THE EDFL has partnered with Zaidee's Rainbow Foundation and nominated last weekend as Zaidee's Round.

Clubs had the opportunity to purchase and wear Zaidee's Rainbow shoelaces.

These colourful shoelaces are in memory of Zaidee, who died suddenly in December 2004 from a brain aneurism at the age of seven years and 22 days.

Zaidee was the only child under the age of 16 years to donate her organs and tissues in Victoria during 2004.

The foundation's objective is to ask all family members to discuss becoming organ and tissue donors should they be in the same position as Zaidee was at the end of life, so you may save or improve another life.

It was fantastic to see many players supporting the cause by wearing the colourful shoe laces on match day.

To find out more about Zaidee's story or to register please check the website www.zaidee.org.

This weekend our EDFL Women's competition and all junior boys' and girls' competitions commence finals.

It is a very exciting time in their sporting lives and no doubt there will be special moments which become lifelong memories.

The EDFL Women's Finals Series will make for interesting viewing with the final eight format providing genuine opportunity for teams who have shown improvement over the course of the inaugural EDFL Women's season.

It is encouraging to see the mix of teams participating in the EDFL Women's Finals Series.

There are clubs from all three divisions of our senior men's competitions, plus two Sunbury-based teams who don't have male teams playing in the EDFL.

The EDFL is thankful to our clubs for hosting our finals matches.

With such strong growth in the number of teams playing EDFL football, the number of finals matches and need for grounds continues to increase.

We are fortunate that we have very supportive clubs and local councils, and teams of volunteers who enable girls, boys, women and men to experience playing finals football.

I ask that all parents, supporters and team officials enjoy these special days.

The nature of competition makes these finals matches more emotional occasions.

Therefore, please be conscious of your behaviour and ensure that we all provide positive feedback and experiences for the children involved.

Good luck for the weekend.

AUSTRALIAN football's ability to embrace people from all cultures has flourished in Melbourne's north-west suburbs, with the establishment of the Hume Bombers Football Club. Developed by AFL Victoria, in conjunction with the Essendon District Football League and Essendon Football Club, the Hume Bombers Football Club was created to engage with the strong Indian community in the region.

Born out of the Gurdwara Indian Auskick centre, the community's love of football flourished and quickly grew popularity from 64 to 115 participants in 2015.

Working closely with the Indian community, the club established Under 9s and Under 13s teams to participate for its first season in the EDFL.

Getting their first taste of competitive football this year, AFL Victoria Football Development Manager Mark Morgan said the new club has been pivotal in providing the community with a pathway to develop and progress with their football.

"We've helped them along the way and consulted the community, given them some basic education around what's required to make a game happen every weekend," Morgan said.

"It's really important for us to engage these communities and get young kids firstly introduced to the game, and then having a really strong awareness of what pathways are available.

"It's a good way for them to assimilate into the local culture." Community leader and club president Avtar Singh played a major role in developing the team, and he knows just how much it means to the Indian community.

"They were rapt, they were excited," said Singh on the families' reaction to having a team available.

"In this country you need to follow a club (and) you need to follow footy. That's something I learned very quickly when I came from India.

"It impacted a lot of kids.

"More kids are interested in playing footy now that they can see they can do it.

"It has urged them to engage in the mainstream sport in this country."

While still in the very early stages of development, Singh hopes eventually that one day, a player from the Indian community can represent them at AFL level," he said.

"Eventually I would like to see them play for an AFL club.

"That is the goal, that is what the community would love to see.

"Maybe they can be the Sachin Tendulkar or Virat Kohli of the AFL."

(via Leader Newspapers)

JACANA premiership coach Robert Fletcher will stand down at season's end after rejecting a two-year contract offer from the Essendon Ford Division1 club.

Fletcher is in his second season in the top job and led the Jaguars to last year's Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 premiership.

But Jacana has endured a forgettable 2018 in Division 1 and has a 0-12 record with four rounds of the home-and-away season remaining.

Fletcher, who will coach out the year, announced his decision to the playing group on Thursday night and said he was departing on "good terms".

"I think things change in your life," Fletcher said, pointing to the tough year he has endured off the ground.

"I'm not saying I'm not going to coach somewhere next year; I'm not going to say I am going to coach. I just don't know what I'm doing.

"The footy club has given me the opportunity to coach and do something I love, so I wanted to make sure I leave them in the right position in that they can go out and start hunting coaches before other clubs start doing that as well."

Hit hard by injury and undermanned, they have lost eight games by 10 goals or more this season.

"It's been a tough year, but I've grown as a coach I think," Fletcher said.

