EVERYBODY involved in Australian Rules football (and many with no connection to the sport) knows of Neale Daniher and the inspirational and courageous leadership he has shown in fundraising to find a cure for Motor Neurone Disease (MND).

A key initiative of the program is the Big Freeze which occurs every Queen's Birthday Monday at the MCG prior to the Melbourne and Collingwood AFL match.

Last weekend was no exception where all 18 AFL coaches participated by sliding into a pool of icy water.

This year AFL football leagues across Victoria have worked with AFL Victoria to declare the June 16-17 weekend, Sockit2MND Round.

The EDFL and our clubs are delighted to be given the opportunity to be involved with this initiative and help raise much needed funding.

Our clubs are supporting Sockit2MND Round through purchasing and wearing blue socks and Big Freeze 4 Beanies.

This initiative is being supported through social media platforms Instagram, Twitter and Facebook, using the @fightmnd handle and #Sockit2MND and #FightMND hashtags.

FightMND is Australia's leading Independent Motor Neurone Disease association, fighting to find a cure through fundraising initiatives such as the Big Freeze, Daniher's Drive and now the Sockit2MND Round.

Since launching in 2014, FightMND has committed more than $23 million into research designed to take potential treatments from the science lab to the MND patient and to ultimately find a cure.

In addition, the organisation has invested $2.5 million into purchasing vital equipment to assist with the care of MND patients across Australia.

Fight MND and AFL Victoria have launched an online social media campaign called 'Sock It From the Pocket' which aims to raise awareness of MND throughout this dedicated state-wide Round.

As a supporter of this campaign, we encourage everybody to post your 'Sock It From the Pocket' goal kicking moment on social media throughout this Round and please remember to use the hashtag #SockItFromThePocket

For more information, to purchase a beanie or make a donation please head to www.fightmnd.org.au

I will finish with a quote from the amazing leader of this Fight MND campaign Neale Daniher: "MND takes everything from you except your last great freedom; and that's your right to choose your attitude."

Good luck for the weekend.

FightMND is Australia's leading independent MND organisation. We are fighting to find effective treatments and a cure for Motor Neurone Disease, or as founder Neale Daniher calls it 'The Beast'!

MND is a 'Beast' that takes people, the lives of two Australian's every day. It also takes people to fight it, and through initiatives such as the Big Freeze and now Sockit2MND, your support will allow us to continue the funding of critical research for MND through clinical trials, to allow researchers to develop ways to slow or prevent the progression of the disease and, ultimately, find a cure.

A CANDID Steve Grey says off-field issues triggered his shock resignation as East Sunbury coach.

The Thunder sits on top of the ladder with a 7-2 record, but the outgoing mentor declared the Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 club's "culture has to change".

Grey was in his fourth season at the helm and told president Keith Osborne of his decision to quit on Monday before addressing East Sunbury's players last night.

"I'm always having people look over my shoulder, watching what I'm doing, who I'm picking and people are asking questions about why I'm doing this or doing that instead of having the trust in what I'm doing," Grey said.

"It's probably in my best interests, where I can set my future up, because I can't see any structure moving forward with the club.

"What's our goal in the next 2-3 years? They're all just worried about in the moment.

"Too many people have got too many things to say instead of having one leader at the top and everyone work as a team. It's more like individuals just having their input.

"I've got no grudges against anyone, it's just the way the football club is at the moment."

East Sunbury is chasing a maiden finals appearance in its sixth season in the EDFL senior ranks.

The ladder-leader lost by 109 points against Northern Saints on Saturday, but that defeat had no bearing on Grey's call.

Grey said he had no issues with the club's playing group but conceded "there will be a few players pretty happy I've gone".

He had become increasingly frustrated by questions over his decisions given the Thunder's progress on the field.

"I started with a club that was getting beaten by 150 points each week and have turned it around now in three and a half of years," Grey said.

Osborne said he was blindsided by Grey's decision with East Sunbury in premiership contention.

A four-man coaching panel comprising Darrell Cartwright, Jason Spiteri, Anthony Galea and Darren Bird will steer the senior side for the next two weeks, with the club looking to have an interim coach for the remainder of the season appointed before its Round 14 clash with Coburg Districts on July 7.

