed Aberfeldie their first loss of the season last time the two met and ended their hot streak.

The Mores were able to get on top in the first quarter, however the game was a tug of war after that until Strathmore managed to kick away in the last.

Alex Grima kicked six goals and was best-on for Strathmore and will be watched closely this week, that's for sure.

Being late in the season and with not much to lose for both sides, it will be interesting to see if players are rested.

KEILOR v PASCOE VALE

Another good game to watch as fifth takes on sixth at Keilor Reserve.

Keilor and Pascoe Vale are two teams who have definitely showed their potential throughout the year, however they just haven't been able to match it with the best on game day.

Last time the two met it went down to the wire, however Keilor were too strong for the Panthers and were able to get over the line by 23 points.

Pascoe Vale came out hard and went into quarter time four goals up, yet they couldn't continue to run with Keilor as they brought the margin back and got on top.

Dean Galea was a powerhouse up forward kicking six goals and Pascoe Vale will be watching him closely.

ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS v WEST COBURG

Coming off a loss last week to Strathmore, Essendon Doutta Stars will want come out hard against West Coburg and shut them out of the game early.

On the other hand, West Coburg are coming off a comfortable win against Craigieburn and will be quite confident they can give the Stars a run for their money.

Last time the two went head-to-head Essendon Doutta

Stars kicked 11 unanswered goals in the first quarter to blow the lead out to 74 points.

West Coburg game back strong, however the game was already pretty much lost.

It is certain that West Coburg will not let this happen again and will come out firing to get on top early.

AVONDALE HEIGHTS v GREENVALE

An upset wouldn't really worry Greenvale as they have already made the top two and secured their double chance in the finals.

If there would be a team to cause an upset, though, it would be Avondale Heights.

However, their track record against the Jets isn't the best as they were dealt a 121-point loss against them last time they met at Section Road.

Let's see if the home ground advantage makes a difference.

The Heights have been very impressive in their first quarters this year, starting well against every team in the competition, yet they just haven't been able to hold on to the lead and stay in control of the game.

Ozgur Uysal and Addam Maric both snagged five goals last time they met so it will be a very big day for the defenders at Avondale Heights.

CRAIGIEBURN v MARIBYRNONG PARK

Being three games clear of fifth spot, Maribymong Park are in a relatively comfortable position coming into this game against Craigieburn.

It will be interesting to see, though, if they get a little bit too comfortable.

With Marby sure to rest a few players with a big finals campaign just around the corner, Craigieburn have every opportunity to get the jump on the visitors and grab their first win of the 2017 season, however it won't be as easy as it sounds.

In their last outing the Lions kicked five unanswered goals to really shut Craigieburn out of the game and if they get in control here and are able to stay in possession, they are the likely winner.

However, anything can happen in this competition.

EAST KEILOR v OAK PARK – Radio Game

THOUGH unlikely, both teams are still in the finals hunt and need to win this to stay alive.

East Keilor takes on Oak Park at Overland Reserve and neither team will be holding back.

The Cougars won by only one kick in the previous match-up, so Oak Park will be looking to get one back against the home side.

If East Keilor can shut down Aden Harris and Dean Clare, who gave them trouble up forward last time the two met, they will restrict the Kangaroos' goal-scoring power.

Both teams will look at this game as a final, so it's a game to definitely watch in Round 17.

TULLAMARINE v HILLSIDE

Both sides sit on equal points with 10 wins and four losses, so this game is going to be huge.

It's a look at what is to be expected come the finals in a couple of weeks and a preview to how exciting the Essendon Ford Division 1 finals are going to be.

Hillside have been strong all year, not really missing a beat, which puts them ahead of their challengers in Tullamarine.

Last time the two met it was a thriller, with the Demons just scraping over the line by four points to get the win.

Hillside won't want to let this game slip as a loss here may see them lose the double chance.

TAYLORS LAKES v GLENROY

This game will be a big test for Taylors Lakes as they may have to come up against Glenroy in a couple of weeks' time.

However, they need to make the finals first.

With two games to go, Taylors Lakes really need to force an upset here so they can stay a game clear of Airport West.

If they lose this weekend they give the Eagles, Cougars or Kangaroos every chance to grab fourth spot.

Seeing as Glenroy are comfortably atop the ladder and with finals just around the corner, they may choose to rest some players so they're fresh and ready to go.