"(On Saturday) I think we had 10 players who had never played seniors before this year, so there's been two players playing seniors.

"Looking forward, hopefully sign some of the Jacana boys up in the next four or five weeks for next year, so they're ready to go for next season."

Jacana sits three games behind Westmeadows and is set to return to the third tier next year.

The Jaguars will face Taylors Lakes, Tullamarine, Hillside and Oak Park in their remaining fixtures.

GREENVALE v ABERFELDIE - Radio Game

IT is always a big occasion when Greenvale meets Aberfeldie, so it comes as no surprise that this looms as one of the biggest games of the season.

What is surprising, though, is that both teams are currently outside the top two and have been shaky with their form of late.

Greenvale has won four from five and slowly the winning margins seem to be increasing, but that one loss – which came at home to Strathmore – still carries some weight.

Paul Chapman will be hopeful of some key pieces returning to the line-up this weekend, as Fabian Deluca, Addam Maric, Jayden Ranno and Chris Farchione all missed the Round 13 win at Pascoe Vale.

Ruckman Deluca is particularly vital, as he'll be up against Courtney Johns in what could loom as the key match-up of the game.

Aberfeldie's in a similar boat to Greenvale, in that its form isn't excellent, but the wins column is still ticking over often enough to keep Abers in touch with the top four.

Currently six points off the pace, they really can't afford another loss.

So for the first time in a very long time, Adam Potter and his men are in the hot-seat in the lead-up to finals.

MARIBYRNONG PARK v PASCOE VALE

Pascoe Vale's season is on the line.

After dropping three consecutive games by no less than five goals, the Panthers find themselves well off the finals pace and if they can't get their mojo back now, then it'll be yet another bitterly disappointing end to their season.

Their midfield stocks took a hit in the lead-up to last week's split round break, so Kyle Hardingham will be hopeful of welcoming back some key pieces against a star-studded Maribyrnong Park outfit.

Marby remains the competition's benchmark after a very consistent season to date.

After emerging unscathed from a four-week block against weaker opponents, Marby struggled to lift its game against Strathmore in Round 13.

That said, the Lions were only five points short with Scott Clarke, Daylan Kempster and James Breust all out of the side. The break came at a good time for both sides, so recent form might not be the best indicator for this one.

If Pascoe Vale is desperate enough, then it's certainly good enough, so Marby needs to match the Panthers for intensity from the get-go.

KEILOR v WEST COBURG

We all know there's a clear favourite here and making a genuine case for a West Coburg upset isn't easy.

After going down to Essendon Dousta Stars two weeks ago, the Burgers have now been beaten by every other Premier Division team since Round 6.

As a result, they're now well and truly in the relegation hot seat.

The silver lining is that the Burgers have a slightly easier run home than Doustas and the percentage gap is currently only 1.67.

So Digby Morrell has no choice but to somehow try and protect West Coburg's percentage.

There's no evidence to suggest that West Coburg can build percentage by scoring big, so don't expect any shoot-outs in their remaining fixtures.

Their only real option is to shut games down.

West Coburg does have the best points-against total of all the bottom four sides but at the other end the Burgers are well behind the other nine teams in points-for.

There isn't much room for error and the risk that comes with shutting the game down is that it could play right into Keilor's hands.

If anyone knows how to coach 'shutdown footy', it's Mick McGuane.

Hillside BYE

By TARA MURRAY (Star Weekly)

HILLSIDE v AIRPORT WEST

THIS is a must-win match for the Sharks as they look to stay in touch with the top four sides.

The Sharks took it up to Tullamarine on the weekend for three and a half quarters, before the Demons found another level late.

Raafat Rachrache was the Sharks' best, while Mitch Church kicked three goals in the loss.

The loss meant the Sharks slipped to fifth and are still without a win against the top three sides.

It doesn't get any easier here, coming up against the current ladder leader.

The Eagles had a similar match to the Sharks on the weekend, but they came out on the right side of it against Craigieburn.

Airport West kicked the last two goals of the game to get the win and hold onto top spot.

Daniel Sinnott and Lachlan Di Sebastiano were the best for the Eagles as they yet again showed they could get the points in close matches.

Another win here for the Eagles would all but seal a top two finish.

TULLAMARINE v EAST KEILOR

The Demons left it late to get the job done against Hillside, in what was a preview of what finals could be like.

Not for the first time, the Demons found another level late and this time knocked off another potential finalist.

Ryan Pretty kicked three goals, while Jack Kennedy starred in his return from suspension.

With results falling their way, only a couple of upset losses would see the Demons fall outside the top two.