"Massive shock for myself. I didn't see this coming at all," Osborne said.

"Steve's not only been a great head coach, he's a great clubman.

"The big story is we've lost a senior coach, but the bigger story for our club is we've lost a better clubman.

"I don't know how many senior coaches are marking lines on a Thursday night."

Osborne said the Thunder was determined not to let Grey's departure impact its premiership quest.

"We don't want this to uproot an entire club," he said.

"The game plan hasn't changed for us. We think we're a top-four side and will play finals this year and hopefully go deep into finals." Grey said he wanted to coach again and would assess his options in coming weeks.

East Sunbury will tackle Roxburgh Park this weekend.

(via Leader Newspapers)

EAST Keilor president Geoff Nicholl has denied claims the club is fractured in the wake of the departure of co-coach Nick Grigg.

The Cougars are languishing in seventh spot on the Essendon Ford Division 1 ladder after a disastrous 1-6 start to the season, with Grigg opting to cross to Riddell District league outfit Rupertswood.

Nicholl described the split as an "amicable agreement" after work commitments prevented Grigg from training.

Grigg made four appearances for East Keilor this year and was in his second season as co-coach alongside Ash Arrowsmith, who will lead the club solo for the remainder of 2018.

The loss also hurts the Cougars on-field after Grigg kicked 48 goals last season.

"We gave him some time off to think about things and see what he wanted to do and he came back and said it's probably best if we part," Nicholl said.

"It's been a tough week. It's not often you get a coach wanting to leave only halfway through a season.

"That was a bit disappointing and I think Nick felt he was letting the side down by not being there and not training.

"I did give him the opportunity of alternative training during the day. I think he felt it was time to move on. I can understand that.

"He's not disgruntled with the club, but I think he might be a bit disheartened by himself not being able to commit."

Grigg's situation also triggered rumours of disharmony at the club after a turbulent first half of the season.

"The club's going fine. Off the field is good and the committee has stuck together," Nicholl said

"There is no grumblings in the committee, as has been reported on (online forum) Big Footy or anywhere else.

"Football is a funny game and things can change quickly. Hopefully the second half of the year things will pick up and we can go from there."

East Keilor was tipped as one of the big improvers this year after a fruitful off-season resulted in the acquisitions of Matthew Knight, Tom Gleeson (both Strathmore), Dion Hill (St Albans), David House (Sunbury Kangaroos), Tom Madden (St Bernard's), Michael Licciardo (Melton), Nathan Kennedy, Dimitrios Guicas (both Taylors Lakes) and James Philpot (Broadford).

But the Cougars are carrying a long injury list, their sole win coming by two points against Jacana in Round 5.

Five of their six defeats have been by 17 points or less.

"We've actually got 14 senior players out. That's a big dent to any side," Nicholl said.

"Hopefully we can turn it around in the next few games and get a few back from injury the next few weeks.

"The competition is very tight ... with those margins, there's not much in it."

AVONDALE HEIGHTS v KEILOR

A MONTH ago, we were seriously considering this for EDFL Match of the Day.

But now, it seems we have a clear favourite.

Some of us were quick to dismiss Keilor as a serious Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division contender after several key players went down with injury.

The Blues' depth has been put to the test of late, and they've passed with flying colours.

But it helps to have the likes of Kane Barbuto, Dean Galea, Josh Martin and Matt Clarke at your disposal.

Mick McGuane's men have proven they'll be just fine as they slowly re-assemble their best 22, and by banking more wins in games like this, they should be back playing finals in 2018.

Avondale Heights scored a very good win in Round 8 over West Coburg.

Unavailability has also tested Donald McDonald in his first full year in charge at Canning Street and to come away from Coburg City Oval with a 29-point win was crucial in Heights' fight to avoid relegation.

Team selection could be telling in the lead-up, but Keilor should be feeling good about this one.

STRATHMORE v ABERFELDIE

Strathmore has quietly strung three straight wins together, albeit against bottom four sides.

