IN conjunction with AFL Victoria, the EDFL has nominated this weekend as White Ribbon Round.

White Ribbon is a national non-for-profit organisation whose purpose is to promote the prevention of violence against women in Australia by engaging men to make women's safety a man's issue too.

White Ribbon's vision is for a nation that respects women, and in which every woman can live in safety, free from all forms of men's abuse.

The EDFL and our clubs are committed to bringing awareness and assisting in raising funds for this important cause.

For further information please visit whiteribbon.org.au.

Already in 2018 there have been two fantastic examples where EDFL clubs have shown leadership in organising match day activities to support White Ribbon and promoting the prevention of violence against women.

On July 21 the Hillside Football Club hosted Tullamarine and used the day to highlight the important role women play in community football.

They asked their members to wear Black, White and Pink (instead of teal) for one weekend, which was reflected in the special jumper their players wore for that round.

What commenced as a traditional Ladies Game against the Glenroy Football Club has transformed into a celebration of women from Friday night until Sunday's final siren and was supported by all Hillside teams that played at home that weekend.

The EDFL supported the senior match by showcasing the female umpiring squad, selecting female field, boundary and goal umpires.

Nearly 200 people including players, coaches, club administrators and supporters took the White Ribbon Oath and the club produced a fantastic and powerful video for this.

Thanks also to the other EDFL clubs who supported the weekend: Tullamarine Football Club who supported the day through their Club, Senior, Reserves and U19.5 teams, Keilor Park Football Club who agreed to play an exhibition twilight women's game and embraced the day and the spirit of the day, and the Craigieburn Football Club Under 17 Division 1 boys team who joined the Hillside team in taking the White Ribbon Oath.

West Coburg Football Club hosted the Glenroy Football Club on June 23 at Coburg City Oval in a day focussed on supporting White Ribbon.

The West Coburg club have supported White Ribbon for a number of years, and dedicated this match following the tragic death of Eurydice Dixon in Princes Park 10 days earlier.

Both clubs, the EDFL and the full umpiring panel all participated in a moving pre-game ceremony.

The West Coburg Football Club are commended for their ongoing support of White Ribbon.

Good luck for the weekend.

WESTMEADOWS is hopeful Dane Swan will take the field for the club in 2019 after making two much-publicised appearances this year.

The 34-year-old gained a temporary clearance from the AFL to play for the Tigers in April.

An AFL agreement connected to a payout Swan received for a career-ending foot injury prevented him from playing more games for his junior club.

Westmeadows had engaged a QC to review the agreement in a bid to have Swan line up after he returned from the soccer World Cup in Russia.

But the Brownlow medallist has "pulled the pin" on attempting to play again this season, with the Tigers sitting in second-last spot on the Essendon Ford Division 1 ladder.

"I think the whole thing was about Dane wanting to play with Aaron (Ramsay) and Josh (Hale), his other cousin," Westmeadows coach Grant Smith said.

"Obviously we're not going to make finals so I think Dane's decided he'll give it a miss for this year and then go back at the AFL next year and see if he can get that clearance to have another crack at it.

Ramsay has been limited to four senior games this season because of persistent calf issues and Smith is hoping to have him on board as an assistant coach next year.

If that arrangement is ratified, it could help the club convince Swan to play on.

However, Swan was essentially stopped from playing football again at any level after he received a payout worth about $400,000 in 2016.

If Swan and his manager Liam Pickering decide to pursue the matter, it will be dealt with by the AFL.

"I wouldn't rule (Swan) out — I think he still wants to play footy," Smith said.

"If he does play, he'll play with us because I don't think he has options to play these celebrity games now because of the drama around his agreement.

"I think his only option is to have a kick really is with a local club where he's not getting paid and I don't think he'd do it anywhere else except down with us next year."

AFL spokesman Patrick Keane said last month the league had received no update that Swan may seek to play again.

GREENVALE v MARIBYRNONG PARK

- Radio Game

THESE two clubs are no strangers to big games but are probably more accustomed to them in mid-September as opposed to early August.

Both Greenvale and Maribymong Park have been shaky with their form but both sides have suffered personnel issues and as a result, neither has really put their best foot forward.

So this could well come down to who has the better complement of their best 22 out on the park.

Last week's list of outs for Maribymong Park included Caleb Vearing, Robbie Castello, Connor Maher, Sam O'Brien, Scott Clarke, Josh Pickess and Jake Byrush.

