THE AFL has dedicated May 4-6 as Community Umpiring Round.

The objective of this activity is to generate awareness and appreciation for the critical role that umpires play in Australian Rules football at all levels.

I'm proud to say that the EDFL is one of the nation's biggest umpiring groups with nearly 500 registered umpires.

These umpires have a very supportive group of coaches, led by EDFL Umpiring & Development Manager,

Rowan Sawers, who provides assistance and development to our field, boundary and goal umpires.

However, despite this very strong team behind them, around 180 umpires did not return to the EDFL in 2018 for a range of reasons.

This ratio of 35 per cent loss is consistent with the national average of umpires who walk away from the discipline.

Whilst moving away from the local area, changes in employment and returning to play football all contribute to our lost umpires - a significant number do not return due to the environment in which they umpire.

It is incumbent on the EDFL community - players, officials and supporters, to ensure we provide an appropriate environment for all umpires.

Due to great leadership and strong programs, we have been lucky in recent years that we have not had to ask clubs to provide field umpires for any senior or junior matches, and in an increasing number of games the EDFL have been able to provide boundary and goal umpires.

The more umpires we have involved in our game, the healthier our game will be.

We undertake a broad ranging program to attract, develop and retain umpires.

In addition to the main training base at Windy Hill, regional academies have been set up at St Bernard's College (Essendon), Australian International Academy (Coburg), Delahey Reserve, John McMahon Reserve in Sunbury, Highgate No. 2 oval in Craigieburn, Cole Reserve in Pascoe Vale and at Jacana Reserve.

Listed below is a sample of the development provided to EDFL Umpires and the success this has brought:

- Six EDFL Umpires attended AFL training on Tuesday as part of their development
- Five EDFL Field Umpires are partaking in the Mates Program which will see them mentored by AFL Umpires
- EDFL Field, Boundary and Goal Umpires are involved in the AFL Victoria Rookie Umpires program which will assist in their development before they trial at the end of the 2018 season
- Three EDFL Field Umpires have been accepted by AFL Victoria for Season 2018. This is a progression step towards potential AFL promotion

Good luck for the weekend.

THE success these teams have had over recent years has helped them display some amazing skills and hard-fought encounters.

This Grand Final rematch down at Clifton Park was no different.

With an always vocal and big crowd on the Abers Hill, fans were treated to a close one.

With Greenvale wanting to make amends for last year's Grand Final loss and Aberfeldie wanting to assert dominance on the division, a real passionate and heated start to the match made for a great spectacle.

Aberfeldie had a lot of the ball early, starting down back through contested intercept marking and run out of defence from Ryan Allan.

But the home side struggled to convert some simple set shots early in the piece.

Run out of defence was a highlight from both sides.

The pace and handballing out of defence was exciting to watch.

Jets defender Matt Koroneos did this and more, breaking the lines with his speed and countless inside 50 entries.

Josh Cubillo seemed to bull his way in and out of many of these contests for Aberfeldie, gaining a heap of the ball and adding a real presence around the ground for the home side.

The class in defence for both sides was a major standout, making it a low-scoring tussle for two of Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division's elite sides.

Josh Pound really gave a spark at times for Aberfeldie and slotted one in the second term from the boundary, sending the hill into a frenzy.

Pound's two goals and forward pressure kept Aberfeldie in the game but he wasn't helped by some of the other forwards around him.

The Jets seemed to outsmart Aberfeldie at times, setting up a wall for their forward line and gaining countless shots on goal in the third quarter.

A big reason why this worked for Greenvale was the run and set-up play of ruckman Fabian Deluca, who took some clutch intercept marks.

His tap work and ability to be in the right spot for an intercept mark helped get his side over the line.

Aberfeldie's fitness showed in the last as it won the clearance and inside 50 battle to slowly get back into the game.

Yet, like the first quarter, they missed numerous set shot chances and caused forward entry turnovers, which proved costly.

In the end it was a well-deserved victory for Paul Chapman's men.

By LUKE D'ANELLO (via Leader Newspapers)

CRAIGIEBURN is making a mockery of the doomsayers' predictions in Essendon Ford Division 1.

The high-flying Eagles made it three wins from as many starts last week, racking up a cricket score in a thumping 122-point win over Jacana.

Former Richmond-listed player and marquee recruit Dean Limbach gorged on some silver service from his midfielders and returned 10 goals as Craigieburn powered to a 31.14-200 to 12.6-78 victory.

The Eagles also secured the Barry Nolan cup, named after the Brunswick VFA legend who coached both clubs.

