COMMUNITY football provides many benefits.

In fact, a study undertaken by La Trobe University in 2015 found that for every dollar spent to run a community football club, there is at least a $4.40 return in social value.

Our EDFL clubs are always undertaking new initiatives to improve themselves and the services and facilities they provide for their players, officials, supporters and community.

On Saturday July 7, the Airport West Football Club have designated their home match against East Keilor as their NAIDOC Game.

The game coincides with NAIDOC (National Aboriginal and Islander Day Observance Committee) week which celebrates the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Activities on the day will include the Long Walk from AJ Davis Reserve to Hansen Reserve, a Welcome to Country Ceremony, and a function featuring guest speakers Nova Peris, Kyle Vander Kuyp and Courtenay Dempsey.

The Airport West players will wear specially designed indigenous guernseys on the day.

On the following Saturday, July 14, the Aberfeldie Football Club will host Keilor in their NAIDOC game.

On the day, both Aberfeldie and Keilor will wear special indigenous guernseys to mark the occasion.

Across many of our clubs there are capital improvements projects in progress.

Whilst some are only at the planning stage, others are further advanced:

- In late June, the State Minister for Sport, Honourable John Erin officially opened the new facilities at the Pascoe Vale Football Club. This included new change rooms for home and away teams and the umpires, all of which have toilets and showers suitable for males and females. The players' change rooms are large for senior football, however can be partitioned to convert to multiple change rooms for junior matches.

- Roxburgh Park Football Club have opened their long-awaited new social rooms.
- EDFL followers who have recently been to either the Moonee Valley or Greenvale Football Clubs will have seen major development projects in progress. Whilst there is short-term inconvenience associated with these infrastructure works, no doubt they will be enjoyed for many years to come.

2018 marks the 100th year of the Pascoe Vale Sports Club spanning 1918 to 2018.

A century marks a significant milestone for any sporting club and a highlight of the celebrations will be a Centenary Gala Dinner being held on July 21.

For those associated with the club this will be a once in a lifetime event and no doubt, a night full of memories.

Good luck for the weekend.

(via Leader Newspapers)

NEW East Sunbury coach Glenn Hopkins has declared his desire to lead the Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 club long-term.

The Thunder has suffered two heavy losses since the shock resignation of Steve Grey to fall to fourth spot on the ladder.

Experienced mentor Hopkins has held the top job at Heathcote, Tullamarine, East Malvern, Canterbury, Diggers Rest, Woodend-Hesket and Melton Centrals.

He was an assistant at Diggers Rest this year before deciding to express interest in East Sunbury's coaching vacancy.

"I really don't coach clubs for one year — I try to coach them for a period and develop that footy club," Hopkins said.

"The attraction was, as a young footy club, there's a fair bit of development that can go in there, all the way from the juniors up.

"Coaching in that area a bit, I knew a bit about the club and the demographic of the club, as far as lots of juniors, a growing club.

"I wanted to get back into Essendon footy league ... I coached there a few years ago and East Sunbury's a really good, developing footy club to do that."

East Sunbury made a blistering 7-1 start to the campaign and was sitting pretty on top of the table, but a long list of injuries and upheaval off the ground have resulted in defeats to Northern Saints (109 points), Roxburgh Park (66) and Moonee Valley (40) in its past three matches.

The club is chasing a maiden finals appearance in its sixth season in the EDFL's senior ranks.

"The players don't lose their ability and they certainly don't forget how to play footy," Hopkins said.

"Most of it is getting them emotionally back to uniting as a team and uniting as a club.

"We want to just refocus the club back towards where they want to be and to turn the spirits and the feeling in the club around a bit.

"What's happened has happened, so we've got to now push forward — that's what the club wants to do."

Speaking earlier this month, president Keith Osborne said the Thunder was determined not to let Grey's departure impact its premiership quest.

"We don't want this to uproot an entire club," he said.

"The game plan hasn't changed for us. We think we're a top-four side and will play finals this year and hopefully go deep into finals."

East Sunbury will tackle Coburg Districts this weekend.

ABERFELDIE EDFL Women's coach, Claire Heffernan believes her side's competitiveness has helped them bring an element of surprise to the competition.

Heffernan, a former Darebin and St Kilda player, has told her players to be competitive right from day one, and isn't changing her approach in the lead-up to finals.

"I don't know a lot about the other teams because I haven't coached before but we kind of bring the element of surprise so that's been our big thing," she told The Footballer.

"I've never asked them to win a game or to kick a bag of goals, it's to be competitive and that's what we focus on

"We want to play finals but it's so cliché' isn't it, taking it one week at a time."

