THE growth in female involvement in Australian Rules football has been explosive since the commencement of the AFLW competition in 2017.

The most obvious impact at local community level has been the huge increase in female players, however we have also seen more females involved in all aspects of the EDFL: coaches, umpires, team managers, club Boards/Committees, and the various other volunteer roles at clubs. As with significant growth in any industry or competition, we are seeing associated issues and challenges.

In our competition, the growth in female football participation (combined with a continued growth in the number of male teams playing), is causing pressures at both club and EDFL levels.

One of the major challenges is having enough ovals accessible and the necessary unisex change rooms for players and umpires to accommodate all of our football matches and training requirements. Every EDFL club I have spoken with has some form of facility upgrade planned.

Some projects are currently under construction, others are at the planning approval stage, and some clubs are undertaking the initial scoping and design.

These infrastructure projects are a great reminder of the wide and important range of stakeholders our competition has.

For example, EDFL clubs are based in five Local Government Areas being Cities of Brimbank, Hume, Melton, Moonee Valley, and Moreland.

These local governments are very important supporters of the EDFL and clubs, providing assistance with our ovals, resources and infrastructure.

The AFL and AFL Victoria also provide assistance to the EDFL and our clubs with infrastructure.

In 2017 AFL Victoria managed and funded audits of every AFL football facility in Victoria to understand the current conditions and rated these against the standards they have set.

AFL Victoria also interact with all Local Government Area Councils across the state in relation to improvements with ovals and infrastructure.

There are a number of possible grants/funding options accessible by clubs to assist with these projects.

For example, this year, both state major political parties have announced funding programs to assist clubs and community sport.

The EDFL has and will continue to share information on this funding with our clubs, and we look forward to working with our stakeholders (clubs, Government at all levels, AFL Victoria) to generate improvements in ovals and facilities for our competition.

Good luck for the weekend.

(via Leader Newspapers)

WESTMEADOWS is hoping to expose what it claims is "vague" wording in an AFL agreement that is preventing Dane Swan from playing for the Tigers.

The agreement is linked to an injury payout the former AFL star received in 2016 under an AFL-linked scheme.

The Brownlow Medallist was essentially stopped from playing football again at any level, after he received a payout worth about $400,000 for a 2016 foot injury that ended his AFL career.

Westmeadows has engaged a QC to review the conditions, in a bid to have Swan play the second half of the season.

Swan made two appearances for Westmeadows in April after securing a temporary clearance to take the field from AFL legal guru Andrew Dillon.

But the clearance was for one week only, and before Swan was cleared, his insurer officially informed him he would be breaching the terms of the payout by playing local footy.

The 34-year-old has not been paid by the Tigers and the contract the club submitted to the EDFL earlier this year indicated he would be playing for free.

Westmeadows coach Grant Smith said Swan had planned to line up against Craigieburn on Saturday before pulling out.

"This agreement he's signed, in regards to his insurance, the clause around him playing or not is quite vague," Smith said.

"He's not wanting to take the risk on it going bad for him. One of the dads of a kid at the club is a Queen's Counsel, so we've given him the document to look at.

"He's going to come back to us at the end of this week and give us his opinion on how this might stack up in court if it got to that point.

"If it's favourable, then he will play most of the season after he gets back from Russia."

If Swan and his manager Liam Pickering decide to pursue the matter, it will be dealt with by the AFL.

Swan, whose penchant for overseas holidays is well known, will be attending the soccer World Cup in Russia, which starts on June 14.

"He wants to play the back half of the season, but he just needs to wait to get the legal advice that means he wouldn't be liable for any kind of repayment of the insurance payout or anything like that," Smith said.

"If it's OK, he'll play pretty much every game from when he gets back from the World Cup, which was always the plan."

Swan was tight-lipped when quizzed after his first senior appearance for his junior club on April 21.

"I'd love to, but we'll cross that bridge when we come to it," Swan said when asked if he could be seen in a Westmeadows jumper beyond Anzac Day.

"It was awesome to come down and give something back to a club where it all started for me.

"It looked a bit dicey there at one stage, but thankfully I think common-sense prevailed and they've let me come down and do my thing."

Smith said Westmeadows was simply seeking clarity.

"The statement in the statement in the agreement says 'in the unlikely event you ever football again, you're receiving this payout'," he said.

"We're just trying to get more clarity around what an unlikely event looks like.