The Mores are sitting at 5-3 and will be grateful to be ahead of the win-loss ledger, because their next five games are all against current top five sides – and Keilor (on Good Friday) is the only one they have managed to beat to date.

Nathan Grima's plan to introduce the next crop of Strathmore stars has worked pretty well, but with Jaryd Cachia due back from suspension and Hamish McIntosh now back out on the park, we might start to see the Mores make their move up the ladder in the second half of the season.

Aberfeldie at Lebanon Reserve presents a tricky test here, though.

The smaller confines of Lebanon may better suit what has been an outstanding Aberfeldie defensive unit of late.

Aberfeldie has conceded no more than 12 goals in any game so far this year and was successful in shutting down Maribymong Park in a low-scoring slog in Round 8.

Don't expect this to be a shoot-out.

PASCOE VALE v WEST COBURG

Expect this to be a shoot-out.

Pascoe Vale is the second highest-scoring team in Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division (behind only Keilor), and yet still finds itself outside the top four.

Since the calendar turned to May, Mathew Watson has been unstoppable in front of goal, with 26 goals from his last four games.

Jacob Polizzi and Lachie Hansen have been a fine supporting cast as the Panthers have mounted an impressive four-game winning streak.

Defensively, the back line has quietly been doing its job, too, with Luke Foster putting together another very good season.

If the back line holds true then West Coburg will struggle to keep up with the Panthers, because you know the home team will be keen for another big day up forward.

The Burgers need to be willing to take the game on through the middle and use their pace going into attack for four quarters to be a chance in this one.

MARIBYRNONG PARK v GLENROY

The Queen's Birthday break came at a perfect time for Maribymong Park.

The Lions dropped consecutive games to Greenvale and Aberfeldie after a hot 6-0 start to the year – giving coach Robbie Castello a chance to assess where his team needs to lift ahead of the second half of the season.

Coming up against a battling Glenroy outfit, this might be the Lions' chance to run themselves back into some form.

Glenroy has shown us nothing since beating Avondale Heights in Round 5 and has been non-competitive against finals contenders Aberfeldie, Keilor and Pascoe Vale.

You could make a fair argument that they're already close to achieving what they needed to this year in avoiding relegation and with Travis Dulic, James Bennie, Aaron Kite and Tom McIntosh all to come back into the side, perhaps you can forgive the Roys for their recent form slump.

But it's important they at least find their mojo in this one ahead of a big fortnight against West Coburg and Essendon Doutta Stars that will probably determine relegation come the end of the season.

GREENVALE v ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS

What to make of Greenvale's 38-point Round 8 loss to Keilor?

No one really saw it coming, but the Jets were without 2017 Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division Team of the Year members Jacob Thompson and Nick Parthenopoulos, as well as powerful midfielder Nat Caruso.

Their form has been OK and they're picking up the wins they need to ensure yet another finals berth, so we shouldn't be too worried about Greenvale.

Paul Chapman will be looking at this week's game as a chance to kick-start his side back into some form.

Essendon Doutta Stars is showing some signs of improvement but its coming from such a long way back that a win might still be a fair way off.

Greenvale by plenty up at Section Road.

TULLAMARINE v AIRPORT WEST

Live 2pm on Mixlr.com/edflfooty & 98.9 North West FM

THIS match will give the best idea of which side is the Essendon Ford Division 1 favourite heading into the halfway point of the season.

Both sides have had periods of dominance and are getting wins on the board, but we haven't seen the best of either side.

The Demons are coming off their first loss and it could be a welcome reality check.

In most matches the Demons have come from behind to get the win, but it didn't happen against Taylors Lakes.

The Demons depth looks to be a key for them, most recently adding Keilor premiership player Jack Kennedy.

Airport West has done what they needed to this season and sit undefeated.

They have been tested, as they were in their last game against Westmeadows, but have been able to find a way to get the win.

If they come out on top here, they will sit two games clear and be well-deserved premiership favourites.

OAK PARK v JACANA

Could this be the battle to avoid the wooden spoon?

Oak Park finally got on the board in the previous round in a thrilling win against East Keilor.

While they weren't convincing having to come from behind at three-quarter time, a win is a win when you lose your first six matches.

