AN enjoyable part of our annual football program is the metropolitan junior championships where boys and girls from the EDFL compete against representatives from other Australian Rules football competitions.

This year the EDFL will field two boys Under 13 teams, two boys Under 14 teams, two boys Under 15 teams and one Under 15 girls team. After success in Division 2 last year, our Under 14 and 15 boys teams will all compete in Division 1 for 2018, where the competition will obviously be stronger.

The Under 13 boys will play a round-robin tournament against the Western Region Football League and the Riddell District Football Netball League on Sunday June 10.

The Under 14 and 15 boys and girls teams will play three rounds:

1. Wednesday May 30 (night matches)
2. Saturday June 9
3. Monday June 11

Closer to these dates we will publish times and locations for all matches on the EDFL website and through our social media channels.

Over the past two weeks we have held jumper presentation events for all the junior representative teams for 2018.

These are very enjoyable functions for a number of reasons, the most pleasing being the excitement on the faces of the players selected.

It is also great to see players interacting with teammates who play for different clubs on the weekend.

Many of these girls and boys have longer-term aspirations for their football careers.

We hope that playing junior representative football for the EDFL at a higher standard will continue their development and support their football dreams.

In discussing the representative program with the coaches, they all made comment on how hard it was to select the final teams.

The EDFL thanks all players who made the commitment to attend training and try out for the program this year.

We would also like to recognise and thank the coaches, team managers and support staff for the time they provide to the interleague program.

All have commitments with local football clubs and dedicate their time to the representative program, too.

It would be remiss if I didn't also thank the parents for the time they dedicate to bringing their children to the training sessions and other requirements.

Similarly, the representative football requirements are in addition to their local club football needs.

Good luck for the weekend.

MY Name is Hamza Soueid and I am 15-years-old and have been a field umpire with the EDFL for three years now.

This program has helped me in many different ways. It has built my confidence in quick decision-making and improved my fitness, by keeping me fit and fast on my feet.

The skills I have gained from umpiring have helped me with my soccer career.

I was lucky enough to play in the 'Top 12 Experience' in Barcelona, Spain, last month.

I was selected to play for the Under 16s from the Futsal National Championships, where I was representing Victoria in the Under 14s in Canberra last year.

The Barcelona experience gave me a chance to train like a professional futsal player in an intense 10-day program.

I played and trained with some of the top players in the country under the best coaches in the world.

The confidence I gained from umpiring in the EDFL helped me get selected as captain of the Australian team.

Our team played against USA, Spain, Brazil and other local clubs.

Even though we came third, the experience of defeating Brazil was unforgettable.

Also, the money I earned from umpiring came in handy when I had the opportunity to shop in the Camp Nou official Barcelona store.

I am very lucky to be an EDFL Umpire because it helps me stay fit and be part of the footy community.

JACANA played its best game of the Essendon Ford Division 1 season, but it wasn't enough for victory.

Having been easily beaten in their first three matches, the Jaguars were hoping for a change of fortunes against the similarly winless East Keilor.

The Cougars made the most of the wind in the first and third quarters to jump out to a big lead, before the Jaguars closed the gap both times.

But they weren't able to bridge the margin in the end, losing 13.19-97 to 14.11-95.

Jaguars coach Robert Fletcher said that while the result was disappointing, he was much happier with how they played.

He said before that game that the side had only been competitive in one of its 12 previous quarters.

"It was good to be in the contest for once," he said.

"We were in the game until the final minute. The wind was massive and it was a six-to-eight-goal breeze. They got away early and we missed a couple of opportunities against the wind.

"We got back into the game in the second quarter and took it to them in the third quarter.

"We had a good third quarter, but it went for 40 minutes and the boys were spent.

"There was a lot of congested ball. They won the game and we weren't good enough again."

Jason Cloke kicked five goals for the Jaguars, with Josh Young, Billy Morrison and Shannon Bennett the side's best.

