COMMUNITY football provides many benefits to a range of people including players, coaches, team managers, officials, parents and family members, supporters, volunteers, umpires and administrators.

In addition to the health benefits associated with the physical exercise, EDFL football clubs provide a very important social role to many people involved in our competitions.

Lifelong friendships are formed, many lessons learnt, and the importance and value of team sport reinforced through winning and losing matches, and personal successes and failures.

Australian Rules football also presents many challenges for all parties.

When confronted with these situations, what is most important is being very conscious of our behaviour and reactions.

To date in Season 2018 there are indicators that this behaviour is not what is expected.

We have seen a high number of reported players this year and the EDFL has received many complaints and reports of inappropriate action by club officials, parents and spectators at junior and senior matches.

To date this year there have been 48 players reported.

Of grave concern is that over 40 per cent of these players are playing under-age football (not seniors) and 42 of the 48 players reported have been found guilty.

In addition to these reported players, the EDFL has either completed or is currently investigating a number of other complaints including potential vilification of players, club officials and supporters approaching umpires during and after matches, and arguments and altercations involving spectators and officials from opposing clubs during and post-match.

The EDFL will not condone any inappropriate behaviour.

We will undertake investigations where we deem incidents deserve it and tribunal reports have not been laid.

As a reminder, the EDFL has a set of By-Laws, a Code of Conduct and behavioural policies which provide direction and assistance in these areas should you have any questions.

There are multiple penalties which can, and have been, applied against individuals and clubs found guilty of breaches.

Good luck for the weekend.

KEILOR Park is kick starting plans to get the club's senior men's program back up and going.

Having had to withdraw both their senior and reserves teams this season due to a lack of numbers, the club has started putting plans in place for next season.

The first step is to hold a meeting on Monday night, to get ideas from the Devils faithful on how to move forward.

Devils' president Brad Davies said this is the first step in the process to get the men's sides back up.

He said they don't want to find themselves in this position again.

"We're not just meeting with the players, it's about getting a plan together for the next three years.

"How to run the club better and how we can improve. We want to have senior men's teams that are sustainable into the future."

The club has engaged the services of Sports Community, which is a professional sporting consulting group, to help not only get the men's teams going again, but to help with the running of the club.

Davies said several members from the playing group, who have since gone elsewhere to play were keen to be part of the club again.

"It was very heart wrenching and they were upset they we had to pull the pin at the start of the year," he said.

"They wanted to play for the club and the jumper, but with everything else going on it wasn't sustainable to get two sides or even one on the park."

Davies said there had been a lot of support from the local community, other clubs and the EDFL.

He encourages anyone who wants to help out to try and get to the meeting.

"The more the merrier and it means more ideas thrown around we can work with," he said.

"Other people might have something to help us get back on the right track."

The meeting is being held at the Keilor Park Sports Club on Monday from 7pm.

THE VALLEY

By LUKE D'ANELLO (via Leader Newspapers)

IN the final round of a forgettable 2017, Roxburgh Park was on the receiving end of a 107-point pasting against Moonee Valley.

Against the same opponent on Saturday, the renovated Magpies recorded a rousing three-point triumph and inflicted the Valley's first loss of the year.

The result left a rejuvenated Roxburgh Park in third spot on the ladder with a 4-2 record after seven rounds under first-year coach Michael Farrelly.

After three consecutive finals appearances, including two grand finals, the Magpies won just seven games last season and finished in sixth spot.

But the club's fruitful off-season of recruiting, which delivered the return of Luke Capuano, Osama Saad, Ferras Merhi and Thomas McEwan, is paying dividends.

"I think it puts us in a finals discussion," Farrelly said of the 12.9-81 to 11.12-78 win over Moonee Valley.

"We don't talk about flags. We're under no illusions that we can only build off last year.

"We've still dropped a couple of games that we believe we should've won or could've won, but just for different reasons we haven't managed to put our best footy together.

"But when you beat Hadfield by 140 and you come out and beat Burnside, who had beaten the same teams we had, and then you beat the top side away, the belief's there."