That's a lot of VFL and EDFL Interleague experience out of action.

Greenvale's injury woes have been well-documented as well, with Addam Maric (six games), Nick Parthenopoulos (six), Daniel Burns (eight), Courtenay Dempsey (two) and Ryan Townsend (four) all missing large chunks of the season.

Maric's clearly being managed while Dempsey returned last week but had little impact on restricted minutes against Aberfeldie.

The loser could well miss the final four, so it's nearly a virtual final where the fitter team will emerge victorious.

ABERFELDIE v ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS

Rivalry games often don't follow the script.

Back in Round 7 the first meeting between these two local foes certainly did pan out as expected, with Jayden Foster slamming through eight goals in a 123-point Aberfeldie win at Nipper Jordan Oval.

But 70 days is a long time in EDFL football.

Round 7 was the low-point of Douttas' season and since that gloomy late May afternoon, the Stars have been much better.

Relegation is now no longer fait accompli and they've done enough to lift themselves off the bottom of the ladder.

After two wins, their season now has a completely different complexion and they'll be primed for a big showdown against the arch enemy.

Aberfeldie will be very confident about its finals chances after a disciplined performance against Greenvale last week.

It was an even contribution across the board but to have premiership players Ryan Allan and Nic Cattapan return to the side and have an immediate impact will give Adam Potter plenty of confidence.

This will come down to depth, which is clearly in Aberfeldie's favour here.

PASCOE VALE v AVONDALE HEIGHTS

Pascoe Vale's naysayers were silenced last week.

After easily accounting for Maribymong Park last week, the Panthers now have the scalps of four of the five teams above them on the current ladder (Keilor is the exception).

Their run home includes each of the bottom four teams of the division, so that win over the Lions was vital, especially given the long list of key players that were missing at Monk Oval.

Some of Paccio's most dangerous playmakers stood up against Marby, including Matt Watson (four goals), Daniel Harris (three) and Eamonn Ogden.

That group alone is enough to overcome Avondale Heights, but if Lachie Hansen, Ben Ross or Giles Guest return this week, then Avondale Heights' already slim chances of a win will dwindle even further.

Luke Edwards and Scott Clouston need to have a big day in front of the sticks for the Heights to be any chance.

STRATHMORE v WEST COBURG

West Coburg's horror run of form might not get any better this weekend, because Strathmore is on a mission.

The Mores are an EDFL powerhouse but haven't been on Windy Hill on the last day of the season for four years.

Nathan Grima did last year lead his side to the hallowed turf for the first time in since their 2014 premiership, but the Mores were knocked out of the finals by Maribymong Park.

With the next generation of Strathmore stars now at his disposal, Grima is hellbent on taking his side back to the top and they have the right mix of youth and experience to maybe go all the way this year.

To do that a top two finish is vital.

A currently poor percentage could well keep them away from a second semi final berth, so the Mores would be wise not to let up against a struggling West Coburg outfit.

With Daniel Archer enjoying a solid day up forward, West Coburg played well at Keilor last week but couldn't keep up with the Blues the longer the game went.

Percentage could well be the deciding factor in the Burgers' fight to avoid relegation, so the final margin here is as important as the result itself.

KEILOR v GLENROY

Back in Round 7, Keilor was coming off back-to-back losses to Aberfeldie and Maribymong Park and sitting fourth on the ladder.

With key players out of the side, the Blues took their frustrations out on a helpless Glenroy outfit and the final margin ended up at 125 points.

The Blues haven't lost since, are now on an eight-game winning streak, and sit on top of the ladder as the premiership favourite with one month to go before the finals.

For Mick McGuane, the most pleasing thing about last week's win over West Coburg would have been the return of premiership duo Andrew Browne and Mick Tanner.

Add to that another outstanding performance from Nick O'Kearney and it's hard to look past Keilor as the team to beat right now in Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division.

That makes Glenroy's challenge nearly impossible, but they'll have a crack.

The Round 7 loss dented Glenroy's pride and it will be fresh in their minds come Saturday.

With nothing else to really play for, Glenroy will come out firing and play with freedom, which will hopefully provide for a good show at Joe Brown Oval.

By TARA MURRAY (Star Weekly)

EAST KEILOR v HILLSIDE

EAST Keilor will be looking to finish the year with some consistency after an up-and-down season.