Craigieburn was winless in Premier Division last year and waved goodbye to the likes of Jeremy Page, Josh Young and Aaron Kite over summer, leading to forecasts of another long season.

But the future appears bright, with teenagers Liam Middleton, Caelan Anderson, Brock Chircop, Jacob McNicol among their team's best in the win over Jacana, which left the Eagles on top of the ladder after three rounds.

"To think they're impacting in senior football the way they are at the moment, it's something pretty fun to be involved with and to coach," Craigieburn coach Peter Bugden said of his young guns.

"If you listened to the tipsters, we were tipped by some to do the double drop."

It is only early in the campaign and plenty can change, but Craigieburn is right in the premiership discussion.

Bugden heaped praise on football manager Lance Whitnall's diligent efforts over the off-season.

Whitnall focused on strengthening the club's stable of youth to lay a platform for future success, and early indications suggest the impact of the newbies has been nothing but positive.

"We've been able to recruit tall, small runners, good and skilful outside players," Bugden said.

"We've still got a lot of growth left in us.

"We're playing very, very consistent football and have lots of contributors every week.

"That always means you're going to be in the game.

"The boys were really up for a big game (in Round 3). We've got a big rivalry with Jacana.

"It was huge for us. We built it up like a final and I wanted to see how the younger guys performed under pressure."

The Eagles will tackle Tullamarine this weekend in a mouth-watering clash between the competition's top two sides.

The pair last met in the 2016 Division 1 decider, with Craigieburn prevailing by 20 points and earning promotion to the top flight.

AVONDALE HEIGHTS v GLENROY - Radio Game

THIS is going to be a cracker of a game and luckily for both clubs, it occurs in a split round with only one other Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division clash going up against it.

Both Avondale Heights and Glenroy have a win their name so far this season (both were against Essendon Dousta Stars) and haven't disgraced themselves against the division's heavyweights.

Their new big three of ex-Carlton stars Cameron Wood, Dennis Armfield and Ciaran Sheehan have all stepped up so far this season and the likes of Mathew Cravino and Scott Clouston have also played their roles well.

It's the support cast around their top end talent that is letting the Heights down.

Coming into this one, we need to see the likes of Charlie Nastasi, Jake Edwards and Sam Zito show that they can step up when needed and contribute on a consistent basis.

On the flipside we've seen Glenroy adjust to life in the top flight very nicely.

The Roys pushed Strathmore all the way on ANZAC Day and their forward line is a formidable one.

They're currently the fourth highest-scoring team in Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division while Avondale Heights is eighth, so the midfield battle will be crucial, which should advantage the Heights.

If Glenroy's forward entries are on target, though, they should be able to outscore the home side.

MARIBYRNONG PARK v STRATHMORE

The Mores have been somewhat inconsistent so far this season.

They got the win they needed on ANZAC Day but struggled more than many would have expected them to.

Against Pascoe Vale the week before, Strathmore had no answer for Matthew Watson and Lachie Hansen as the Panthers kicked clear after quarter time to register a comfortable 55-point win.

Nathan Grima's on-field return will be a very handy boost but while Hamish McIntosh and Nick Lower are out of the line-up, Strathmore's questionable depth is going to be up against it when facing the division's premiership contenders.

Here the Mores will don the white shorts against the best team of Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division.

Maribymong Park is the current front-runner after putting together a perfect month to start its 2018 campaign.

With playing coach Robbie Castello still unsighted on game day, the Lions have been clinical and professional in each of their first four games of the year.

When tested against Pascoe Vale last week, Marby's growing list of A-graders rose to the occasion and got the job done in a fashion good teams should.

The true litmus test comes now, as the Lions have a tough month ahead on the fixture.

TULLAMARINE v CRAIGIEBURN

FACING each other for the first time since the 2016 Essendon Ford Division 1 Grand Final, this shapes up as an interesting game.

Both sides are undefeated after three rounds and have been impressive in their wins.

The Eagles completely destroyed Jacana on Saturday, kicking 200 points on the way.

They looked good and slick.

The Eagles have shown that they are a team that the opposition has to watch.

Dean Limbach kicked 10 on the weekend, while former skipper Brent Gordon looks to be relishing not having the extra duties this season.

The Demons had the week off after a couple of good wins against Jacana and Westmeadows.

The Demons were able to focus on their own game while surrounded by the Dane Swan show in Round 2 and look really focused.

Key recruits Ryan Pretty and Anthony Prestia haven't missed a beat at their new club.

HILLSIDE v WESTMEADOWS

These two sides enter this match off very different preparations.