The Cougars kept their small finals hopes alive with a good win against Jacana.

They got the jump early on and that was all that was needed to get the win, with Dion Hill and Scott Eldridge kicking four goals.

Sitting eight points outside the top four, the Cougars need to win every match in the run home.

With a favourable draw, this match is vital for the Cougars.

TAYLORS LAKES v JACANA

Taylor's Lakes is doing most things well as its looks to return to the finals.

The Lions are winning the games they should be winning and they're more than competitive against the top sides, so it's no surprise they've moved into the top four.

On Saturday, they had no troubles after quarter time in accounting for Westmeadows as they had 11 more scoring shots.

Rory Alexander continued his good run of form and kicked six goals in a best-on-ground performance.

He had good support from Rhys Deacon, who kicked four.

On paper, this is the last of the easy games for the Lions, so a win is important in the context of their season.

If Airport West beats Hillside, the Lions will have a six-point gap on the Sharks if they can win here.

It was a big week for the Jaguars with Robert Fletcher telling the club that he is not going to coach on next season.

The Jaguars had offered Fletcher a new contract, but being unsure whether he wanted to coach again, he decided to step down.

On the field they were competitive for three quarters against East Keilor, but a poor first quarter cost them.

Having played some good football for three quarters, the Jaguars will take some confidence into this week.

CRAIGIEBURN v OAK PARK

It was another case of close, but not close enough for Craigieburn against one of the top two sides.

The Eagles have been in every game against Airport West and Tullamarine but haven't been able to get the job done.

On Saturday, it was only in the dying minutes that Airport West got over the line.

For Craigieburn, Ben Fynch and Nathan Perrone were the standouts, but that wasn't enough.

The Eagles need to return to the winners' list this week, with a number of teams chasing finals spots.

They will take on a fresh Oak Park side that is coming off the bye.

The Kangaroos had been a little up and down before the bye... most recently going down to Taylors Lakes.

While still mathematically in the finals race, a top four finish is unlikely, but the Kangaroos can help shape the final four.

EAST SUNBURY v NORTHERN SAINTS

EAST Sunbury will be looking to exorcise some demons from its previous meeting with the Northern Saints.

It was a gloomy early June afternoon at Charles Mutton Reserve where the Thunder incurred numerous key injuries early in the game, restricting its rotations for most of the day against the division's most deadly offensive team.

The final margin was 109 points and it was only their second loss for the year.

A short time later, Steve Grey stepped down as coach.

It seemed as though East Sunbury's dream start to the season was about to unravel.

Their form expectedly took a turn for the worse as new coach Glenn Hopkins looked to steady the ship, and with back-to-back wins now on the board, now's the time for East Sunbury to pounce.

This is the first of three consecutive home games and with a maiden finals appearance now on the line, so the Thunder must make a statement this weekend.

They have the firepower to match the Northern Saints but in such a high-pressure game, the Saints' more experienced leaders will come to the fore.

It might be the biggest game in East Sunbury's short EDFL history, so let's see how the Thunder handles it.

MOONEE VALLEY v BURNSIDE HEIGHTS

This game has been moved to Hansen Reserve, Airport West.*

Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 is enjoying its best season since branching out of the old B-Grade competition in the middle of 2012.

The reason for that is we have expansion clubs such as Burnside Heights now putting together consistently good footy against the competition's well-established teams.

For the neutrals, the Bears' Round 10 radio game win over Moonee Valley was one of the highlights of the season.

And the fact it wasn't just a blip on the radar is indicative that Burnside Heights has finally come of age and can enter these sorts of games with genuine hopes of a win.

But despite Josh Covelli returning to the top of the division's goal kicking table with a lazy bag of eight last week, the Bears are still underdogs against Moonee Valley here.

The Fog had its third and final bye after close wins over Roxburgh Park and Coburg Districts and its four-game winning streak has probably gone under the radar.

Since that Round 10 loss, the Fog has been arguably the form team of the division.

The only potential obstacle could be the unfamiliar surrounds of Hansen Reserve, but luckily coach Shanon Carroll was Geoff Maddern's right-hand man at Airport West 12 months ago.

He knows Hansen Reserve very well, and so will Cory McGrath.

HADFIELD v COBURG DISTRICTS

Hadfield has done well to earn some respect through the middle portions of the season and the Hawks are giving some opposition sides some headaches.

So for Coburg Districts, it would be very unwise to take the Hawks lightly this weekend.

Districts has been the most fascinating team in the entire EDFL this season.

After a grand final berth in 2017 and with stars on every line led by a highly-respected senior coach, we were all expecting the Lions to be the division's benchmark this year.

