LAST weekend brought the completion of the first half of the 2018 EDFL senior men's season.

In both Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division and Essendon Ford Division 1, nine of the 18 rounds are completed with every team having played each other.

In Strathmore Community Bank Division 2, 11 of the 21 rounds are finished, marking the mid-point of the home-and-away season.

It is therefore an ideal time to reflect on the season to date, where all three divisions look set for close finishes and exciting finals matches.

It is worth noting that across the three men's senior competitions, no team remains undefeated.

Not only will there be many questions about which teams will qualify for finals, it appears that each finals match will be open and difficult to predict.

Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division is the closest seen at this stage for many years, with one match separating first place on the ladder (seven wins, two losses) from sixth place (six wins, three losses).

All teams in the top six places have had stages during the first half of the year where they have looked very strong and other times they have struggled.

Injuries to key personnel could have a big impact on team success through until September.

After seven rounds of Essendon Ford Division 1, two teams remained undefeated and then Taylors Lakes upset Tullamarine by one point and last weekend Tullamarine responded with a commanding 70-point win over Airport West.

Now both Tullamarine and Airport West sit one win ahead of Craigieburn, with Hillside and Taylors Lakes one further game behind.

It could be argued that Strathmore

Community Bank Division 2 is the hardest to predict of our three senior men's competitions.

It is the only division where every team has won and lost games. As the top three teams have each lost three matches in the first 11 rounds, it is impossible to confidently predict the likely premier.

Incredibly, that top three does not include Moonee Valley, who sat undefeated after Round 6, and Coburg Districts who were runners up in 2017 and the club many pundits believed the clear team to beat before the season commenced.

Sitting one game out of the final four and at 121 per cent despite losing more games than they have won, most clubs remain wary of the Mighty Lions.

The EDFL Women's competition is more advanced with nine of the 13 rounds completed.

The concluding rounds will be exciting as there are several clubs fighting for the last couple of places in the first ever EDFL Women's Finals Series.

There will be plenty of great matches in the second half of the season for all of us to enjoy.

Good luck for the weekend.

STRATHMORE v KEILOR

AT certain stages throughout the first half of the season, some pundits have been keen to write off both of these teams as genuine contenders.

But here we are at the halfway mark of the season with both the Mores and Blues well and truly in the hunt at 6-3.

There are clear signs that Strathmore might be ready to pounce, with Jaryd Cachia, Nick Lower and Nathan Grima all returning to the side last week and joining forces with fellow experienced heads in Adam Iacobucci and Hamish McIntosh to help sink the reigning premier.

While Aberfeldie was undermanned, it was still a performance well worth taking note of.

But this is another test against a side many might just be sleeping on.

With some key pieces missing still missing, Keilor has flown under the radar and one key stat that has particularly been overlooked is that the Blues are the highest-scoring team in the entire division so far this year.

Their scalps include Greenvale and Pascoe Vale, and they came very close to adding Aberfeldie to that list.

Their new-look three-pronged attack of Dean Galea, Josh Martin and Matt Clark is proving to be quite a handful for most opposition sides, and they'll be vital here again against the Mores.

PASCOE VALE v ABERFELDIE

Live 2pm on 98.9 North West FM & Mixlr.com/edflfooty

Mick McGuane recently introduced a new 'buzz phrase' into the EDFL lexicon and it applies beautifully in this game.

This is a 'footy audit' for Pascoe Vale.

The Panthers are playing excellent footy of late and when you have both Lachie Hansen and Matthew Watson playing the sort of footy you'd expect from two key pillars recently out of the AFL system, the mob from Raeburn is pretty hard to beat.

But, at Raeburn, they seem to be just that little bit easier to beat.

The Pacco faithful are sick of hearing it, and I'm even sick of saying it, but their home ground 'disadvantage' is a real thing.

In the past, it's games like this that have ultimately kept the Panthers out of the top two come finals.

You simply need to defend your home turf against quality sides if you want that double chance come September.

And right now, Aberfeldie is ripe for the taking, with several key players missing from their line-up.

Here's where we find out exactly where Pacco is at.

