THIS weekend sees the commencement of the Essendon Ford Division 1 senior men's competition and with it, all EDFL competitions will have started.

Friday night will be a highlight with recently-promoted Jacana hosting Westmeadows.

The Jaguars will be unfurling their 2017 premiership flag from

Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 and will be hoping for a successful start to 2018 in Essendon Ford Division 1.

EDFL Media will be live streaming the game on our Facebook page, which means you can watch the game live on facebook.com/essendondfl.

This marks the first ever time the EDFL has visually live streamed a game.

Just prior to the commencement of the Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 season, Keilor Park formally advised the EDFL that they would not be able to field any senior men's teams for the 2018 season.

Senior executives of the club were very sad and disappointed to reach this decision, and they had been providing updates to the EDFL in the weeks leading up to the season commencing.

Planning has commenced for a successful re-entry to the Senior Men's competition for Keilor Park in 2019.

The club is fielding an EDFL Women's team in 2018 for the first time and with strong Auskick and junior programs, the club has a strong foundation.

The withdrawal of Keilor Park left Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 with only seven teams.

After considering multiple options on the best way of managing the fixture, match points and ladder calculations, the EDFL decided to extend the season to 21 weeks, meaning each club plays every opposition team three times and has three byes.

This provides the highest integrity for the competition, however does present inconvenience to the remaining Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 clubs.

I enjoyed watching a number of senior men's and women's Round 1 matches on Good Friday and last weekend.

There were some unexpected results and close finishes.

Overall, I thought the standard of play was very high.

Good luck for the weekend.

By JULIA MONTESANO

IT'S not every day that we see an American dominating in the AFL.

But Portland Sockeyes and now Keilor midfielder, Jess Blecher, made Joe Brown Oval her own in the inaugural EDFL Women's game on Good Friday.

Blecher looked at home in Keilor's red, white and blue and says she felt that way when she chose to play for the Blues.

"The culture of the team is awesome," Blecher told essendondfl.com.au.

"Everyone's just taken me on-board like family and I just loved it.

"It felt like home and I knew I could get better from here."

Blecher kicked two goals and was named Keilor's best in the 70-point win over Strathmore.

She stood out on the field, where she burst through contests with her speed (and socks) right up.

Blecher says her sporting background has helped to develop her skills in Aussie Rules.

"My whole life I was playing soccer," the Keilor recruit said.

"That's why my socks are all the way up.

"I've done cross country and track as well so I kind of have that running background.

"I never really did the basketball and volleyball stuff, so the handball and the taps are kind of weird to me but yeah, definitely soccer and running are my backgrounds."

For Blecher, walking onto Joe Brown Oval and walking into training at Portland are different feelings, but both mean a lot to her.

"You just drive around Melbourne and there's footy ovals and posts everywhere and it just warms my heart because basically, we just take our soccer complex and kind of outline our own lines and put PVC pipes as our goals," she explained.

"They're short, so it's even harder to tell if it's a goal or not.

"Most girls in the States are trying to get better but most are kind of out there for fun.

"It's high-intensity and I love it."

Blecher is looking forward to her future at the Keilor Football Club but has higher goals in mind for her future.

The Fremantle supporter admits she would love to play VFL Women's and that AFLW is a "pipedream" of hers.

But for now, her heart is red, white and blue as she aims to give her all for the Keilor Football Club.

THE home-and-away fixture and final series for Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 has undergone several amendments following the withdrawal of Keilor Park from the 2018 season.

To provide the highest integrity of the Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 senior and reserves competitions, as well as the fairest method for all clubs, the EDFL has decided to extend the fixture from 18 rounds to 21 rounds.

This allows every club to play each other three times and have three byes.

Teams will be given four premiership points for a bye, as they are in Essendon Ford Division 1.

A bye will replace Keilor Park in the existing fixture and there will be a complete round of matches on both 9 June (Queens Birthday weekend) and 16 June.

Two additional weeks will be added to the original fixture, with Rounds 19, 20 and 21 to replicate the existing Rounds 5, 6 and 7.

"We understand that this is a significant change and appreciate it will cause inconvenience," EDFL CEO Craig Armstead said.

"However, we believe it is the best outcome given the circumstances."

The revised fixture for Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 is on Page 32.

Key Fixture Dates for Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 in 2018:

STRATHMORE v GREENVALE – Radio Game

STRATHMORE Community Bank Premier Division has a habit of giving us blockbuster games on a near weekly basis and this is the pick of them this weekend.

Some were ready to write the Mores off after losing several experienced players over the summer but they were quick to silence the critics against a more fancied Keilor outfit two weeks ago.

The top end of their list still boasts high quality players with plenty to give and it'll be the likes of Jaryd Cachia, Alex Grima, Adam Iacobucci, Luke Jarrad and Hamish McIntosh that will continue to lead the way alongside a swathe of kids coming through.

Their depth is going to get a good test here, as Greenvale simply picked up where they left off last week.

The Jets easily took care Avondale Heights without Addam Maric and Courtenay Dempsey in the 22.