From the Kangaroos' perspective, they will be hoping the win will get some confidence in the group and be the start of a run of good results.

This is a must-win for Jacana if they want to try and avoid relegation.

Facing one of the other sides towards the bottom of the ladder, it's a match they would be setting themselves for.

Injuries and lack of depth has hurt the Jaguars this season, but if they play to their best, there's no reason why they can't win.

And surely, Jason Cloke is due for a bag of goals.

CRAIGIEBURN v TAYLORS LAKES

While there is the fight for top spot going on around the grounds, this game could quite easily be the match of the round.

These are two surprise packets of the division, with both sides having been able to match it with the top teams for periods of time.

Craigieburn comes off two weeks without a game, which could work one of two ways.

For the Eagles the biggest thing is consistency within games, with lapses of concentration seeing bags of goals kicked against them.

The Lions caused the biggest upset of the season so far in their last match, against Tullamarine.

With the exception of a couple of poor quarters, the Lions have been as good as anyone.

The confidence is growing in the playing group and another win here would cement their spot in the top four.

WESTMEADOWS v EAST KEILOR

Westmeadows is hoping the break hasn't halted the momentum it had started to get the last few weeks.

While the Tigers haven't been getting the results, they are starting to push the top teams and could have quite easily beaten Airport West in their last outing.

The young playing group has started to gel, with the likes of Josh Hale matching it with the top players.

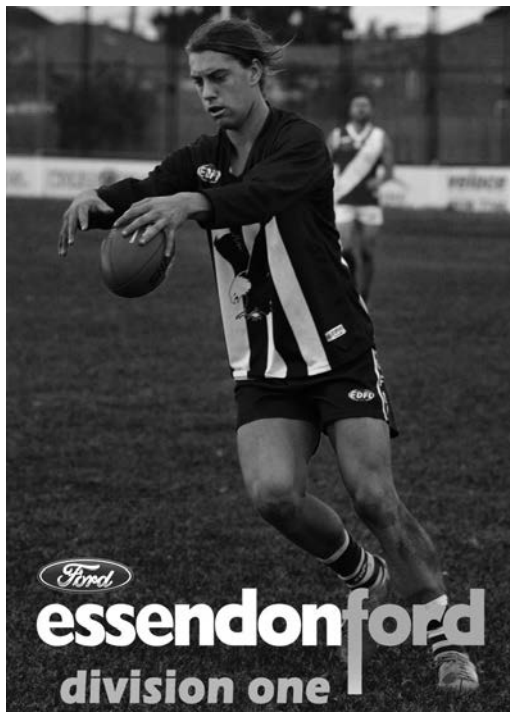

Once the Tigers get a bit more consistency, expect to see them get a few more wins and maybe sneak into the top four.

East Keilor, which was highly touted in the pre-season, will be hoping the second part of the year is a lot better.

There's been a lot going on behind the scenes, including former co-coach Nick Grigg leaving the club.

They'll be looking forward to getting on the park and hopefully have a change of fortunes.

Injuries haven't helped the Cougars cause with many of their off-season recruits missing several games, but they still wouldn't be happy with just one win at this point.

ROXBURGH PARK v EAST SUNBURY

WHAT could have gone wrong, did go wrong for East Sunbury last week.

Just as pundits began talking about the Thunder as the premierships favourite, the ladder-leader came crashing back to earth in a shocking 109-point loss to the Northern Saints last week.

In the days following, Steve Grey stepped down as senior coach, effective immediately, but the club has repeatedly stated the three-figure loss had nothing to do with the departure.

East Sunbury lost seven players to injury in that game and some of them may be serious, with reports that Diquan Williams, Timothy Hill and James Ellis could be among those set to miss games through the middle portions of the season.

It's hardly the ideal lead-up for a massive clash coming up here against Roxburgh Park.

The Magpies are the form team of the division and would love nothing more than to assert their authority over the division's injury-hampered ladder-leader.

Their depth is strong and Ferras Merhi, Osama Saad and John Colaidis are all proving to be some of the handiest of recruits in the division this year.

New coach Michael Farrelly must be feeling pretty good about his team's prospects of returning to finals this year.