The result leaves the Jaguars as one of two teams without a win after five rounds.

Fletcher said the biggest factor in the tough transition from Division 2 to Division 1 had been their lack of depth.

"We've had six or seven players out every week," he said.

"We're slowly getting them back and starting to gel together.

"We lost 20 players from the seniors and reserves over the off-season and we have no Under 19.5s. That makes it hard to replace players."

By ADEM SARICAOLU

KEILOR v MARIBYRNONG PARK

IT'S easy to look at how Keilor let go of a 17-point lead after three-quarter time last week against Aberfeldie and apply a question mark to its contender status.

But if you dig a little deeper, you'll quickly see just how hamstrung this side is at the moment.

The Blues went into Round 5 without Andrew Browne, Mick Tanner, David Isbister, Jack Kennedy and David Gourdis.

They then had to complete their game against Aberfeldie without a bench, with Damien Cavka and Jesse Wallin among those not being able to finish out the game.

Of course Aberfeldie won.

You therefore wonder how exactly to mount an argument for Keilor coming up against a rested Maribyrnong Park outfit that is still perfect a month and a half into Season 2018.

The Lions have had a week off and Robbie Castello aside, are pretty much at full strength and should keep their unblemished record intact in this one.

ABERFELDIE v GLENROY

Yes, Keilor was undermanned, but don't take any credit away from Aberfeldie – that was a big (and important) win last week.

The fact Abers is still third on the ladder with three wins from five indicates that they're still well and truly the side to beat this season, because they have been below par by their own standards.

Luke Blackwell reminded all that he is still one of, if not the best player in the EDFL with five goals in a match-winning effort last week.

Add to that a fine support cast of Josh Cubillo and Caleb Hislop, let alone their star-studded back line and (when healthy) potent forward line, and you can't help but feel Aberfeldie will be just fine in the long haul.

For Glenroy, it's games like this that they've been looking forward to most since gaining promotion back up into Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division.

Season 2018 is all about testing themselves against the EDFL's best and so far, the Roys have probably passed.

Aberfeldie away is their biggest test yet.

We're not asking for a W, but we are expecting Glenroy to be in it for the duration.

STRATHMORE v AVONDALE HEIGHTS

A genuine coin flip, this one.

Both sides have lost three games from five starts and, like Keilor, are already riddled with injuries to key players.

If both Hamish McIntosh and Cam Wood were available then we're looking at a completely different sort of head-to-head.

Instead, neither club has the luxury of selecting from a full squad of players.

A week off should benefit both and we'll see what selected sides look like come Friday afternoon but all things being equal, Strathmore should be expecting to field the superior 22.

The Mores have enjoyed solid years from Michael Horne, Xavier Allison, Alex Grima and Adam Iacobucci and unlike the Heights, are probably still in the hunt for that final spot in the top four.

So this is one must-win for the home team at Mascoma Street.

GREENVALE v WEST COBURG

There isn't too much cause for concern up at Section Road after the Jets dropped their first game of the year to Pascoe Vale last weekend.

Addam Maric was named but did not play against the Panthers, so his injury concerns remain an ongoing thing that the Jets will need to manage.

Here the Jets get another chance to re-establish some form on its home deck against a West Coburg side that has got two wins to its name but was far from convincing last week against Essendon Doutta Stars.

The Burgers were quite wasteful in front of the sticks and while wind was a factor, they did allow a severely hampered Douttas side back into the game in the final term at Coburg City Oval.

Most sides that have played Douttas so far this year have had little trouble putting them away, so the fact West Coburg couldn't is slightly worrying.

You'd expect Greenvale to bounce back in this one.

PASCOE VALE v ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS

Pascoe Vale is the enigma of Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division, particularly when it's at home.

The Panthers are 0-2 at home in 2018 and are better-suited to larger decks like the one they played on at Section Road last week.

Their form against all of last year's finalists (2-2) indicates that they are well and truly in the premiership conversation, but they need to make amends at home.