That gives Taylors Lakes every chance to grab the much needed points this weekend.

Last time these two went head-to-head, Glenroy controlled the game and got the win pretty easily, so it will be interesting to see if the Lions can respond.

HADFIELD v WESTMEADOWS

Westmeadows will have their tails up coming into this weekend after coming off a very good win against Taylors Lakes last week.

Hadfield will still be hungry for a win, which at the moment doesn't look likely before the end of the 2017 season.

Last time they met Westmeadows dismembered the Hadfield outfit, kicking 32 goals for the game and dominating them in every area.

Hadfield will be looking to fix their mistakes and get their first win before season's end.

MOONEE VALLEY v JACANA

A BIG crowd will be behind Moonee Valley at Ormond Park for a game of the highest level between two in-form teams who are locked in for finals.

Jacana, after a dominant 14 weeks with record-breaking forward Cameron Cloke and leaders galore, are back chasing the minor premiership.

An always proud and vocal crowd for the Fog will again be aplenty and with the forward pressure that their black and white provide, this will be an absolute thriller.

It'll be a finals-like atmosphere with two of the most in-form teams on display, and there'll be bags of goals and many big hits in a must-see matchup.

EAST SUNBURY v NORTHERN SAINTS

The speed and pace of the ball will be at an elite level.

With the experience of Wally Abbouchi coming back into the side, he adds to the class the Saints have by foot, while young gun Tom Burnside's aerial ability and agility will make this one to watch.

The wide expanses of John McMahon Reserve will have the crowd licking their lips as run-and-carry is both sides' forte.

The Northern Saints are looking for a clean run and positive mindset towards finals but they will be challenged in a close one against East Sunbury, who are hard to beat on home soil.

COBURG DISTRICTS v KEILOR PARK

Fresh off a burst into top spot, Coburg Districts is looking to keep the minor premiership dream alive and will bring its A-game this weekend.

At the opposite end of the ladder, Keilor Park is still looking to save itself from the wooden spoon and jump the Bears on the ladder.

The Devils have shown lately that through a young swift midfield and experience around the ground that they can be competitive each week and create high-scoring affairs.

This game will feature some of the division's best in the Lions and with the fitness and tenacity the home side has each week to run out games, fans will not be disappointed.

ROXBURGH PARK v BURNSIDE HEIGHTS

With pride still on the line for both sides to finish out the season on a high, the tough, grinding attitudes these clubs bring each week will again shine.

With 67 goals for the year, Josh Covelli will no doubt be one to watch.

With his experience up against a rising star of Jack Elliot bringing his immense pressure, there will be some really good contested footy inside the Bears' arc.

Burnside Heights' determination to stay above the bottom of the ladder and Roxburgh Park's tenacity in contests will give fans plenty to cheer about in what could be a close one.

Zein Omar (Roxburgh Park)

ZEIN has played mainly as Roxburgh Park's ruckman the past two years in Under 10s but this year has worked both in the ruck and has been a sensational target when he's moved to centre half forward.

Zein is always in the game and his presence lifts all of the boys around him.

He was the runner-up in the 2016 EDFL Under 10 Division 3 Best & Fairest and has again been brilliant this year.

Zein has also stepped up to Under 13s when they have been short and has not looked out of place playing against the older boys

Unfortunately, Zein recently broke his collarbone when chasing an opponent out of the forward line, but the club is looking forward to having him back, raring to go next season!

Nominations have now closed for the EDFL Junior of the Week for Season 2017. We thank all clubs that have submitted EDFL Junior of the Week nominations in Season 2017.

AGA Apprenticeships Plus Rising Star

Jordan Defilippis (Burnside Heights)

JORDAN began his career with the Bears in 2013 in their first Under 14 side and quickly went on to gain admirers with his work ethic and determination.

In his first few years with the club Jordan won a best & fairest and also represented the club at interleague level.

This season with the club having no Under 19.5s, Jordan remained with the Bears and forged his way into the senior line-up and has held his own.

Playing as a small forward, 'Meatball', as he is affectionately known, shows great tenacity around the ball and is always leading the way with his tackling pressure.

We look forward to Jordan being part of the Bears line-up for many years to come.

Nominations have now closed for the AGA Apprenticeships Plus Rising Star for Season 2017. We thank all clubs that have submitted AGA Apprenticeships Plus Rising Star nominations in Season 2017.