Roxburgh Park sprinted to a 38-point advantage at halftime before conceding five unanswered goals in the third term.

The visitors fell behind in the final term but recovered to kick the final three goals of the match, with Saad converting the match-winning major with less than a minute remaining.

Capuano bagged four goals, while Harley Short, Ryan Micallef and Ryan Kannegiesser were also influential.

"The fact these players are starting to jell now and just learning where these players lead and kick and that sort of stuff, it's really starting to give us some advantage," Farrelly said of his new-look line-up.

"In the past, especially last year, we've probably had half-a-dozen or a dozen guaranteed selections each week, and they would be in your best players on the weekend without having to think about it.

"This year we've had a really even spread."

MARIBYRNONG PARK v GREENVALE - Live 2pm on Mixlr.com/edflfooty

If it weren't for a Round 5 Greenvale slip up at home to Pascoe Vale, this would have been a huge Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division clash between two undefeated sides looking at bigger things to come later in the year at Windy Hill.

Instead, we have all those ingredients minus an unblemished record for the visitors.

Greenvale's recent form has been slightly suspect after back-to-back games at Section Road where the Jets lost to the Panthers before struggling to beat West Coburg.

Addam Maric was missing for both games while Jacob Thompson, Jarryd Bonello and Jayden Ranno all missed last week.

If the Jets do come to Monk Oval undermanned then they're in trouble, because Marby is the benchmark and after welcoming coach Robbie Castello back into the fold last week, the Lions are close to full-strength - Panayioti Kokkinakis aside.

The Lions have numerous avenues to goal with six players that are averaging at least one goal in every game so far this season, and with their high-quality midfield firing on all cylinders, it's hard to look past them here.

That said so, here's a chance for Greenvale to put Marby back in its place.

GLENROY v KEILOR

Glenroy had a bit of a letdown against the premiers last week but will be looking at this as a big chance to score win number three for 2018.

Keilor is clinging onto fourth spot after back-to-back losses but is doing well considering those losses came against Aberfeldie and Maribymong Park with half of its best 22 out of action.

We know there are some big names on that growing Blues injury list but when you have the likes of Nick O'Kearney, Kane Barbuto, Zak Wunhym and Dean Galea still at your disposal, you're still going to give many Premier Division sides some headaches.

Given Keilor was able to get closer to Aberfeldie than Glenroy did within the last fortnight, you'd be thinking the Blues should still be the favourite.

But the Roys haven't been afraid to take it up to sides like Keilor and we could see a similar kind of game to the one played out against Strathmore on Anzac Day, where Glenroy had its chances to win a tight contest.

AVONDALE HEIGHTS v PASCOE VALE

Despite boasting some of the division's best contested marks, Pascoe Vale isn't exactly known for its scoring prowess.

But when the Panthers needed to break clear of Essendon Doutta Stars in the final term of a shoot-out last week, they were able to kick away with nine goals.

It was Pacco's highest score for the year, with Lachie Hansen playing his best game for the year with eight goals and teammate Matthew Watson managing to score a nice bag of five for himself. Often forgotten about is smaller forward Jacob Polizzi, who's up to 10 goals for the year and you've also got Patty Veszpremi as a fourth option inside 50.

So there's enough firepower for Pascoe Vale to outscore anyone on its day.

And that's a big problem for Avondale Heights.

After welcoming gun VFL full forward Dylan Conway into the line-up last week, Avondale Heights could still only muster eight goals in its 42-point loss to Strathmore.

Conway kicked four of those goals.

This game is a maths equation.

Keep Pascoe Vale under 12 goals and Heights is a shot, but if the Panthers' forwards get off the leash, then it's a percentage booster for the visitors.

ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS v ABERFELDIE

Dean Wallis and his men would have seen the way Aberfeldie played itself into form against Glenroy and thought to themselves that this week's game is probably going to be a long one.

Despite sitting third on the ladder and until we see them play Maribymong Park in Round 8, Aberfeldie remains the team to beat in all of Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division.

Last week Aberfeldie put forward its best performance for 2018 and did so without Courtney Johns, Victor Carboni, Rhys Moylan and Kyle Reimers.