"The feeling at the moment is there's enough vagueness in there, it would be hard to rule either way.

"He's only playing local footy with a few of his mates and family for the fun of it.

"Does that mean he couldn't play domestic basketball? It might be hard for people to believe, but he's genuinely doing it to help us out. There's no fallacy in that story.

"Hopefully it goes our way. We're pretty confident, but we're just super cautious because we don't want to put him at any risk and the club doesn't want to be liable for anything as well."

Swan enjoyed a decorated 258-game career over 14 seasons for Collingwood and was a member of the Magpies' 2010 premiership team.

He was a five-time All-Australian and won three Copeland trophies and has since built a career in the media.

The AFL has overhauled the career-ending injury payout system, allowing more players to access the fund but for lesser funds.

IN perfect weather for footy, the slick surface of Sewell Reserve was home to a dominating performance on Saturday.

Horrible luck with injuries and unavailability for both Glenroy and Keilor so far this season gave chance to some rising stars looking to have an impact at senior level.

Keilor showed they came to play hard from the get-go, with ferocious tackling pressure all around the ground and a domination in the centre clearance battle.

These clearance wins were led by the Blues ruckman Brock McGregor, whose silky taps and follow up on ground balls set up countless forward entries.

A close first quarter, where Glenroy's Tanner Nilsson used prolific bursts of speed to break the lines, added excitement to the game and gave the home crowd some belief.

This was shut down through the second quarter, though, as Keilor kept the Roys goalless and kicked eight of their own through to half time.

Through their quick hands out of defence and play through the middle of the ground, the Blues were able to lower their eyes heading forward.

It was a clinic and Keilor was asserting its authority over Glenroy.

Jackson McMahon was the latest Blue to suffer an injury and couldn't have an impact from half time.

But it didn't stop the pure skill of the away side, who were ahead by a huge margin all day despite failing to capitalise on many opportunities through the second half in front of goal.

Although it was hard to watch at times for the home crowd, some of the Roys' stars gave them effort and some highlight plays to enjoy.

Josh Trembearth and Daniel Ferraro showed poise in many low and hard forward entry goal assists and quick hands out of stoppages, showing some positives in what was a hard day at the office.

A quick, long and direct game style for Keilor worked perfectly for full forward Dean Galea, whose strength in the air was no match for Glenroy.

Galea enjoyed himself, finishing with six majors.

With hardworking defence, a speedy midfield and strong forward line presence, Keilor was too good for Glenroy, winning by a huge 125 points.

ABERFELDIE v MARIBYRNONG PARK

AFTER suffering its first loss last week against Greenvale, Maribyrnong Park now has to back up against the other team that played in last year's grand final, Aberfeldie.

The Lions were definitely good at Monk Oval against the Jets and had their chances late to snatch a victory – proving they are worthy of contender status in 2018.

When you have Scott Clarke, Will Martiniello, Zac Keogh, Caleb Vearing and Brodie Romensky all at your disposal, then you're a big chance of going all the way in this competition.

But it's in games like this where you need to prove it. There's nothing to take from Aberfeldie's big win over Essendon Dousta Stars last week.

Luke Blackwell, Josh Pound and Sam Cattapan were among those missing at Nipper Jordan Oval but with what has been a fairly settled line-up of late, Adam Potter will have some selection headaches in the lead-up to this one.

Last week's Monk Oval clash was a thriller, and there's no reason why this won't be, either.

Genuine coin flip.

KEILOR v GREENVALE

You could make an argument last week's big win over Glenroy was Keilor's most important victory since the 2016 grand final.

With roughly half of its ideal best 22 on the sidelines (or running water), the Blues played their best game of the year against a Glenroy outfit that some tipped to get the win.

Of course, it helps when you still have Dean Galea, Kane Barbuto, David Gourdis and Mick James at your disposal.

Glenroy simply couldn't match them for class nor experience.

However, against contenders, Keilor hasn't been as good so far this season.

Prior to last week, the Blues dropped consecutive games to Aberfeldie and Maribyrnong Park, the latter of which won by 51 points.

Here they're going to battle against an in-form Greenvale who's coming off a very solid win over the Lions.

WEST COBURG v AVONDALE HEIGHTS

On form, this is West Coburg's to lose.

It's a somewhat tricky argument to make for a 2-5 side, but the Burgers are facing a 1-6 team that is already thinking about 2019 and beyond... and if Donald McDonald and his crew aren't, then they should be.