After a strong middle part of the season, the Cougars have struggled against the top couple of sides in more recent times.

On Saturday, they were able to stick with Tullamarine for a half, before the Demons ran away with it.

Three Cougars, Matt Knight, Michael Galcin and Dion Hill, kicked two goals apiece while Chad Sir was named their best.

The Sharks are coming off their best win of the season, knocking off Airport West.

Having controlled the game in the first half, the Sharks finally showed it on the scoreboard in the second to run away with the win.

Jordan Sinclair and Mitch Church kicked three goals each, while Jeremy Hayes was named best with Joel Bonnici doing a good job on Tyson Young.

The result puts the Sharks' finals hopes back in their own hands as long as they keep winning.

The Sharks would favour themselves against the Cougars, despite only getting over the line by three points last time.

Nearly at full strength, the Sharks are starting to hit form at the right time of the year.

AIRPORT WEST v OAK PARK

Airport West let slip an opportunity to seal a top two spot with three rounds remaining, with an upset loss to Hillside.

With the Sharks still fighting for a finals spot, they came out firing and were able to comprehensively beat the Eagles.

The Eagles kicked just three goals in the second half, one of their lowest tallies for the year.

Clayton Rogers was named the Eagles' best in a performance that included three goals.

A win this week will seal the Eagles a top two spot and a double chance, but they can't take the Kangaroos lightly.

The Kangaroos put in a strong performance for three quarters against Craigieburn, before the Eagles found another level.

Sam Anchen, Brad Cox and Travis Anderson kicked three goals each, with Nathan Sciberras named their best.

With their finals hopes now shot, the Kangaroos will be playing for pride and could cause an upset.

CRAIGIEBURN v WESTMEADOWS

This is a must-win match for the Eagles as they look to seal up a top four spot.

With Hillside sitting two points behind the Eagles and Taylors Lakes, they can't afford a slip up.

On Saturday, they remained in the top four with a hard-fought win against Oak Park.

It took until the final quarter for the Eagles to break open the game with four goals to one.

Glenn Robertson kicked three goals for the Eagles, as Dean Limbach was again well-held.

Ryan Bongetti stood up strong when needed to help get the win.

They face a Westmeadows side that will come into the game fresh after having the bye.

The Tigers will be looking to end the season on a high, having struggled in the second part of the year.

Their hopes of pushing into the top four went down the drain a few weeks ago and they have lost their last four games.

JACANA v TULLAMARINE

In a round where no one in the top four plays each other, this match looks like the one that has the potential to be the biggest blowout.

It's a case of top versus bottom, but both sides have plenty to play for.

For the Demons they need to keep winning to stay on top, with a top two spot all but secured.

They enter this match on the back of an 18.10-118 to 10.11-71 win against East Keilor.

The Cougars were able to stick with the Demons for a half, before they kicked away for an easy win.

Brad Allen and Ryan Pretty kicked three each for the Demons, with Dean Bartrop named best-on-ground.

For the Jaguars, they are playing for pride and hoping to get a win to finish off a disappointing season.

On Saturday against Taylors Lakes, they yet again showed glimpses of being able to match it with the top sides and were only outscored by two goals in the second half.

Bryce Kimuliatis kicked four goals for the Jaguars, while Bryce Mall and Billy Morrison kicked three each.

Morrison was named the Jaguars' best.

NORTHERN SAINTS v MOONEE VALLEY

RIGHT now, this is a grand final preview for Strathmore Community Bank Division 2.

Moonee Valley is this week's ladder leader after a monstrous 87-point win over Burnside Heights where 14 different players kicked goals.

With five consecutive wins, the Fog is building toward yet another finals campaign but unlike previous years, should enter the post-season with genuine belief it can go all the way.

The team has been very well-led by Cory McGrath on the field and first-year coach Shanon Carroll on the sidelines.

McGrath's form might even be worthy of a medal come awards season.

But in the Valley's way is a team like the Northern Saints, who have managed to increase their already impressive firepower with the recent inclusion of Alex Stewart, who in just four games already has 13 goals to his name.

The Saints' are in hot form themselves and aside from a minor blip against Burnside Heights, have proven to be one of the most consistent performers of the division through the middle portions of the season.

It was a notably low-scoring affair at Ormond Park back in Round 11 and if this game is similar then it'll play into the Fog's hands, so the Saints will be looking for a shoot-out.