Jacob Thompson will prove a handful for Nathan Grima's back line and the Jets' midfield hasn't lost a step after losing the services of Stephen Brewer over the summer.

Flip a coin for this one.

PASCOE VALE v KEILOR

The loser here heads into Round 3 at 0-2, so stakes are high.

Both clubs led their respective Round 1 games at half time only to let slip their advantages in the second half.

Keilor showed in patches what they're capable of on Good Friday, but there's a reason we have an entire chapter dedicated to 'four-quarter efforts' in the coaches' manual.

They have increased their goal-kicking power up forward with new recruit Josh Martin emerging from Good Friday with two snags, while Galea is going to give you his usual three or four at minimum most weeks.

Pascoe Vale has discovered some potency of its own, however, and it was on full display against the premiers last week.

Their forward line duo of Patrick Veszpremi and Matthew Watson is going to prove a handful for Mick Tanner and his fellow Blues defenders, while it'll be interesting to see how Lachie Hansen gets used in this one after a quiet game last week.

The microscope will be focused onto the loser of this one.

ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS v GLENROY

Another match-up that might have repercussions for the loser.

When Glenroy won promotion out of Essendon Ford Division 1 last September, they probably wouldn't have expected to go into an early-season away game against Douttas as a favourite the following year.

But after a very solid first-up hit-out against West Coburg where the Roys led by 21 points at half time, we've already seen that Glenroy is no easy-beat in Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division.

Based on our first impressions last weekend, maybe Essendon Doutta Stars is an easy-beat at this point of the new season.

With a side that was virtually unrecognisable, the Stars failed to give a yelp at Monk Oval and were completely outplayed from the start.

No Premier Division calibre side should be conceding 100 points in a half, so Dean Wallis will be sure to get into the ear of this defenders as they prepare to face up to Jayden Walker, Adam Winter and Aaron Kite.

Jordan Schroder aside, there were no winners on the park for Douttas last week.

In front a hopeful home crowd at NJO, the mob in navy blue and gold will want to make sure they make amends on last week's shocker.

WEST COBURG v ABERFELDIE

As funny as some may think this sounds, West Coburg has a habit of coming into games like this with some kind of hope of pulling off an upset.

Digby Morrell and his crew will have looked at the footage from Aberfeldie's close win over Pascoe Vale and discovered some chinks in the Abers armour.

The premiers had a slow start last week and had to claw their way back from a four-goal quarter time deficit to just sneak over the line. Granted, the Gorillas were missing some key cogs, most notably defender Ryan Allan, but if Pocco showed EDFL neutrals anything last week at Clifton Park, it was that the mob in two shades of blue is certainly beatable.

West Coburg's win over Glenroy shouldn't be overlooked.

With an improved midfield and, finally, a key forward option finding his way in the competition in Daniel Archer, the pieces are starting to fall into place for the Burgers.

As long as they're willing to be daring through the midfield and take full advantage of the familiar surrounds of City Oval, then there is a chance of a surprise in this one.

AVONDALE HEIGHTS v MARIBYRNONG PARK

Avondale Heights coach Donald McDonald is already on the record about 2018 being more about development than finals.

His young side stayed with Greenvale up at Section Road for three quarters last week before running out of legs on a warm day.

They simply didn't have the depth to keep up with Greenvale but it was encouraging to see Scott Clouston, Scott Harding, Dennis Armfield and Mathew Cravino all play well.

Their top end is nothing to scoff at.

Whether they have the staying power to compete with Maribymong Park is what we're looking for from Avondale Heights in this one.

Marby was at its scintillating best from the get-go against Douttas last week and was keen to build some early percentage once the four points were in the bag.

The Lions had 12 goal-kickers last week, including a combined eight that were shared between quality midfielders Will Martiniello, Caleb Vearing and Reynolds Medallist, Zac Keogh.

If Robbie Castello's men bring that potency and energy to Canning Street, then it could be another tough day at the office for the Heights.

JACANA v WESTMEADOWS

– Watch on Facebook Live from Friday 7pm

THE perfect way to kick off Round 1, with a Friday night blockbuster between last season's Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 premiers and a side looking to climb back up the ladder.

The Jaguars will unveil their premiership flag before what is hopefully a good crowd and early signs are they won't be push overs in the higher grade.

They've kept most of the premiership side intact and added a few more players. Cameron Cloke is the biggest loss, but they found a handy replacement in his older brother, Jason.

The Jaguars will be looking to make sure they do enough to stay in Essendon Ford Division 1 and possibly look at playing finals.

Most of the talk during the off-season about the Tigers has centred around Dane Swan.

With Swan not expected to play here, it will be a good chance to get a look at the other new recruits like Dean Clare, Aaron Ramsey and Jesse Bowe.

The Tigers also look set to continue playing the younger guys, with many of them having played under new senior coach Grant Smith, who previously coached the Under 19.5 side.

TAYLORS LAKES v EAST KEILOR

We've already had a glimpse of Taylors Lakes and they proved no match for Hillside in their Good Friday clash.