WEST COBURG v GLENROY

This is the most important game of the season for both sides, because a win here will probably ensure safety from relegation.

Neither West Coburg nor Glenroy have given us any reason to believe in them of late, though in both cases, player unavailability has admittedly been a factor in their respective drops in form.

One of West Coburg's two wins was against Glenroy back in Round 1, but much water has gone under the bridge since early April.

While not winning, the Burgers were stringing some good footy together against the division's more powerful sides and until last weekend, were staying in games.

But with some key outs, that all came unstuck last week against Pascoe Vale – where the Watson-Hansen combo produced nine goals, which was four better than West Coburg's entire output.

With Adam Winter, Adam Del Busso and Jayden Walker finding ways to hit the scoreboard despite their team's overall woes, Glenroy might have too much firepower for a West Coburg side that has only hit triple figures once this season.

AVONDALE HEIGHTS v GREENVALE

The cue might already be in the rack for Avondale Heights.

That unlikely draw from back in Round 3 against Aberfeldie might well be the safety cushion that protects the Heights from relegation, but at the same time, finals are probably now too far out of reach as well.

So they're probably the only team in Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division that has nothing to lose, nor gain, for the rest of the season.

With that comes freedom, and maybe Donald McDonald would be wise to just release the shackles and encourage his mostly young and inexperienced group to take the game on.

That mindset seems to have worked for both West Coburg and Essendon Douttas Stars against the Jets.

While Greenvale held on to win, many pundits were surprised to see last year's runner-up struggle in both of those games.

Greenvale is just getting by right now but as long as it keeps winning, you can't be too critical.

The Caruso brothers were out last week and both Addam Maric and Jacob Thompson are being managed with ongoing injuries, so of course their form is going to fluctuate.

The Jets should, and probably will win, but this is very much a danger game.

ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS v MARIBYRNONG PARK

All we've been asking of Essendon Dousta Stars of late is for them to show some genuine heart and compete as hard as they can against sides with which they're clearly outgunned.

While their second half was really disappointing, the fact Douttas almost got over the line last week against Greenvale will breathe a little bit of life into the Nipper Jordan faithful.

For those lucky enough to be at Section Road last Saturday, it was great to see the Stars fight to the end and almost snatch victory away from the Jets.

As they always do, Jordan Schroder and Marcus Calvaresi battled manfully and Charles Lill, given his recent battles, is a true inspiration for his footy club.

It's players like those who deserve to sing the song at some point this season.

Whether they get to this weekend, though, is tricky to make a strong case for.

Maribyrnong Park needed the Queen's Birthday break and returned to form with a nice win over Glenroy last week.

Panayioti Kokkinakis returned and slammed through five goals while Will Martiniello is firming as a Reynolds Medal favourite after another strong performance around the ground.

When firing on all cylinders, few sides can go with Marby, let alone one that is lacking in star power, pardon the pun, the way Douttas currently is.

By TARA MURRAY (Star Weekly)

HILLSIDE v CRAIGIEBURN

THIS match shapes up as the game of the round in Essendon Ford Division 1, with two sides looking at trying to cement their spot in the top four.

The Eagles won the first match between the two sides back in Round 1 and that's all that separates the teams.

Both sides have looked good against the lower sides but haven't been able to get the job done against the top two sides.

The Eagles continue to show plenty of depth, with a number of different players contributing each week.

Dean Limbach continues to star up forward for the Eagles with another 10 goals last week, taking his season tally to 48.

He is among the best players in the division.

The Sharks enter the game on the back of two weeks off and with a large injury list, the break probably came at a good time.

We saw last year what the Sharks could do with a full list and they should continue to build as the season goes on.

Julian Hemala and Jeremy Hayes have been the most consistent contributors for the Sharks, with Mitch Church starting to fire up forward.

Church will be a key in the run home, as he provides a big-bodied, tall forward option for Hillside.

WESTMEADOWS v JACANA

Westmeadows was worried if the Queen's Birthday bye had come at the wrong time... and it proved to be the case.

The form the Tigers showed before the break was nowhere to be seen, as they were disappointing against East Keilor last week.