Heffernan also wants to ensure that her players have good relationships, not just with each other, but with their opposition, the club and the umpires.

She believes this is a stepping stone for her women to establish themselves as footballers.

"It's been a team-first message," Heffernan said.

"Our values like communication has been one (message), that we work hard, that we're committed to our craft and learning how to be a footballer."

The Aberfeldie coach believes her players are certainly on the right track, as her experienced players are helping her to teach new players the basic skills of football.

"They're a good tight team so I think that was really important from the beginning that we get this relationship stuff right," Heffernan said.

"They wanted to figure out what it's like to be part of the team.

"The girls who are more experienced have been great in taking on that role of guiding the girls while they're still experienced and watching them push through is amazing.

While her experienced players have been great in teaching skills, Heffernan admits that she has personally found it challenging to do so.

"It's been a challenge I guess because the majority hadn't played before," she said.

"We've got a lot of netballers, hockey players and basketballers.

"Ellie Huggard plays netball, Mariah (Phillips) plays netball. Georgia McCormick who's our centre half-back, she's a hockey player.

"There's this range of players and so building from scratch has been one of the big challenges.

"Keeping the girls who are more experienced, keeping them more engaged and teaching these girls skills from the ground up has been a big challenge."

Despite the challenge, Heffernan wouldn't have it any other way, as she is proud of her players' efforts throughout the season.

By ADEM SARICAUGLU

PASCOE VALE v STRATHMORE

THE winner of this has a good chance of being in the top four by the end of Round 12, depending on other results.

For either one of these sides to be in the four this deep into the season will be a real confidence-booster – as both may be capable of going all the way despite being disappointing at times this year.

Pascoe Vale's good mid-season run came to a halt last week against its bogey side Keilor – where Matthew Watson and Lachie Hansen were both held to a single goal between them.

Defensively Strathmore has been quite sound of late and if the Mores can remain stern down back then they're in with a big chance to claim an away win here.

But to do so would be to reverse its fortunes from back in Round 3, where Watson bagged five in a 55-point drubbing at Mascoma Street.

The Mores had to make six changes to their side last week and while that didn't seem to matter up at Greenvale, it could definitely be a factor here.

WEST COBURG v MARIBYRNONG PARK

- Shore Reserve

Perhaps the only thing going for West Coburg here is the fact they'll be facing the ladder leader at the division's most uncomfortable setting for visiting teams.

Shore Reserve is unlike any other ground in Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division, not only in size but in shape, too.

If you're not used to it, it takes time to adjust to, and that's why West Coburg always seems to be in with a better shot against better sides at Shore than they are at Coburg City Oval – a finals venue where the better sides have had more experience.

But like I said, the 'Shore Factor' is the only thing going in the Burgers' favour.

They've quite frankly been ordinary since the calendar turned to June and haven't had a win since Round 5.

On the flipside you have the top-of-the-table Lions travelling along beautifully with coach Robbie Castello this week declaring via Leader Newspapers he's back available for every game for the remainder of the season.

All signs point to another Marby win here.

GLENROY v GREENVALE

Greenvale is the favourite, but a tentative one.

The Jets had a shocker last week against an undermanned Strathmore and if it were an isolated result then you'd probably dismiss it as an anomaly.

But Greenvale's form line has been shaky for a large chunk of the season now and despite their pedigree, the Jets simply can't be trusted at the moment.

Against the bottom three sides Greenvale has only just squeaked by to collect the points, but here the Jets are facing a Glenroy side that has proven it is better than the three teams below them.

Back in Round 3 this match-up was Glenroy's first test against one of Premier Division's powerhouses and with Kurtis Sanajko and Jacob Thompson combining for six goals, the Jets won comfortably at Section Road.

But now we're talking about two rather different sides and a very different venue, and neither Sanajko nor Thompson played last week.

Glenroy has shown at times this year that they're close to claiming a big scalp and this is their best opportunity yet.

AVONDALE HEIGHTS v ABERFELDIE

Believe it or not, when these two sides met earlier in the season, it resulted in a draw at Clifton Park.

Cam Wood was one of the Heights' better players alongside his fellow ex-Blue team mates Dennis Armfield and Ciaran Sheehan.

Wood's now gone and has been replaced by raw North Melbourne rookie Tom Jeffries, who will have his hands full up against Courtney Johns here.

So Armfield and Sheehan are going to need plenty of help if the Heights are any chance of pulling off an upset.