Having Daniel Thompson back was a massive boost in defence as well, so the only way is up for the premiers.

We did see better signs from Douttas last week with its highest score for the year at Pascoe Vale and hopefully they can keep it from getting too out of hand here, but Aberfeldie will probably do as it pleases at NJO.

WEST COBURG v STRATHMORE

This could go one of two ways.

Either Strathmore re-asserts itself as a finals contender and easily takes care of West Coburg, or the Burgers target this as a statement game that they're no longer one of the easy-beats of the division.

Maybe last week's arm wrestle with the Jets up at Section Road was enough of a statement for some, but they still didn't come away with the W against an undermanned Greenvale.

Digby Morrel and his recruiting team did well to add in some nice pieces over the summer but its taking time for the side to jell, and the centrepiece of the club's recruiting haul, Daniel Archer, is only averaging a goal a game as the team's main tall go-to target up forward.

That's mainly due to the lack of quality delivery but also the fact that he's often pushing up the ground to get involved in the game. If Hamish McIntosh returns for the Mores then Strathmore will likely win more centre clearances, so West Coburg needs Archer, as well as Ruairi Cleary, Daniel Johncock and Omar Saad to make the most of their opportunities.

Strathmore should still have enough quality to overcome the Burgers, but an upset wouldn't be a massive shock.

By TARA MURRAY

WESTMEADOWS v CRAIGIEBURN

IN a round with a number of one-sided matches on paper, this looks to be the pick of the bunch.

Westmeadows has showed at times they can match it with the top sides, but just haven't been able to get over the line.

They are coming off the bye which was probably needed for the young group which has had a big start to the season.

The Eagles continue to show they are a team that will be in the mix for finals.

They easily accounted for Oak Park, with Dean Limbach again starring up forward.

Limbach kicked eight goals in the win and now has 31 goals for the season - the best in the division.

The Eagles should put another win on the board, but the Tigers' young list is capable of causing an upset.

HILLSIDE v EAST KEILOR

Hillside is looking to return to the winners list after two successive losses.

Hampered by injuries, the Sharks have lost to the top two sides in successive weeks, showing where they currently sit in the scheme of things.

Mitch Church has started to settle for the Sharks up forward, with two bags of fives in the last three rounds.

The Sharks though should be too good for the Cougars, who are struggling on-field with some injuries of their own.

Throw in some off-field dramas and things aren't great down there at 'Cougarland'.

With only a win against Jacana, the Cougars need to start getting the wins on the board fast if they are to have any chance of staying in touch with the top four.

They need to claim a couple of scalps and an undermanned Sharks side would be a perfect one.

TULLAMARINE v JACANA

Tullamarine continued on its merry way with a fifth straight win.

The biggest thing for the Demons this season has been the side's ability to rise to another level when they have needed to.

Against East Keilor, the Demons had to come from behind at half time on their way to a 50-point lead.

They've got plenty of talent, the next step is putting it together for four quarters.

Brad Allen is starring up forward, having kicked five goals for the third straight round.

After positive signs against East Keilor, the Jaguars struggled against Taylors Lakes, not winning a quarter.

The result was disappointing after looking to take a step forward.

This could quite easily be a very big win to the Demons if the Jaguars turn up and play the same football as last week.

OAK PARK v AIRPORT WEST

The challenges continue to come for Oak Park in its hunt for a win, and they don't come much bigger than Airport West.

The two sides sit at opposite ends of the ladder, with completely different form lines.

The Kangaroos were yet again no match for one of the top sides and look set to have a second straight year without playing finals.

The Eagles on the other hand put in a strong performance accounting for an undermanned Hillside.

For the Eagles, Tyson Young continues to dominate, kicking eight goals in a best-on-ground performance.

He currently sits second on the goal-kicking table and with the form he's showing, he could quite easily add to his Hutchison Medal from last year.

If the season so far is anything to go by, the Eagles should have a big win.

COBURG DISTRICTS v MOONEE VALLEY

ROUND 8 marks the first weekend of return games for Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 – so everyone has now played each other in 2018.