The Lions have added more forward depth with the hope of becoming a higher-scoring team, but are well aware of where they sit this season.

The Lions only missed out on finals last season by percentage, but it will be a challenge to take the next step in what is expected to be a really close division.

The Cougars are one side that is looking to overtake them and they haven't been shy in stating a premiership is the aim this season.

The Cougars have been among the big players on the recruiting front, including signing Strathmore duo Matthew Knight and Tom Gleeson, Dion Hill, Tom Madden, David House, Will Considine, Michael Licciaro and James Philpot.

If the Cougars gel early on, it will be dangerous signs for the other sides, with the team also having some talented youth coming through as well.

CRAIGIEBURN v HILLSIDE

These two sides shape as two of the most interesting sides heading into the Division 1 season.

The Sharks played Division 1 finals for the first time last season and they have managed to keep most of their squad intact as they look at getting a finals win and possibly going even further.

They need to take that next step to hold off the chasing teams, and they've already accounted for Taylors Lakes in their traditional Good Friday clash.

If the Sharks are one of the more interesting sides, then the Eagles are the most intriguing.

Craigieburn is back down from Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division (where they didn't win a match) with a completely new line-up, having lost some experienced guys like Aaron Kite and Josh Young.

How the new guys all fit in will be the question and whether it takes them a little while to settle.

Expecting these Eagles to have a few more wins than they had last year.

TULLAMARINE v OAK PARK – Saturday 6pm

Tullamarine has been one of the big movers over the off-season and we get our first opportunity to look at them under lights here.

David Connell has come on-board as coach and they haven't messed around on the recruiting front.

Former Carlton player Anthony Franchina heads the recruits.

Having played finals the last few years, the Demons are one side that will be looking to be among the mix and have a real crack at the grand final.

Like the Demons, Oak Park is a side that is always in the mix.

Last season they missed finals by a game and percentage and have kept most of that side together.

They were disappointed in several aspects in their game and have looked to work on them in the off-season.

Only Dean Clare, who has gone to Westmeadows, has left, while they've added David Price, Trent Lang, Mitch Robinson and Issac Willet.

Promoting from within is another area they've really focused on, so we'll likely see plenty of fresh talent in blue and white here.

COBURG DISTRICTS v ROXBURGH PARK

THIS match-up has become somewhat of a rivalry with a handful of ex-Magpies now doing good things in blue and white... and funny things happen when two rivals go head-to-head.

Both sides lost in Round 1 and a 0-2 start to Season 2018 is not something they were hoping for.

The Lions didn't exactly hit the scoreboard hard last week against Moonee Valley but that isn't something Chris Tankard's side is known for.

Their bigs played well, including new ruckman Chris Lynch and both Vesnaver brothers, but it remains to be seen if the Lions can score quickly if they need to.

Roxburgh Park provides the Lions with a good test but there's plenty for new coach Michael Farrelly to think about after a disappointing defensive showing last week.

Without Luke Capuano at their disposal, the Pies may be too reliant on Osama Saad and Turnay Hamza to kick a winning score, so the midfield, led by Harley Short, needs to step up.

The Magpies were beaten easily in this head-to-head on both occasions last season, so you'd have to think the Lions will bounce back here if both sides play close to their best.

HADFIELD v NORTHERN SAINTS

The battle of Sydney Road resumes hostilities with the Northern Saints coming in as favourite for the first time in a while.

Khodr Talab and Rocky Ferraro were too much of a handful for Roxburgh Park's defenders last week and given Hadfield had no answer for an equally potent East Sunbury line-up, it's hard to pinpoint exactly how the Hawks will go about stopping the Saints here.

If anything, the Hawks will be hoping Melbourne's meteorologists are on the money with their predictions for rain come Saturday, because if conditions are good for footy then they're good for the Northern Saints, and Paul Dunn won't let up on the scoreboard.

The Saints scored 13.10 in the wet at Martin Reserve in a final last year against Moonee Valley with an inferior forward line to the one they have now, so the challenge for Brett Pitts this week is to establish some flow from his midfield and park some match-winners in his forward 50.

They'll be required if Hadfield wants to win this one.

BURNSIDE HEIGHTS v EAST SUNBURY – Saturday 5pm

The EDFL's two newest clubs have a bit of a rivalry themselves now and it's been a match-up the Thunder has enjoyed of late.

The Bears haven't beaten East Sunbury since Round 15, 2014 – their first year of senior footy, but it's important to note all three of last year's games were close.

Bears coach Aidan Stott hasn't been afraid to give his new-look side a bit of a pump up over the summer and expect many new faces wearing orange and blue come 5pm Saturday at Tenterfield Drive.

One regular, however, is in for a big one.

Josh Covelli had a career season in 2017, finishing second to Cam Cloke with 84 goals on the division's goal-kicking table.

That included bags of 10 and seven against the Thunder.

He'll need to be ready for another big one given East Sunbury's new-found potency in attack, but the Bears need to make sure Covelli has the appropriate support cast around him in order to out-score the Thunder.