Despite taking Ls on both occasions, West Coburg has played some pretty good footy in the past fortnight against Greenvale and Strathmore respectively.

To push Greenvale within a couple of kicks at Section Road is particularly impressive for a side at this stage of development.

Daniel Archer finally got some snags against Strathmore and will be looking forward to a little bit more delivery this weekend.

If he combines with Tom Baravi, Ruairi Cleary and Daniel Johncock well, then the Burgers should have the scoring power to overcome Avondale Heights.

ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS v STRATHMORE

The goal for Strathmore in this one is simple.

The Mores need a percentage boost, because they are a whopping 44.38 per cent behind Pascoe Vale on the same win-loss at 4-3.

The other 4-3 team, Keilor, is a further 12.58 per cent ahead. So Strathmore needs to have big day in front of the sticks.

Unfortunately, it seems Essendon Dousta Stars won't be able to do much about it if Strathmore decides to go all guns blazing in the forward half.

Teams are using their games against the Stars to build percentage and the Doustas backline is leaking an average of just under 20 goals a game.

The likes of Alex Grima and Sam O'Loughlin will be looking to take advantage, and their team needs them to.

GLENROY v PASCOE VALE

About a month ago this was a game to maybe look forward to as a potential belter.

A month is a long time in football.

After a promising start to the year, player unavailability is going to start taking its toll on Glenroy, and we saw that last week against Keilor.

Travis Dulic, Aaron Kite, Matt Walker, James Bennie and Tom McIntosh were among those missing in Round 7, and it showed on the scoreboard.

Dulic in particular is going to leave a huge void in games like this, where the opposition has some powerful options to kick to inside forward 50.

Matt Watson is fast making his case for recruit of the year, averaging just over four goals a game.

He's coming off a nice bag of seven against Avondale Heights and the week before Lachie Hansen snagged eight while Watson settled for five.

It could get ugly again for the Roys.

TAYLORS LAKES v TULLAMARINE

THIS match presents a good test for Taylors Lakes and where it is at this season.

The Lions have surprised several teams early in the year and have shown they will be competitive in every game.

Their forward line has started to settle and coming off the bye, they will be fresh and raring to go.

The Demons will be hoping to get another win and enter the Queen's Birthday weekend undefeated.

They had no troubles at all last weekend against Jacana, doing what they needed to do.

This week's match could quite easily be won in defence, with the side that is able to shut down the spread of goal kickers the best, likely to get the win.

EAST KEILOR v OAK PARK

East Keilor almost added to its wins total with a thrilling loss against Hillside.

The Cougars pushed the Sharks all the way but couldn't get across the line.

Cougars playing coach Ash Arrowsmith is starting to hit form which is a big boost for the Cougars as they look to rise up the ladder.

A win here for the Cougars puts them two wins ahead of Oak Park and gives them breathing space on possible relegation.

For Oak Park, this week is a must-win game.

Facing a side towards the bottom of the ladder, it's the perfect time to kick-start their season.

They showed signs for a half against Airport West that they can play well in periods, it's just a matter of doing it for the whole game.

JACANA v HILLSIDE

While Hillside should win this match, the Jaguars could test them if they find some of their best form.

It's been up and down for the Jaguars as they look to find their first win in the higher division.

They have the talent, it's been a matter of putting it all together on the park.

Billy Morrison continues to be one of the shining lights for the Jaguars, having been named in their best three players in five of his six games.

The Sharks are another talented team but have been hurt by injuries.

They returned to the winners list on the weekend, but they didn't have it all their own way against East Keilor.

The Sharks needed the whole game to get the win and stay in touch with the top four sides, after two straight losses before that.

Mitch Church looks like he's started to settle in at Shark Park and it's reflecting on the scoreboard.

Expect the Sharks to start playing more of the football we've been used to, once they get closer to having their full list available.

AIRPORT WEST v WESTMEADOWS

Airport West's reputation as a strong finisher continued with the side needing a good second half to get over the line against Oak Park.

Several times this season the Eagles have either been down at half time or holding a small lead, before finding another level in the second half.

Once they play four strong quarters, it will spell bad signs for the other teams in the competition.

Tyson Young's good form continued as he kicked eight goals for a second straight week and moved to joint leader in the division's goal kicking.

Like they have all season, the Tigers have shown periods of play against Craigieburn, which would have tested any team in the competition.