Aberfeldie welcomed back some key personnel last weekend and enjoyed its second biggest win of the year over West Coburg.

A top two finish is what Aberfeldie is eyeing off and by taking care of business and doing so well here, it'll be a step closer to securing that all-important double chance.

The premiers can't afford to let up and they've clearly got Avondale Heights outgunned, so they need to take advantage of it.

ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS v KEILOR

Keilor is the hottest team in Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division and they're probably in no mood to take the foot off the gas against their arch rival.

The Blues, if they feel like it, will take plenty of pleasure in delivering would could be the final dagger in Douttas' failing attempts to survive relegation.

Given the final margin was 131 points back in Round 3, you feel as though Keilor should be able to play this on its own terms, but the Blues aren't exactly facing the same Douttas outfit that they did in April.

Essendon Doutta Stars has been desperately unlucky not to get a win in recent weeks and almost got over the line at Glenroy last week.

Their form is improving and with a big game against West Coburg looming, the Stars need to put in a good performance here and try to protect their slender percentage.

TAYLORS LAKES v HILLSIDE

Live 2pm on Mixlr.com/edffooty & 98.9 North West FM

IF the local derby wasn't already a highlight match for both sides, it is now with the two sides fighting for finals spots.

The Lions will enter the match on the back of the match that got away.

The Lions took it up to the ladder leaders, Airport West and should have come away with the full four points.

Instead they had to settle for two, as inaccurate kicking in front of goal meant they had to settle for a draw.

It was somewhat a return to form for the Lions after losing their previous two games.

Andrew Gallina and Samuel Kennedy were the standouts for the Lions.

The Sharks enter this week on the back of a solid win against Oak Park.

They controlled the contest for most of the day, with only poor kicking keeping them from dominating the scoreboard earlier.

Mitch Church had a quieter day than in recent weeks, but it didn't matter with Matthew Patane stepping up with four goals.

Joseph Careless named the Sharks' best.

AIRPORT WEST v EAST KEILOR

It's hard to believe that East Keilor has gone from a team with just one win and fighting for survival to the most in-form team of Essendon Ford Division 1 in the space of three weeks.

The Cougars have now won three games on the trot and have claimed a couple of scalps along the way, most recently Craigieburn on Saturday.

The Cougars set the win up in the first three quarters, with an even last quarter.

Tom Gleeson kicked four goals, having kicked one in his previous four games.

Having found some form, the Cougars would back themselves in against Airport West.

While the Eagles sit on top of the ladder, they have been pretty inconsistent from week to week and in games.

They were unlucky to get away with a draw against Taylors Lakes in a low-scoring affair.

Bior Malual was the only multiple goalkicker for the Eagles and was named their best.

The Eagles only just got the win between the two sides earlier in the season, when the Cougars weren't going too well, so will have a battle on their hands this time round.

OAK PARK v WESTMEADOWS

In a round of interesting match-ups, this one could be the closest game of the lot.

Both sides are in a similar position with three wins each and have shown glimpses of what they can do against some of the better sides.

Both sides are coming off similar losses to a couple of the top teams.

Hillside put in a dominant display against Oak Park and could have quite easily won by a bit more.

Cameron Hare continued his good form in a tough day for the Kangaroos.

The Tigers were left to rue a poor start against Tullamarine, but it was a pretty even contest after half time.

Aaron Evans and Ben Drummond kicked two goals apiece for the Tigers, with Leigh Owen named best in the loss.

A win here will keep the slight finals hopes of one team alive and probably end the other's at the same time.

JACANA v CRAIGIEBURN

These two sides will face off for the Barry Nolan Cup, meaning the game will take on some extra significance.

For the Jaguars, a break was exactly what they needed and hopefully it will help them get their first win of the season.

They've showed small glimpses of what they can do, but not for long enough in-game.

The Eagles will be looking to bounce back after one of their more disappointing performances of the season.

The Eagles were outclassed for much of their match against East Keilor, who were able to restrict Dean Limbach to just three goals.

Former skipper Brent Gordon was the standout for the Eagles.

With the race for a top four spot heating up, the Eagles will be looking for a big percentage-boosting win.

EAST SUNBURY v COBURG DISTRICTS

FEW clubs have experienced a more dramatic month than what East Sunbury have gone through.

After defeating Burnside Heights in Round 9, East Sunbury was on top of the ladder and looking like the premierships favourite in Strathmore Community Bank Division 2.

Since then the Thunder hasn't won a game, has suffered several injuries to senior regulars and no longer has Steve Grey leading the way as senior coach.