MOONEE VALLEY v NORTHERN SAINTS

Moonee Valley's form slump has been dramatic.

The Fog has faded and now the Valley looks to be one of the more vulnerable teams of Strathmore Community Bank Division 2.

Last week away to Burnside Heights loomed as a danger game but few were expecting the Valley to lose.

Shanon Carroll is in the middle of figuring out what exactly his ideal 22 looks like and you feel that once he does that, Moonee Valley will come good.

But until they at least get Cory McGrath and Ned Wilson back out on the park, Moonee Valley won't look like one of the division's contenders.

About a month ago the Northern Saints were in a very similar boat.

But now they are as close to their best 22 as they've been all year and we're seeing just how good this team can be.

Good sides take advantage when the opposition is hit by injuries and last week, the Saints were outstanding in front of a healthy and vocal home crowd.

Their mojo is back, but in such a tight top two race, Dunn needs to ensure his group doesn't get ahead of itself.

It's a marathon, after all, and this could easily be an unexpected loss.

HADFIELD v BURNSIDE HEIGHTS

Hadfield maybe had a chance to show some positives signs against Coburg Districts last week.

But after going goalless for three quarters in a 148-point loss, you're going to be hard-pressed talking up the Hawks right now. So let's focus on the Bears instead.

Coach Aidan Stott promised us pre-season that this was going to be the year Burnside Heights finally became a consistently competitive team in Strathmore Community Bank Division 2.

By no means are they a serious flag contender this year, but you have to give credit where it's due – because the Bears are well and truly relevant, and it's about time.

Wins over Coburg Districts and Moonee Valley are signs that the Bears are coming, and it was great to see some lesser known types step up on EDFL Match of the Day last week against the Fog.

Jordan Hughes kicked three goals while Marcus Giuliano won the official honours for best-on.

These are the sorts of guys that need to step up and help Josh Covelli and Anthony Fawcus when games are in the balance.

This weekend Stott should be demanding his second-tier players to step up and prove their worth, as there really is no excuse for anything less than a solid percentage-boosting win in this one.

With a final four spot well within reach, the Bears need to start working on their percentage.

Women's

By JULIA MONTESANO

STRATHMORE v PASCOE VALE

Friday 7pm @ Boeing Reserve

STRATHMORE recorded its biggest win of the season in Round 8, defeating Keilor Park by 91 points.

Amy Hakim again got amongst the goals, kicking three for the day.

This time, she was joined by Elise Baniowski, who also booted three majors.

Madeline Hale played a fantastic game, along with usual suspects Sally Portbury, Ruby Pini and Caitlyn Ball.

The mixture of new standouts and consistent performers should give Strathmore some belief going into a clash against the high-flying Panthers.

The Panthers held the reigning premiers, Keilor scoreless in Round 8, while also piling on 94 points themselves.

Siobhan Carlton again had another big day out in the forward line, kicking a personal season-high of seven goals.

She was aided by wonderful delivery from Bridgette Aparo, who is one of the in-form players in the competition.

Emily Bof, Sarah Theuma and Aimee Whelan will be players that the Mores have to look out for, as they can all move the ball swiftly through the ground and contribute a couple of goals.

It will be a big test for the Mores, but if they can apply early scoring pressure, they're in with a chance.

ABERFELDIE v BURNSIDE HEIGHTS

Friday 7:30pm @ Clifton Park

Aberfeldie is one of the in-form teams of the competition, sitting inside the top four after some fantastic performances throughout the season.

Amber Wescombe and Olivia Madden have been getting among the goals in recent weeks, so Burnside Heights will need to target them to ensure that the Gorillas don't continue their golden run at home.

They have won three out of their four home games this season and would love to claim the scalp of the second-placed Bears.

But the Bears also have a dangerous goal kicker up their sleeve, with captain, Kayla Ravanella in fine form inside 50. Ravanella was Burnside Heights' only multiple goal kicker in its win over the Sunbury Lions, booting through two majors.

Against Pascoe Vale, the Bears captain often had two or three defenders on her, trying to stop her scoring run.