Round 1 was only seven weeks ago, and on that day we saw Moonee Valley only squeak home by a single point to Coburg Districts in a classic at Ormond Park.

If that result had gone the other way then the entire division would have a different look and feel to it.

This one's a genuine coin flip, as both sides come into it on the rebound and with some key players missing from their respective line-ups.

Moonee Valley in particular was hit with some key outs before last week's loss to Roxburgh Park and that didn't include its most dynamic player in Braden Padmore, who's been missing since Round 4.

Coburg Districts has been without Chris Lynch, Chris Metcher, Luke Vesnaver and Nik Dimeski, among others, at varying stages throughout the season.

The Lions had no such issues with team stability 12 months ago.

Because of all that Moonee Valley is the favourite, but only just.

NORTHERN SAINTS v ROXBURGH PARK

Roxburgh Park is the hottest team of Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 after delivering their best performance of the year away to Moonee Valley last week.

The Magpies have won three straight games and all three were impressive for various reasons.

The first one against Hadfield was the fact Roxburgh Park didn't let up and used it as an opportunity to build some all-important percentage.

Next was a similarly impressive four-quarter effort at home to Burnside Heights where the Magpies had five individual multiple goal-kickers in a 67-point win.

Then last week they proved they can scrap it out in what was a tough game against an undefeated Moonee Valley outfit at the toughest away venue in the division.

After a great first half, Roxburgh Park went scoreless in the third quarter to allow the Fog back into the game, but Michael Farrelly's men didn't let that affect their psyche, steadying in the last to edge just three points ahead by the final siren.

It was a character-building win, and one that will hold them in good stead against a side they really struggled against back in Round 1.

The Northern Saints scored an important win against the Bears last week.

With Kelsey Clayton and Ahmed Abdul-Wahed missing, Paul Dunn's side scored 16 goals with just three goal-kickers for the day.

They'll simply need more against one of the better forward set-ups of the division this weekend.

HADFIELD v EAST SUNBURY

A bye was probably exactly what Hadfield was aching for after a very tough opening six weeks to its 2018 campaign.

The closest the Hawks have come to a win was back in Round 2 at home to the Northern Saints on what was a windy day at Martin Reserve.

Their overall form line would suggest that 2018 is a write-off and we've already seen 34 players role through the senior side, so Brett Pitts should probably already be planning for 2019.

It means that most opposition sides, in what looks to be a very tight race to make the final four, will use this game as a chance to boost percentage.

East Sunbury is leading the entire division on that front at 144.60 after handing Coburg Districts a 41-point loss at Cole Reserve last week.

It was a perfect response to what was a bit of a letdown in their prior game away to Moonee Valley.

The Thunder has been able to live up to the hype and maintain their form so far this year and with further improvement expected from the likes of Tom Cree, Kamen Ogilvie and Brad Bernacki, finals has probably now become the bare minimum target this season.

Good sides win these games and win them well.

STRATHMORE v SUNBURY LIONS

Saturday 5pm @ Boeing Reserve

Strathmore got a much-needed win over Craigieburn in Round 6 with a 37-point victory at home.

This was largely thanks to bringing in former Oak Park/St Francis junior, Amy Hakim.

Hakim booted two of the Mores' six goals and was named in the bests.

She will be a key player in the Mores' line-up against the Sunbury Lions, who are on a high after claiming their biggest win of the year.

The Lions scored 104 points against the Magpies, keeping them to just one point.

The Lions had four multiple goal-kickers with Sera Catania, Olivia Cairo and Jessica Sutton each kicking two majors.

Dianne Comport led the way with four goals and was complemented by some stars of last year's competition in Simone Craigie and Kelsie Gill.

We could see an exciting battle in the midfield, as Strathmore star, Rebecca Said could go head-to-head with the likes of Craigie in what could be a closer game than expected.

KEILOR v ROXBURGH PARK

Sunday 11:15am @ Green Gully Reserve

Roxburgh Park's difficult season continued in Round 6 with an 103-point defeat against the Sunbury Lions.

The Magpies face another big challenge this round, facing the reigning premiers at Green Gully Reserve.