Hillside had the weekend off due to playing on Good Friday and would have used the time to work on some things that have been lacking early on.

The Tigers also had the weekend off, but after playing on ANZAC Day in front of a big crowd.

With the big build-up to Rounds 2 and 3, the Tigers were likely looking for a bit of a break.

The question is, will there be a letdown this week with the hype gone.

If the Tigers were able to pull off a win, it would be an upset.

Both sides know where they are at this season, with the Sharks looking to win finals and the Tigers looking to build with their young playing group.

TAYLORS LAKES v OAK PARK

This match shapes as a vital one for both sides as they look to keep in touch with the top four.

Taylor's Lakes might only have one win for the season, but they have been better than that.

They stuck with Airport West for most of the game, while only smashed in one quarter by Hillside.

If they continue to show that good form, they will take some more scalps this season.

The Lions continue to slowly go about their way, with an eye on the future and signs are looking good at this stage.

A loss on Saturday will see Oak Park sitting 0-4.

To be fair, the Kangaroos have faced three sides which are expected to be among the finals mix, but haven't been in the mix late in any game.

They led for a lot of ANZAC Day but the score didn't reflect the match, with the Tigers struggling in front of goal.

The Kangaroos are a better side than what they've showed and surely a win isn't far away.

AIRPORT WEST v JACANA

While we'll likely have some close games in Round 4, this could be a one-sided affair.

Airport West is the premiership favourite and rightly so, while Jacana has struggled in its first two games since promotion.

The Eagles come into the match having needed all four quarters to get past East Keilor on Saturday.

Their experience and extra depth proved crucial in the win.

The Jaguars on the other hand were on the end of a hiding against Craigieburn, losing by 122 points.

The one positive for the Jaguars - they were still able to have some impact on the scoreboard, with Jason Cloke kicking four goals.

Those wanting for another close Division 1 season will be hoping these are just teething problems for the Jaguars and they are able to gel and go up another level from this week on.

MOONEE VALLEY v EAST SUNBURY

THIS is a top-of-the-table clash few would have seen coming.

Moonee Valley is always one of those Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 clubs that is thereabouts but never quite a true contender.

But the Shanon Carroll era has begun with flying colours, as no one has yet been able to stop the Fog in Season 2018.

Given Ormond Park is currently a construction site, Moonee Valley has the best home ground advantage in Division 2 and conditions will not be ideal for East Sunbury.

As the Northern Saints showed at times last week, if you can restrict East Sunbury's space and time around the contest to use the ball by hand, then you can get the better of the Thunder on the scoreboard.

But that's not easy to do when East Sunbury has its gun players firing on all cylinders.

Tom Cree, Brad Bernacki and Kamen Oglivie are three of the division's biggest stars and each can hurt you all over the ground.

Moonee Valley will be relying on Ned Wilson, Braden Padmore and Cory McGrath to match East Sunbury's quality across the park to keep the Fog's unbeaten record intact.

COBURG DISTRICTS v BURNSIDE HEIGHTS

The Lions got the monkey off their backs last week against Hadfield and now they can focus working their way back into form as we approach the middle portions of the season.

With reigning comp medallist Luke Vesnaver out, brother Matthew was the star with seven snags in the win over the Hawks.

What's been most pleasing for Chris Tankard so far is the emergence of new players Chris Lynch, Alex Johnson and Justin Blackley.

If the Lions stay healthy then they'll be a contender once more, and it's games like this where they need to stamp their authority.

Burnside Heights are tracking along OK so far but Aidan Stott will still be disappointed with a 1-2 record.

The Bears kicked poorly at Ormond Park last week and are still lacking some goal-kicking help for Josh Covelli.

This is another tough away game for the Bears and they'll need some luck going their way to get up in this one

ROXBURGH PARK v HADFIELD

Roxburgh Park has gone about its business quite nicely since that disappointing Round 1 loss to the Northern Saints.

The Magpies applied themselves well in both their games against Coburg Districts and East Sunbury and to emerge from that fortnight with a win was a fair effort.

They'll be refreshed after having Round 4 off and should be feeling pretty good about making a good account of themselves here at home to Hadfield.

Unfortunately, it seems the Hawks have not been able to improve since coming down from Essendon Ford Division 1 and were again disappointing against Coburg Districts last week.

They simply haven't got the cattle, but we need to be patient, because Hadfield is coming from a very long way back after two years in the doldrums of Division 1.

Making finals was never really on the agenda for 2018, anyway.

Roxburgh Park should be looking to score a win in what is its first home game of the year.