After three successive losses, the Thunder now has Glenn Hopkins installed as the man charged with leading the East Sunbury resurgence back up the ladder and it all starts here in a massive game against Coburg Districts that has the pundits split.

Coburg Districts is still in the hunt for a top four finish but needs to start improving its own form as we edge closer to September.

There were signs against the Northern Saints last week that the Lions have what it takes to re-capture their 2017 spark, with Tom Lucin, Ricky McGill and Chris Lynch all playing good footy at the moment.

They'll be hoping the Thunder will take its time to adjust to the Hopkins message and not quite be 100 per cent this weekend.

ROXBURGH PARK v MOONEE VALLEY

The Magpies lost and the Fog won last week but the favourites tag still belongs to the former here.

Roxburgh Park was out-scored by nine goals to two in the second half at Burnside Heights last week and given their overall form of late, it might be best to treat that second half drop off as a blip on the radar.

When you boast arguably the best forward line and the best ruckman (Ferras Merhi) in the division, as well as a solid midfield and back line, there's no reason to be too worried by a bad half of footy in less than ideal conditions.

Moonee Valley was solid but not spectacular in its win over Hadfield.

The Fog was in control and a little bit more polished than the improving Hawks and managed to get the job done with Ned Wilson out of the line-up and Jordan Faba being held to just one goal.

Wilson (knee) is likely gone for the year now so it's time for the likes of Cory McGrath and Braden Padmore to take over this team as it pursues another finals berth.

It's a game that really could go either way, but the Magpies have more star power at their disposal and should be feeling good about bouncing back at its newly re-furbished home.

NORTHERN SAINTS v BURNSIDE HEIGHTS

The Northern Saints have now beaten every other team in Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 after holding on to beat Coburg Districts last week.

It has been a six-game winning streak that has not only catapulted the Saints to the top of the ladder, it's also sent a stern message to the rest of the competition.

If there were any doubts about the Saints' premiership credentials, then they've been well and truly been put to rest following this winning streak.

Right now, and depending on ongoing good health, this is the most complete side of the division... particularly from an offensive perspective.

It's down back where you can get them, as shown by the Saints' late-game collapse against the Lions last week.

The most impressive thing about Burnside Heights' win over Roxburgh Park was the comeback the Bears were able to mount in the second half.

It proved that they too know how to score in a hurry and if the Saints turn this into a shoot-out then the Bears are a chance of staying with them.

AVONDALE HEIGHTS/TAYLORS LAKES v ABERFELDIE

Friday 7pm @ Canning Reserve

IN vice-captain, Rita Ceravolo's 100th game, the Lakers weren't able to get the job done against Strathmore.

Despite the loss, Avondale Heights/Taylor's Lakes kept in the game, only conceding four goals for the day.

If the Lakers can put in that same defensive effort, they could push Aberfeldie on Friday night.

However, after an 84-point win against Hillside, the Gorillas would be confident with their scoring power coming into this match.

What could really set Aberfeldie apart from the Lakers is the depth of their side, as they had four multiple goalkickers last week in Olivia Madden, Ebony Rocci, Aleesha Hobbs and Georgia McCormick.

This also demonstrates their versatility, as Georgia McCormick spent her last outing matching up on one of the competition's dangerous forwards to floating inside 50 herself last week.

Keep an eye out for Avondale Heights/Taylor's Lakes' Hajer Mohamed, who had a standout performance on the weekend.

She is shaping up to be a very exciting player for the Lakers and she could contend well against the in-form Gorillas side on Friday night.

ROXBURGH PARK v STRATHMORE

Friday 7pm @ Lakeside Oval

Roxburgh Park has not played football in three weeks, after its Round 9 and 10 matches were deemed as walkovers and last week was a bye.

The Magpies will be keen to get back onto the park on Friday night, and there's no better way to do it than in front of a home crowd.

However, they come up against a Strathmore side that is coming off a win against Avondale Heights/Taylor's Lakes.

The Mores will be keen to record their second consecutive win for the first time this season to end their campaign on a high.

This could be harder to do without captain, Sophie Cachia, who went off in the opening minutes of Sunday's match after a heavy clash.

If Cachia does not line up this week in defence, this could give license to Magpies such as Chloe Dinuccio to get a couple of majors on the board.

Up the other end, the scoring could come from Mores midfielders such as Sally Portbury and Rebecca Said, who created plenty of chances for their side on the weekend.

KEILOR PARK v SUNBURY KANGAROOS

Saturday 2:20pm @ Keilor Park Reserve

Although Keilor Park went down to local rivals Keilor, the Devils did manage to get a goal on the board, which was courtesy of Holly Bauerle.