It'll be a game of chess.

EAST SUNBURY v ROXBURGH PARK

This is the most unpredictable game of the round.

These are the two main challengers to the teams above and with a full month of home-and-away footy still to come, a top two finish is still on the table for both East Sunbury and Roxburgh Park.

Both have looked like the premiership favourite at different stages this year but their respective dips in form have revealed plenty of vulnerabilities as well.

We all know bad kicking is bad footy and both the Thunder and Magpies have had their woes in front of the sticks this year.

Around the ground it's an even match-up, with a slight midfield edge to East Sunbury and a scoring power advantage for the Magpies.

So, on what is forecast to be a very windy day at Lancefield Road, this could well come down to goal kicking.

Whoever is smarter with their forward entries and cleaner in front of goal will emerge victorious.

The loser will likely kiss their top two chances goodbye, so plenty is on the line.

BURNSIDE HEIGHTS v HADFIELD

The Bears had a stinker last week.

On neutral turf at Airport West's Hansen Reserve, the Bears found themselves completely outgunned by a Moonee Valley side looking to secure a top two finish come the end of August. Burnside Heights can be prone to conceding big scores and on a handful of occasions this year, the Bears haven't been able to keep up in shoot-out type games.

Josh Covelli is certainly pulling his weight, but the help is still lacking.

Covelli has accounted for more than a third of Burnside Heights' total goals tally for 2018.

While that'll likely earn him more personal accolades in the Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 Team of the Year and possibly the division's home-and-away goal kicking title, it's not exactly Burnside Heights' ideal scenario offensively.

Coming up against a confident Hadfield outfit that did win this match-up in Round 11, it's important for Aidan Stott to identify more avenues to goal as he looks to prepare for Season 2019. Hadfield stayed with Coburg Districts for a half last week before falling away late at Martin Reserve.

They have been far better in the second half of the year than they were in the first and given the Hawks have top four opposition still to come in their run home, this is their grand final. There's nothing but pride on the line, so expect an entertaining contest at Bear Force One.

PRELIMINARY FINALS

Pascoe Vale v Sun. Kangaroos or Sun. Lions
Burnside Heights v Aberfeldie or Westmeadows

By JULIA MONTESANO

SEMI FINAL 1 - ABERFELDIE v WESTMEADOWS
Sunday 2pm @ Lionheart Reserve

ABERFELDIE has been one of the surprise packets of the year, with the new EDFL Women's outfit sliding into the top four.

This gives the Gorillas a valuable second chance after a heavy 59-point loss against minor premier, Pascoe Vale.

While they only got two points on the board against the Panthers, Amber Wescombe and Alicia Reivers put on promising performances and would be keen to perform well again against a formidable Tigers outfit.

Another new team in the competition, Westmeadows has been one of the more dominant outfits in EDFL Women's and nearly took fourth spot off the Gorillas.

Emily Brebner was convincing in the Tigers' win over the Mores last week with two goals while Jacinta Scott and Tylah Evans also played wonderful games.

Both teams have enjoyed an even contribution from a variety of players throughout the season, so it will be interesting to see which players step up in the big clash.

Keep in mind last time these two teams met, Aberfeldie escaped with a six-point win, so this game could go either way.

SEMI FINAL 2 - SUNBURY KANGAROOS v
SUNBURY LIONS
Sunday 2pm @ Canning Reserve

The Sunbury Kangaroos would come into this game with a fierce sense of hunger after falling narrowly short of Burnside Heights last week.

The Kangaroos led for most of the game but a late Bears goal cost them a valuable week off and of course, a defeat against one of the most dangerous sides in the competition.

But they face another dangerous side this week in cross-town rivals, the Sunbury Lions.

The script couldn't have been written any better, as both Sunbury sides will fight for a coveted spot in a Preliminary Final against Pascoe Vale.

The midfield battle will be highlighted by Kangaroos duo, Tylah Bell and Bailee Said going up against gun Lion, Simone Craige.

Up forward, expect a big game from Tara Crisp, who didn't get on the scoreboard against the Bears and would therefore be keen to do so on Sunday.

The Lions would be keen to quell her influence like the Bears did last week and are capable of doing so, after holding Keilor to just 14 points in the Elimination Final.

While they only escaped with a narrow win against the Blues, you can ensure that the Lions still have plenty in their tank to give it their all in a must-win clash.