This is their chance to re-establish some confidence at Raeburn, but its against a side that is unfortunately not up to Premier Division standard.

No doubt Essendon Doutta Stars will be buoyed by the fact it got within a couple of kicks of a win last week against West Coburg, but the reason they couldn't get the job done was simple.

Due to the mass-exodus that has occurred over the past six months, Dean Wallis has been left with a squad that is full of Reserves and Under 19.5s players that are struggling to fill the void at senior level.

They still have Charles Lill, Marcus Calvaresi, Jordan Rogers and Jordan Schroder that are battling manfully each week, but that's not enough at this level.

They'll get found out again here.

By TARA MURRAY (Star Weekly)

AIRPORT WEST v HILLSIDE - Radio Game

AIRPORT West cemented its spot as one of the Essendon Ford Division 1 favourites with a convincing win against Craigieburn.

After a slow start, Airport West is starting to get going and its putting in more convincing performances each week.

The new players are starting to settle in, which was shown by Chris Lawton being named best-on-ground on Saturday.

Hillside on the other hand was disappointed with its loss to Tullamarine, with the Sharks left to rue a poor third quarter when they couldn't convert.

The final margin said 40 points, but the Sharks could have had the momentum in the third if they had kicked straight.

The Sharks have been struggling a bit with injuries but have a good core line-up.

They are yet to beat one of the top sides, with losses to Craigieburn and the Demons, but they shouldn't be discounted.

The Eagles, though, will take better form into the match and start as favourites.

OAK PARK v CRAIGIEBURN

Can Oak Park breakthrough for its first win of the season?

The Kangaroos are one of two teams without a win and will come in fresh after having the bye.

But they have struggled so far and haven't looked likely.

Forward Aden Harris looms as a key, having kicked seven goals in their loss to Taylors Lakes.

Craigieburn will be looking to bounce back after two tough losses.

The Eagles have been given a reality check after three straight wins to start the season.

They should have beaten Tullamarine, while they were in the game with Airport West to half time.

The Eagles have shown enough this season that they are around the mark.

They would be expected to win this match, but surely Oak Park finds its way onto the winners list soon.

JACANA v TAYLORS LAKES

Jacana finally showed some of the form that took it to the Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 premiership last season, but still couldn't come away with the win against East Keilor.

While still undermanned, the Jaguars only just fell short of taking the points.

If they continue to show that sort of form, the Jaguars will be in a lot more matches.

Taylors Lakes continues to surprise.

Seen as one of the teams expected to be down the bottom of the ladder, the Lions sit 3-2.

On Saturday they had a good win against Westmeadows - a side expected to be around them on the ladder.

The Lions seem to have been able to find that right mix and are gelling better than some of the other teams around them.

Another win here for the Lions would put them in a good position heading into their first bye.

EAST KEILOR v TULLAMARINE

East Keilor broke through for its first win of the season, but only just.

They managed to hold off Jacana by two points, with the Jaguars coming home with a strong wind.

The win will give them a confidence boost after what has been a tough start to the season.

Just maybe the new playing group is starting to gel and we might see more of the results we expected of them this season.

They face a challenge this week in the undefeated Tullamarine.

The Demons showed some good form yet again, with a 40-point win against Hillside.

The most impressive thing about the Demons is the spread of players who are performing.

In front of goal it was Ryan Pretty in the opening rounds and now in the last fortnight it's been Brad Allen, who has kicked two bags of five.

The Demons have shown this season they can win from any position and are full of confidence right now.

MOONEE VALLEY v ROXBURGH PARK

STAR Weekly's Tara Murray is the only EDFL Tipster that has picked Roxburgh Park this weekend, which this reporter finds rather astonishing.

The Magpies are 3-2 and are coming off two huge wins, albeit against Hadfield and Burnside Heights respectively, but they've shown that they're a force to be reckoned with in their first five games of the season.

Maybe the Tipsters are leaning Moonee Valley's way because of the Ormond Park factor.