They trailed early on and were never in the contest, which leaves the side three games outside the top four.

On form this season they will still enter Saturday's match as clear favourites and would be hoping to keep their small finals hopes alive.

For the Jaguars, a tough season continues, with the side now finding itself two games behind Oak Park, Westmeadows and East Keilor.

While the Jaguars look the side most likely to be relegated, they could still resurrect their season, but would need to do it quickly.

The Jaguars' stars were the best in the loss to East Keilor, so it's a case of needing the lesser likes to step up.

Sometimes all it takes is one win to get confidence back into a side.

Having not won at this level for a very long time, a win is exactly what they need.

EAST KEILOR v TAYLORS LAKES

East Keilor pulled off a surprise win against Westmeadows and moved above the Tigers in the process.

It's been tough for the Cougars off-field and been just a bit of a struggle getting the full team on the park.

Some of their off-season recruits look to be starting to hit their straps and they were keys in the win against the Tigers.

Matthew Knight and James Philpot kicked nine goals between them, while Under 19.5 player Michael Gatt also kicked four goals.

With confidence growing, the Cougars would back themselves against the Lions, who are coming off their most disappointing performance of the season.

Last weekend was the first time this season the Lions haven't been competitive for at least a half.

After an impressive first half of the season, the Lions will be hoping it was a one-off.

With Hillside and Craigieburn facing each other, a win will allow them to at least draw level with one, if not both teams in the race for a top four spot.

OAK PARK v TULLAMARINE

After starting the season with six straight losses, Oak Park has now won two games on the trot.

While they are yet to beat any of the contenders, wins build confidence and you never know what will happen.

Saturday's win against Jacana puts the Kangaroos two games clear of the winless Jaguars in the relegation battle.

They shared the load against the Jaguars with seven players kicking two goals apiece, making the side unpredictable.

While Tullamarine is a step up in opposition, the Kangaroos will be looking to push the top side all the way.

The Demons sent a statement to the rest of the competition with their win against Airport West in last week's radio game.

After playing well for parts of games, the Demons put together four good quarters of football against the Eagles and it showed on the scoreboard.

Not only are the Demons a good side, they have plenty of depth as well, with 23 players named in the bests so far.

In front of goal, they have four players who have already kicked double figure totals for the season, led by Brad Allen (21 goals) and Ryan Pretty (20).

EAST SUNBURY v MOONEE VALLEY

IN what has been a remarkable season so far for Strathmore Community Bank Division 2, both East Sunbury and Moonee Valley have spent multiple weeks on top of the ladder.

But as players start to go down with injury and others make themselves unavailable as the weather dips into single figures, some teams suddenly hit a wall in the middle of the season.

In both cases here, it's not too hard to figure out why they've slipped down the ladder in recent weeks.

This is a huge game because five won't go into four come the end of Round 21, and both sides are at risk of being the unlucky team to miss out on finals – which would be an unacceptable outcome either way.

East Sunbury's depth was put to the test at Roxburgh Park last week and failed miserably.

The Thunder's last two losses have resulted in a 46.15 per cent drop in percentage and that could prove quite costly come late August, so they need to get their offensive mojo back.

The Valley's slowly re-assembling its ideal 22 and to push an in-form Northern Saints to within a couple of points is a good sign that win number six isn't too far away.

On-form the Fog wins, but pressure will be on if it's close late.

This might just be the biggest game of the year in the division.

BURNSIDE HEIGHTS v COBURG DISTRICTS

Coburg Districts is one of those sides that will be hoping to forget their first half of the season and focus on what's ahead.

The Lions have had two weeks off, giving Chris Tankard plenty of time to push the reset button and hopefully instil some belief within his group that only 12 months ago was an undisputed flag fancy.

With names of the ilk of Vesnaver (times two), Lucin, McGill, Lynch and Blackley, there really is no reason why Coburg Districts can't turn things around and become the form team of the entire division again.

If they are to have another crack at getting to Windy Hill in mid-September, then it has to start here.