They dominated the last quarter kicking seven goals, but it was too little, too late.

To knock off Airport West, they will need to do that for the whole game.

Sticking with them for a half won't get them the four points.

ROXBURGH PARK v COBURG DISTRICTS

Live 2pm on 98.9 North West FM & Mixlr.com/edflfooty

WHEN these two sides met back in Round 2, Roxburgh Park handed Coburg Districts a three-point loss.

It was only three points, but it signalled to the Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 pundits that, perhaps, last year's runner-up was in for a tough year.

Coburg Districts' critics have been vocal so far this year but with impressive recent wins over the Northern Saints and Moonee Valley, the Lions have done well to get their 2018 campaign back on track.

Up until last week, Roxburgh Park was the hottest team of the division, but it seems they don't like travelling down Sydney Road to Charles Mutton Reserve, losing their second game there for the year.

At home the Magpies are so far undefeated and haven't had any trouble, but Coburg Districts is the best side they've come up against at Lakeside Drive to date.

If Chris Lynch plays then his battle with Ferras Merhi in the ruck will be crucial, while Ricky McGill and his fellow Coburg Districts defenders will face their biggest challenge yet against the Magpies' dynamic forward setup.

HADFIELD v NORTHERN SAINTS

The closest Hadfield has come to any opponent this year was back in Round 2, getting within five goals of the Northern Saints in tricky conditions at Martin Reserve.

This is also a home game for the Hawks, but you can't make a case for them getting any closer this time around.

The Saints welcomed Jake McSwain back into the line-up last week and with Rocky Ferraro continuing his great start to the year, they may be back on their way to true contender status themselves.

Paul Dunn has used the first two months of the season to assess exactly what he is working with and now that we're getting to the halfway point of the year, it's time for the Saints to assert themselves on Strathmore Community Bank Division 2.

Premiership contenders win games like this well, so expect the Saints to build some percentage in this one.

EAST SUNBURY v BURNSIDE HEIGHTS

East Sunbury had an outstanding start to their 2018 campaign but the most pleasing thing about their season to date is that its success has been sustained.

Back-to-back wins over Coburg Districts and Hadfield since their Round 6 bye has kept the Thunder on top of the Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 ladder, and while coach Steve Grey is still asking more of his young group, he has to be pleased with the season so far.

Jamerson Campbell isn't the most well-known forward of the division but he's doing his job nicely in the absence of Tom Burnside, kicking 19 goals for the year to date.

The ball has been coming in swiftly and efficiently for the most part, thanks to a stellar all-round effort from the Thunder's midfield group.

All in all, they should have too much speed and class for Burnside Heights, but the Bears are now capable of troubling most sides in the division – as shown in Round 5 at Coburg Districts.

Stephen Kenrick is finding some form and Josh Covelli is giving most of the defenders he plays on nightmares, while Anthony Fawcus is fast becoming the Bears' other star contributor on a weekly basis.

If they're all up and going then it'll be a tricky game for East Sunbury, but they should have enough depth to overcome any Burnside Heights challenge this weekend.

KEILOR PARK v STRATHMORE

Saturday 2:20pm @ Keilor Park Reserve

KEILOR Park is coming off a 76-point loss to Craigieburn in Round 7.

After conceding eight goals in the second quarter, the signs didn't look good for the Devils.

But to their credit, they did manage to get two majors on the board.

Both were off the boot of Sarah German, who was also named best-on-ground for Keilor Park.

The Devils come up against a Strathmore outfit who is starting to string together some good football.

The Mores were right in the game against the Sunbury Lions in Round 7, only going down by 13 points.

Once again, netballers, Ruby Pini and Caitlyn Ball were among the standouts for Strathmore, and were complemented by Ellie Young and Georgia Hallo.

Saturday's encounter also marked just the second game that the Mores had two multiple goal-kickers, with both Amy Hakim and Alana Werden slotting through two majors.

This could spell danger for the Devils, with Hakim in particular looking more dangerous in each game she has played for Strathmore.

SUNBURY LIONS v BURNSIDE HEIGHTS

Sunday 2:25pm @ Eric Boardman Reserve – Oval 2

This game sees one of last year's powerhouses, the Sunbury Lions, come up against one of this year's powerhouses, Burnside Heights.

The Bears have had a horror two weeks, losing star forward and competition leading goal-kicker, Brooke McKinley for the season with an ACL injury sustained in Round 6.