Away sides are going to be uncomfortable at Moonee Valley all season long as the facility gets a major upgrade, and so far this year the Fog is undefeated on home soil.

It kept its undefeated record intact last week against Hadfield, but it wasn't the Fog's best effort for 2018.

It did what it had to do to get the W.

This will be won in the midfield, where on paper Moonee Valley has the edge.

Up forward is where Roxburgh Park can get them, with Tumay Hamza and Luke Capuano combining for five last week in the absence of Osama Saad.

BURNSIDE HEIGHTS v NORTHERN SAINTS

Six weeks ago, you would have laughed at me for suggesting Burnside Heights is the favourite in this one, but I truly believe the Bears should win this.

Both these sides are seemingly closer on paper than what we predicted before Round 1, with the Bears clearly showing improvement and the Saints struggling to prove they are currently worthy of contender status in Strathmore Community Bank Division 2.

While in the long run you'd still think Northern is the more likely of the two to end up in the final four, right now Burnside Heights is in better form.

The Bears haven't been at home since Round 2 and played quite well on the road against the Valley and Coburg Districts.

But like most sides do in this kind of phase in their development, they had a letdown last week at Roxburgh Park.

The Northern Saints on the other hand are on a three-game losing streak and last week could not keep up with a struggling Coburg Districts side at Charles Mutton Reserve.

Paul Dunn needs to get his side back on track and it starts here against the Bears this weekend.

COBURG DISTRICTS v EAST SUNBURY

This is a ripper match-up on paper.

East Sunbury enjoyed a week off after suffering its first loss of 2018 at Moonee Valley in Round 5 and looks to have truly arrived as a Division 2 contender.

But it's games like this that the Thunder need to be winning in order to solidify their place among the best of the division.

Coburg Districts, in the long run, should be OK.

The Lions still have one of the better lists in the competition and simply have not performed at their best in the first six weeks of the season.

Last week's win over the Northern Saints showed us that they're going to be a chance in every game they play and to be fair, the Lions haven't been blown out in any of their five games so far this year.

If they can stay healthy, they should eventually come good at the business end.

The Thunder will want to turn this into a shoot-out, but it won't be easy at Cole Reserve.

Flip a coin.

ROXBURGH PARK v SUNBURY LIONS

Friday 7pm @ Lakeside Oval

ROXBURGH Park came off a convincing performance against the previously winless Hillside.

Reigning best-and-fairest, Tricia Devine has continued from where she left off last year, putting in some stellar performances for the Magpies.

Her sister, Bianca has also been playing some good football for Roxburgh Park, after making the move across from Glenroy, where she played last year.

Emma Cranston, who comes from a basketball background, is also making an impact with the Sherrin for the Magpies.

But her side comes up against an experienced brigade in the Sunbury Lions, who are coming off a 52-point win over Avondale Heights/Taylors Lakes.

Expect the likes of Simone Craige, Sera Catania and Laura Giles to put in convincing performances under lights at Lakeside Oval.

Roxburgh Park's defence will really need to stand up in this game, as the Lions often employ multiple goal-kickers to get scores on the board.

SUNBURY KANGAROOS v HILLSIDE

Friday 7:30pm @ Eric Boardman Reserve

The Sunbury Kangaroos would be coming into this game hungry for a victory after a narrow loss to the Panthers in Round 5.

It was once again Bailee Said who was named the best by her coaches for the Kangaroos, as she continues to dominate for Sunbury.

Last year's AFL Goldfields Open Aged Women's Coach of the Year, Danielle Green, has also been playing some consistent football and is a wonderful leader for the mixed-age side.

Her brigade comes up against the Sharks, who are fresh off their second competition victory.

Brittany McIntyre was one of the stars of that game and has been one of the stars of the season.

McIntyre has kicked six goals from five games for the Sharks and could have an impact again at Eric Boardman Reserve.