The Lions had their pants pulled down by Burnside Heights back in Round 5 and if lightning strikes twice for the Bears, then it'll be hard for Districts to recover from it.

Flashy would be the most apt way of describing Burnside Heights right now.

The Bears are clearly much better than they've ever been, but they've still got a long way to go.

They couldn't afford to be off their game against the Hawks last week, let alone to go down to them.

Young, up-and-coming teams are going to have their ups and downs and we're seeing that first-hand with the mixed form of Josh Covelli, but if finals are still their goal, then Aidan Stott's men need to be willing to bring their A-game when opportunities like this present.

ROXBURGH PARK v HADFIELD

Not so long ago this looked like the likely grand final match-up in this division, but a plucky Jacana side surprised everyone and won their way to Windy Hill back in 2015.

Much has changed since then, and now this is a match-up between the ladder's top and bottom sides.

That said though, it was wonderful to see Hadfield get a win last week.

Brett Pitts and his crew should be commended for their efforts so far this season and to beat Burnside Heights, especially at home, was just reward.

The question now is whether the Hawks can build on it.

To rest on their laurels now and not win another game would still be a disappointing outcome for Season 2018.

There's very little chance they'll get win number two here, but Hadfield should at least have a bit more confidence that they can trouble any other side in the division.

Defensively they can restrict the opposition's flow, so Roxburgh Park needs its prime movers in Harley Short and Jack Elliott to have a good day at the office.

But at the same time, Michael Farrelly might be wise to rest anyone that's carrying any niggles, because the worst-case scenario in games like this is losing key players to injury.

The Magpies need to be smart here.

KEILOR PARK v ABERFELDIE

Saturday 2:20pm @ Keilor Park Reserve

UNFORTUNATELY, another round marked another big loss for Keilor Park, this time going down to the Sunbury Lions by 61 points.

Another consistent effort from Sarah German saw her kick the only goal for the Devils on the day.

She was complemented by solid performances from Ashleigh Armstead and Leesa Wilson, who tried to get something going for the Devils.

They will come up against an Aberfeldie side on the rebound, coming off an almighty effort against the second-placed Burnside Heights.

It will be up to defender, Georgia McCormick to keep Keilor Park's Sarah German quiet, and she is more than up to the task after holding star Bears forward, Kayla Ravello to just two goals.

However, it was inaccuracy that has plagued the Gorillas again, as they scored just three goals from 15 scoring shots, missing key opportunities to cause an upset against the high-flying Bears.

The match also saw inspirational captain, Kurtis Shine go down with a serious injury, requiring an ambulance at the ground on Friday night.

With the loss of Shine and inaccuracy woes making the Gorillas vulnerable, Keilor Park may be in with a chance if they can keep up with Gorillas stars such as Olivia Madden and Amber Wescombe for four quarters.

PASCOE VALE v AVONDALE HEIGHTS/ TAYLORS LAKES

Sunday 1:05pm @ Raeburn Reserve

Pascoe Vale keeps on showing signs of last year's Keilor side, annihilating teams with their class, skill and forward pressure.

Last week, it was Strathmore who was on the end of a goal-kicking showcase, with the Panthers running out winners by 141 points.

Siobhan Carlton was forced to take a back seat amongst the action, as fellow forward, Sarah Theuma stole the show with 10 goals on a wet Friday night.

Carlton still did get three goals on the board as did Lisa Kirby, and they were joined by six other individual goal kickers, demonstrating that Pascoe Vale has the most damaging forward line in the competition.

This means that the Lakers are in for a big challenge this week, after they were on the opposite end of a big margin, going down to the Sunbury Kangaroos by 132 points.

Isabella Iaccino was the side's only goal kicker last week and will be hoping to get on the end of a couple more against the high-flying Panthers.

Players such as Bethany Batticciotto, My Yen Au and Jodie Allen will also have to stand up, after coming off a solid performance against the Kangaroos last week.

It will be a big task for the Lakers, but hopefully they will be up to the task, as Pascoe Vale will be looking for another thumping win at Raeburn Reserve.