Prior to that, Keilor Park had only scored one goal from its past three matches, meaning getting a major on the board was crucial.

This could be much harder to do this week though as the Sunbury Kangaroos have too come off a win against local rivals. The win was a vital one for the Kangaroos, who will be desperate to push their case for a grand final berth during the finals series.

Against the Sunbury Lions, it was once again Alex Quigley who stood out for the Kangaroos.

The Essendon forward booted three of her side's five goals at Eric Boardman Reserve and will be a crucial player going forward if she is available for finals.

It will be extremely difficult for the Devils to stop the midfield of Tylah Bell, Danielle Green and Bailee Said, as the trio has been on fire this season.

Hopefully the Keilor Park players can step up to help out the likes of Chiara and Sara Imela as well as Sarah German, who have been trying hard for their side all season.

BURNSIDE HEIGHTS v KEILOR

Saturday 5pm @ Burnside Heights Recreation Reserve

Burnside Heights is charging towards the finals after recording another big win on the weekend.

Captain, Kayla Ravanello put her name back at the top of the goal kicking tally, kicking six goals against Craigieburn to take her tally up to 32 goals from 10 games.

Despite plenty of hard hits during games, the Bears have maintained a regular side, which has been the key to securing so many victories this season.

If usual suspects, Maddison Cooper, Laycee Eustace and Angela Dalla Rosa can fire again, it will be very hard for Keilor to stop Burnside Heights.

Keilor would love to cause an upset in the Saturday twilight game, and would be confident that it could do so, after coming off a big win against Keilor Park.

Forwards, Jasmine Roberts-Brown and Sophie Freeman would be hoping to back up their four-goal performances in a bid to counteract Ravanello's scoring.

With 2017 premiership captain, Emily Law still in the EDFL side, the Blues will have full faith that they can put in a competitive performance against the second-placed Bears.

Law will need support from regular stars such as current captain, Christie Roberts, Stephanie Aleksovski and Kiera Riley, who have been playing well throughout the season.

Expect this match to be a high-scoring one, as both sides have plenty of fire-power up forward and would be looking to boost their percentages in the penultimate round of the home and away season.

HILLSIDE v SUNBURY LIONS

Sunday 1:45pm @ Hillside Reserve

Despite not scoring against Aberfeldie on the weekend, the Sharks would be confident that they can push it right up to the Lions, who are travelling a long way from home to Shark Park. Melissa Higgins and Ashley Schellander were among Hillside's best on the weekend and would be keen to back up their solid outings against the vulnerable Lions.

After going down to cross-town rivals, Sunbury Kangaroos, the Lions would be hungry for a rebound win as they look to keep their top four hopes alive.

The side is slowly bringing in handy players towards season's end, and on Friday night, they included a Calder Cannons player into their side.

Terira Fry came in and made an impact, scoring Sunbury's only goal on the night.

However, her teammates weren't so accurate, as the Lions kicked 1.10 on the night.

If they are inaccurate again on Sunday, Hillside could pounce, giving the side a chance to end its season on a high note.

In what is set to be a wet Melbourne weekend, expect a tight contest between these sides, as last time it was wet, the Sharks caused one of the upsets of the season when they defeated Keilor.

CRAIGIEBURN v WESTMEADOWS

Sunday 2:20pm @ DS Aitken Reserve

With both teams coming off losses last weekend, the Eagles and Tigers would be keen to get a crucial rebound victory.

This is especially the case for Westmeadows, who is currently sitting fifth on the ladder and would love a top four finish.

If the Tigers show the same effort that they did against Pascoe Vale, then it will certainly help their chances on the weekend.

Westmeadows astonishingly held the Panthers scoreless in the second half on Sunday, which is a feat that no other side has achieved this season.

This was thanks to a good move from coach, Matt Walker to send star player, Danielle Linton to the back line to steady the ship for the Tigers.

She was assisted by Brooklyn Ash and Nat Egan, who were terrific in coming out of defence.

This match will see a battle of cricketers as the likes of Westmeadows cricketers, Danielle Linton and Kloe Jordan-Wilson will go head-to-head against Craigieburn cricketers, Taylah Logie and Rebecca Lines.

Logie in particular played a handy role on the weekend, scoring her team's only goal against Burnside Heights.

Teammates and consistent performers, Kayla Glazebrook and Anastasia D'Cruz will need to be at their best if the Eagles want to hand the Tigers their first loss since Round 7.