Fiona Pazsa and Caetlyn Twentyman have also been consistent performers for the Sharks and both kicked goals in their 14-point win over the Magpies in Round 5.

PASCOE VALE v ABERFELDIE

Saturday 10am @ Raeburn Reserve

Pascoe Vale is playing some electric football at the moment and seems unstoppable, sitting on five straight wins at the top of the ladder.

But it ran into trouble in Round 5, only narrowly escaping with a win against the in-form Kangaroos.

This wouldn't worry the Panthers though, as they come into this game with a forward line that is on fire.

Siobhan Carlton is the competition's joint leading goal-kicker, as she's kicked 18 goals from just five matches this year.

She has been complemented by Elana Lilla, who has kicked nine goals from five matches and Emma Westgarth, who has booted through eight majors in just four games.

But Aberfeldie has a forward of its own who has been in solid form inside 50.

Keilor premiership player, Sophie Fazzolari is coming off a three-goal performance in her side's 74-point win against Strathmore.

This takes her up to fifth on the goal-kicking tally, as she's kicked 10 goals from four games.

KEILOR PARK v BURNSIDE HEIGHTS

Saturday 2:20pm @ Keilor Park Reserve

The Devils have not played footy since April, with the team having a bye in Round 5.

They'll need all the fresh legs they can possibly get, as Burnside Heights has been playing some fantastic football in the competition.

The Bears' most recent win was a 66-point victory over Westmeadows.

They had nine goal-kickers on the day which included one of the competition's most dominant forwards.

Brooke McKinley has been electric inside 50, kicking seven goals in Round 1 and backing it up with six goals in Round 2 to have her soaring ahead in the goal-kicking tally.

She is now the joint leading goal-kicker with 18 majors for the year so far.

For Keilor Park, the standout players include the likes of Sara Imela, Samantha German and Bridgette Gwynne, who have put in solid efforts for their side week in, week out.

The Devils will definitely be excited to get back to playing footy and playing at their home ground gives them a chance to really contest the high-flying Burnside Heights.

STRATHMORE v CRAIGIEBURN

Sunday 2:20pm @ Lebanon Reserve

Strathmore's results may continue to be unpredictable, but what is for sure is that captain, Sophie Cachia, will stand up for her side against the Eagles.

Cachia has been instrumental off half-back and in the ruck for the Mores, and will look to lead her side to its second win of the season.

She has been complemented by the netballers in her side, Sally Portbury, Ruby Pini and Caitlyn Ball, who have all been digging deep for the Mores this season.

Craigieburn, like Strathmore, is coming off a Round 5 loss.

The loss came in devastating fashion, as the Eagles went down by just two points after mounting a wonderful comeback against reigning premier, Keilor.

Captain, Natasha Konstantinidis has been superb for Craigieburn, continuing on from an impressive season last year.

She has been complemented by cricketers Rebecca Lines and Samantha French, who was the side's co-captain last year.

This Round 6 match-up essentially sees a battle between some magnificent dual-sport athletes.

WESTMEADOWS v AVONDALE HEIGHTS/ TAYLORS LAKES

Sunday 2:30pm @ Willowbrook Reserve

Both Westmeadows and Avondale Heights/Taylors Lakes come into Round 6 on the back of a loss.

The Tigers went down to the Bears while Avondale Heights/Taylors Lakes was defeated by the Sunbury Lions.

Westmeadows' Danielle Linton has been a star with 11 goals from five games, including a bag of seven majors in Round 1.

Former basketballer, Kloe Jordan-Wilson has also been a solid contributor for the Tigers with her impressive footy IQ and endurance running.

For Avondale Heights/Taylors Lakes, you can't look past Rita Ceravolo, who has been amongst the best players in every game she has played in.

Ceravolo is a long-serving player at Avondale Heights, having played at Canning Reserve for over six years.

Affinity Miller and Brianna Rachkidi have complemented Ceravolo well throughout the season, and would be hoping to do so again on Sunday to record their second win of the season.