A week later, they lost their first game of the season against an experienced Pascoe Vale outfit in a physical encounter.

But Burnside Heights still possesses the goal-kicking prowess of Kayla Ravello, who sits second on the goal-kicking tally.

In the Lions' forward line, it has been Dianne Comport that has been a shining light.

Comport has kicked 10 goals in six games, including three against Strathmore on Saturday in what was a match-winning performance.

Although Sunbury is a highly experienced and composed side, it will come up against a Burnside Heights team on the rebound, which is a daunting prospect for any team.

WESTMEADOWS v HILLSIDE

Sunday 2:30pm @ Willowbrook Reserve

After a big win against Avondale Heights/Taylors Lakes in Round 6, Westmeadows was brought down to earth in a heart-breaking win in Round 7.

The Tigers went down to Aberfeldie by a goal in Round 7 and were restricted to just one point in the last quarter of the match.

Basketballer, Danielle Linton was as dominant as ever, kicking two of her side's three goals and making it amongst the best for the fifth time this season.

She was complemented by fellow basketballer, Kloe Jordan-Wilson, who also continues to impress in the black and yellow.

Her side will have an opportunity to bounce back against a struggling Hillside outfit.

The Sharks switched ladder spots with Avondale Heights/Taylors Lakes, slipping down to 11th after a 24-point loss at Canning Reserve.

As usual, it was Brittany McIntyre who did everything she could for her side, chipping in a goal and being named amongst the best for the third consecutive week.

Expect a competitive effort from the Sharks as they aim to combat the rebounding Tigers.

PASCOE VALE v KEILOR

Sunday 2:40pm @ Raeburn Reserve

Pascoe Vale asserted itself as premiership favourites in Round 7 with a win over fellow undefeated team, Burnside Heights.

The Panthers' experience stood up with Bridgette Aparo putting her body on the line a number of times to get the job done.

Aparo's ball-use has been a highlight this season and will be something that Keilor will have to keep an eye on.

Sarah Larkings also provided a strong presence around the ground with strong hands and a hunger to win.

The Panthers come up against reigning premiers, Keilor, although the side is completely different to last year's premiership outfit.

The Blues were able to get the job done convincingly against Roxburgh Park, with Kiera Riley playing her best game of the season.

She kicked two goals for the day, as did Emma Dunster and Sophie Freeman.

This match pits the 2017 premiers against what could be the 2018 premiers, in what should be a fascinating encounter at Raeburn Reserve.

ABERFELDIE v CRAIGIEBURN

Sunday 2:55pm @ Aberfeldie Park West

Aberfeldie got back in the winning books in Round 7, with a thrilling six-point win over the Tigers.

After suffering a heavy loss to Pascoe Vale, the Gorillas proved that they could bounce back in style.

Captain, Kurtis Shine found herself up forward, booting through one of Aberfeldie's four goals.

She was complemented by Amber Wescombe, who also booted a goal and was named in the best.

Shine and Wescombe will have to bring their A-game against a Craigieburn outfit, who dominated in Round 7 to rack up its second win of the season.

The Eagles enjoyed a 76-point win against Keilor Park, with cricketers, Samantha French and Taylah Logie standing up once again.

French kicked three goals on the day and was aided by Anastasia D'Cruz, who also added three majors to Craigieburn's score.

This game could be a high-scoring one if it is played on the Eagles' terms but if Aberfeldie's defence can work its magic, then the game could turn in its favour.

ROXBURGH PARK v SUNBURY KANGAROOS

Sunday 2:55pm @ Lakeside Oval

Roxburgh Park has had a difficult time this season but have been provided some positives with Tricia Devine and Chloe Dinuccio dominating every game.

Both players were named in the best in the side's heavy loss against Keilor.

They were complemented by former Glenroy duo, Bianca Devine and Freedom Ebert, who also dug in deep for the Magpies.

The Round 7 match marked Ebert's first appearance in the EDFL Women's competition this year, and the Magpies would love to have her play every game due to her high skill level.

Roxburgh Park comes up against the Kangaroos this week, who are fresh off a bye.

It will certainly be a case of older players going up against younger players, as Sunbury will be looking to tower its experience over Roxburgh Park.

Expect big games from Regina Said and Tara Crisp, who will both be looking for another bag of goals after they both kicked four majors in the Kangaroos' Round 6 win against the Sharks.