Keilor is fresh off a bye and has the fresh legs coming into the Round 7 clash.

The Blues' last match was a narrow two-point win over Craigieburn, so they would be keen to make amends with a big win on a super Sunday of EDFL Women's football.

Captain Christie Roberts has been solid in the ruck for Keilor, while Sophie Freeman and Maddison Steel have been stars in the forward line.

Roxburgh Park will be looking to the Devine sisters, Bianca and Tricia, as they have been shining lights for the Magpies all season.

AVONDALE HEIGHTS/TAYLORS LAKES v HILLSIDE

Sunday 12:45pm @ Canning Reserve

Avondale Heights/Taylors Lakes came off a tough loss against Westmeadows, who are in fine form.

While the side lost by 73 points, Rita Ceravolo and Brianna Rachkidi were the shining lights once again, continuing their stellar seasons.

The team should also be proud of sticking out the game, as the side only had 13 players out on the field.

Hillside also suffered a heavy loss, going down by 84 points to new EDFL Women's team, Sunbury Kangaroos.

Brittany McIntyre starred once again for the Sharks and was complemented by Nikita Wright.

This could be the closest clash of the round, as it is a 10 v 11 battle.

Both teams are desperate for a win, with Hillside last getting a win in Round 4 and Avondale Heights/Taylors Lakes not experiencing victory since Round 1.

ABERFELDIE v WESTMEADOWS

Sunday 2:05pm @ Aberfeldie Park West

This is a battle between two in-form teams.

Before last week, Aberfeldie had won four straight games, including a 134-point thumping against Roxburgh Park.

But Abers experienced a wake-up call in Round 6 when they lost by 76 points against the undefeated Panthers and would be keen to put it all behind them to secure their fifth victory of the season.

They'll have to watch out for Westmeadows forward, Danielle Linton though, as she has been in fine form inside 50.

Linton kicked three goals in the Tigers' win against Avondale Heights/Taylors Lakes and has been amongst the goal-kickers each week for Westmeadows.

She was complemented by Emily Brebner, who also booted three majors for the day.

Aberfeldie will be relying on key ball-users, Olivia Madden and captain, Kurtis Shine, who will look to combat Westmeadows' fire-power up forward.

CRAIGIEBURN v KEILOR PARK

Sunday 2:20pm @ DS Aitken Reserve

Craigieburn's season hasn't gone to plan as of yet, as it hasn't won a game from four appearances.

The Eagles have some great ball-users such as captain, Natasha Konstantinidis, but are struggling in the forward line.

However, their dual-sport talent is standing up, with three cricketers in Samantha French, Taylah Logie and Rebecca Lines all named in the bests last week.

Things aren't much better for the Devils - who suffered their biggest loss of the season against ladder-leaders, Burnside Heights.

Keilor Park went down by 158 points but the coaches were impressed by Chiara Imela, Jordan Gwynne and Karen Gwynne's performances.

Keilor Park will be eager to bounce back from the heavy loss and get off the bottom of the ladder with a win away from home.

BURNSIDE HEIGHTS v PASCOE VALE

Sunday 2:35pm @ Burnside Heights Recreation Reserve

This is the clash we've all been waiting for, as first and second on the EDFL Women's ladder go head-to-head.

At this stage, the Heights have slightly more momentum, coming off a huge 158-point thrashing against the Devils.

One player in particular shot her way up to second on the goal-kicking tally.

Bears forward, Kayla Ravello booted a whopping 11 goals, outdoing star forward, Brooke McKinley, who kicked seven majors on the day.

McKinley still leads the way on the goal-kicking tally though, taking her total to 25 goals from just five matches.

The Panthers need to throw everything at the high-flying Heights, but have some fire-power of their own up forward.

Siobhan Carlton sits just behind McKinley and Ravello on the goal-kicking tally, after adding three majors to her name against Aberfeldie in Round 6.

Experienced footballer, Aimee Whelan played her best game of the season, making an impact all over the ground.

This will be a battle of the star forwards and is likely to be an exciting, high-scoring shoot-out.