The Gorillas may need to employ this tactic to stop the Bears' rampant scoring.

But Burnside Heights is no flying favourite in this game, as injuries to star forward, Brooke McKinley and Western Jets product, Laycee Eustace could see Gorillas guns such as Kurtis Shine and Kylie Kennedy step up to the big occasion.

CRAIGIEBURN v ROXBURGH PARK

Sunday 12:30pm @ DS Aitken Reserve

After a big win against Keilor Park in Round 7, Craigieburn came back down to earth in Round 8, going down to the in-form Gorillas.

The form of Breanna Meadows has been impressive for the Eagles, being named amongst the best players for two consecutive weeks.

Samantha French also continues to impress in front of goal, coming off kicking all her team's goals against Aberfeldie.

French will be raring to go against Roxburgh Park, who is coming off a 112-point loss against the Sunbury Kangaroos.

The Magpies only had 17 players on the field at Lakeside Oval but Karina Carroll and Jaymi Lei Boreham still managed to impress.

As always, Tricia Devine tried her heart out for the Magpies and again featured among the best players.

She will be a key player for the Magpies if they are to cause an upset against the Eagles.

SUNBURY LIONS v KEILOR PARK

Sunday 2pm @ Clarke Oval

The Sunbury Lions experienced their first loss in three weeks, going down to Burnside Heights by 25 points.

After returning to the form that saw them finish third in the competition last year, the Bears put a dent in the Lions' premiership campaign, leaving them hungry to get back on the winners list this week.

Dianne Comport has kicked at least one goal in her last four outings for Sunbury and will undoubtedly be a player to watch for the Devils.

Women's co-ordinator and player, Krystie Dudley has also found some form as of late, and would be keen to continue to play some good footy against the Devils.

The Devils have come off another big loss, this time going down the Mores by 91 points.

Once again, it was Samantha German who provided a shining light for the Devils.

She was complemented by Chiara Imela and Jordan Gwynne in the heavy loss.

German is Keilor Park's leading goal kicker for the season, kicking five goals from six games.

She will be vital inside 50 if the Devils are to push the Lions and record their first ever EDFL Women's victory.

SUNBURY KANGAROOS v AVONDALE HEIGHTS/
TAYLORS LAKES
Sunday 2pm @ Eric Boardman Reserve

The Sunbury Kangaroos are making their presence felt in the EDFL Women's competition, sitting third on the ladder and coming off a huge 112-point win against Roxburgh Park. They are also hot on the heels of Burnside Heights, and a win this weekend could put even more pressure on the Bears.

The dynamic forward line of Tara Crisp, Regina Said, Bronte Koutras and Louise Martino is one of the competition's most dangerous prospects, and will be looking to score heavily against Avondale Heights/Taylors Lakes.

The Kangaroos' midfield is also stacked, with Bailee Said, Tylah Bell and Danielle Green on fire in the middle of the ground.

It will be a tough test for the Lakers, but they have some players of their own who have been starring throughout the season.

Rita Ceravolo has been one of their best ball-users, giving her side optimal chances to go forward.

She will be hoping that goal kickers Hajer Mohamed and Jodie Allen can get on the end of a couple of majors this week.

HILLSIDE v KEILOR
Sunday 4.40pm @ Hillside Reserve

This game could be closer than anticipated, with both teams coming off heavy losses in Round 8.

The Sharks could be aided by the consistently great ball-use of Brooke McIntyre and goal kicking of Nikita Wright.

The two combined in Round 8 to kick their team's goals and will need to do so again this week.

This could be a challenging task, as they will come up against a Keilor outfit who will undoubtedly be hungry to bounce back from a 94-point loss in Round 8.

Although it was a dour welcome, the Blues did welcome back last year's premiership captain, Emily Law into their Round 8 side, and she made an immediate impact after being named amongst the best players.

Unsurprisingly, current captain, Christie Roberts led the way in the loss, being a pivotal figure in the ruck.

She could have that same dominance this week as she will be going up against a Sharks outfit that aren't one of the taller teams in the EDFL Women's competition.

Expect this game to be won and lost in the midfield, as both teams look to surge forward and bounce back from a loss.