BURNSIDE HEIGHTS v ROXBURGH PARK

Sunday 2:20pm @ Burnside Heights Recreation Reserve

Burnside Heights just scraped through with a win against Aberfeldie, putting in a gallant performance on a wet Friday night.

Captain, Kayla Ravello goes from strength to strength each game, trying her heart out for the Bears despite being targeted heavily as the season goes on.

Roxburgh Park will have to employ these same tactics this week, as the captain could be in for another 11-goal game

In their last two outings, the Magpies have conceded a combined 197 points, meaning that this game could get ugly if the Bears turn it on.

However, after a walkover last week, Roxburgh Park could have the fresher legs, as they didn't play in the wild weather on the weekend.

Expect the star trio of Tricia Devine, Bianca Devine and Freedom Ebert to give it their all for the Magpies, as they aim to record their second win of the season.

Meanwhile for the Bears, all eyes will be on Ravello, as well as Maria Afuhamango and Laycee Eustace, who have been in good form as of late.

They could be without the consistent Maddison Cooper this week, as she went off with injury on Friday night.

KEILOR v SUNBURY KANGAROOS

Sunday 2:55pm @ Keilor Reserve

Keilor suffered a shock defeat in cold conditions on Sunday.

The Blues went down to the Sharks, who recorded their third win of the season.

It was a low-scoring affair, as Keilor only scored one goal while Hillside scored two.

This cannot be done against the Sunbury Kangaroos, who are hitting their straps late in the season.

The Kangaroos' 132-point win was aided by the return of their VFLW player, Alex Quigley.

Quigley, who is Essendon's leading goal kicker, kicked seven majors on the weekend and was named best-on-ground by her coaches.

However, she will not return for Sunbury this week, as her Bombers take on Hawthorn in the VFLW on Sunday.

The Essendon forward had plenty of support on Sunday, as four other players kicked multiple goals.

Keilor will have to keep an eye on the likes of Rebecca Dekazos, Star Weekly's Tara Murray and gun forwards, Regina Said and Louise Martino, as they all kicked two goals last week.

Last year's premiership captain, Emily Law and this year's captain, Christie Roberts will need to continue their impressive form in order to cause an upset against the in-form Kangaroos.

WESTMEADOWS v STRATHMORE Sunday 2:55pm @ Willowbrook Reserve

The Tigers avoided playing in the horrific weather on the weekend, sitting out Round 9 with a bye.

This means that their players would be keen to get back into it and would have the fresher legs to do so.

Forward, Danielle Linton would love to climb up the goal kicking tally with a big performance against Strathmore, who conceded 22 goals on Friday night.

The Mores would be hoping to get Amy Hakim back in their side, after she missed last week's match.

Captain, Sophie Cachia will need to work hard in the back line and back up her solid performance on Friday night in order to prevent a Westmeadows scoring rampage.

Fellow defender, Megan Casey will also have to use her strong hands to ensure that she can rebound the ball out of defensive 50 at Willowbrook Reserve.

For the Tigers, expect big games from Natalie Linton and Jacinta Scott, who starred in Westmeadows' last outings, each kicking three majors.

Strathmore's defence will be tested again in this match, but the Mores will be keen to bounce back from a disappointing performance on Friday night.

HILLSIDE v CRAIGIEBURN Sunday 4:10pm @ Hillside Reserve

Hillside recorded its third competition win by upsetting reigning premiers, Keilor on Sunday.

The low-scoring affair saw the Sharks come out on top by six points thanks to goals from Burcu Johnson and Fiona Pazsa.

They have a chance to record two consecutive wins for the first time this season, as they will come up against a Craigieburn side who is fresh off a walkover.

The Eagles have experienced a rollercoaster season, dropping some winnable games and being narrowly defeated by in-form teams.

Craigieburn's leaders will need to stand up in this game, as their side needs to show the competition that they are still a side to watch.

Captain, Natasha Konstantinidis has been a key player throughout the season and will need to be complemented by big efforts from Samantha French and Kayla Glazebrook, who have been consistent throughout the season.

Some X factor from cricketers, Taylah Logie and Rebecca Lines will go a long way to ensuring Craigieburn's fourth win of the season.