But here we are in late July, scratching our heads as to how the Lions find themselves outside the top four.

Yet again they came close but failed to finish against Roxburgh Park last week, coughing up a commanding 28-point three-quarter time lead to go down by 17 at home.

It was the fifth winnable game the Lions have let slip this season, which is either just unlucky or indicative of a lack of finishing power late in games.

In their previous meetings, the Lions have taken their frustrations out on the Hawks and scored easy wins and while there's a good chance of that happening again, those previous two wins didn't exactly get the Lions' season back on track.

They just have to get a W and reset for a make-or-break run home that includes games against Burnside Heights (home), Northern Saints (away) and East Sunbury (home).

QUALIFYING FINALS

Burnside Heights v Sunbury Kangaroos
Pascoe Vale v Aberfeldie

ELIMINATION FINALS

Sunbury Lions v Keilor
Westmeadows v Strathmore

By JULIA MONTESANO

QUALIFYING FINAL 1 - BURNSIDE HEIGHTS v SUNBURY KANGAROOS

Sunday 12pm @ Keilor Reserve

ANOTHER intriguing match will kick off proceedings at Keilor Reserve as second and third on the ladder go head-to-head in a highly-anticipated clash.

Both teams have been dominant all season with some big wins to ensure that they kept their coveted top four spots.

Last time these two teams met was in Round 4 where the Bears came away with a massive 54-point win.

Expect a much closer contest this time round, as the Sunbury Kangaroos have won every game since Round 5 and would be keen to keep that winning streak alive.

The Kangaroos have beaten every side below them on the ladder this year so coming up against a formidable outfit like the Bears will be a big challenge, especially with captain, Kayla Ravanello in fine form in front of goal.

At the other end, Sunbury's Tara Crisp would be hoping to use her marking prowess to kick plenty of goals to earn a week off for her side.

QUALIFYING FINAL 2 - PASCOE VALE v ABERFELDIE

Sunday 2pm @ Keilor Reserve

Pascoe Vale has not put a foot wrong this season, finishing the season with a perfect unbeaten record.

This means that the Panthers come into this clash as favourites but Aberfeldie have been able to take it up to the best of the best, nearly coming away with a win against Burnside Heights during the season.

But with Siobhan Carlton dominating up forward, this could be a big challenge for Aberfeldie's solid defence.

Carlton has kicked 37 goals from 11 games this season and has finished on top of the goal kicking tally in the home and away season.

Thanks to great delivery from the likes of Aimee Whelan and Bridgette Aparo, the Panthers have been able to assert their dominance on plenty of games during the season.

Aberfeldie need to come into this game with the belief that it can cause an upset, as the players have shown that they have what it takes all season.

With the likes of Amy Starzer up forward and Olivia Madden running amok in midfield, the Panthers could be pushed in this game, making for an interesting battle.

ELIMINATION FINAL 1 - SUNBURY LIONS v KEILOR

Sunday 12pm @ Highgate Reserve - Oval 2

This match could be one of the closest of the weekend as both teams have battled their way into finals.

The Sunbury Lions have not quite been able to revisit their dominance of last year but showed very promising signs throughout the home-and-away season.

Without hardly any premierships players in their side, Keilor has done well to make it this far, showing the depth of its club.

Dianne Comport has had a solid season for the Lions, kicking 11 goals from seven games.

She would be hoping to have a dominant performance inside 50 again as Keilor is by no means an easy team to beat.

This is thanks to players like current captain, Christie Roberts and 2017 premierships captain, Emily Law.

The duo have been two of many consistent players at the Blues this season and would be keen to get their side over the line in a do-or-die clash.

ELIMINATION FINAL 2 - WESTMEADOWS v STRATHMORE

Sunday 2pm @ Highgate Reserve - Oval 2

In a knockout final, all eyes will be on Strathmore who come into this game as underdogs.

After a good run home, the Mores have been able to come into this finals series with plenty of confidence that they can topple the high-flying Tigers.

Westmeadows has been a tough outfit to come up against for any team, and this was proved in Round 11 when the Tigers held the ladder-leaders, Pascoe Vale goalless for the second half.

Danielle Linton's versatility could be key in this game as she has the capacity to play up forward and in defence, which could cause headaches for Strathmore.

But with a speedy midfield that includes the likes of Rebecca Said and Sally Portbury, the Tigers will need to be on their toes if they are to stop their run on the day.

Last time these two teams met was in Round 10 where Westmeadows secured an 80-point win.

But with the Mores winning two of their last three games of the home-and-away season, they would be hoping to push the Tigers all the way to the end.
