THIS Sunday will be a historic day with the inaugural EDFL Women's Grand Final as a stand-alone competition. We eagerly await to see which club takes home the first EDFL Women's premiership cup and flag.

Whilst there was some uncertainty leading into the 2018 season, everyone was very excited when the Keilor Football Club hosted Strathmore on Good Friday, and the remaining EDFL Women's teams commenced the following weekend.

A 13-team competition was always going to provide diversity in results, however it was pleasing to see every team recorded at least one win during the year.

It is somewhat ironic that the first EDFL Women's Grand Final will be played between the Pascoe Vale Football Club, who are celebrating their 100th year in 2018, and the Burnside Heights Football Club, being the most recent addition to the EDFL senior football competition.

Pascoe Vale defeated Burnside Heights by 13 points when they met in late May, however that was the only defeat either team has had during the home-and-away and finals series. Clearly both teams are very strong and in great form leading into the grand final.

As with all of our senior men's competitions, it was important that the EDFL Women's Grand Final be played at Windy Hill. Windy Hill is the site of decades of history and memories of amazing EDFL grand finals, and it will be fantastic to have the senior women create their mark.

We also consider our Division 1 junior boy's competitions as a showcase of EDFL football talent and have a very strong desire to provide them with the opportunity to play grand finals at Windy Hill. With multiple users of the Windy Hill ground, we need to be flexible in scheduling our finals, and it was tremendous that we were able to accommodate both the junior boys Division 1 and EDFL Women's grand finals on Sunday.

There have been many learnings gained throughout 2018 and we are already looking forward to seeing how our senior women's football competition looks in 2019. From an EDFL perspective the composition of the 13 teams in senior women's football this year has provided a broad cross section of our league. Looking at the EDFL Women's teams through a lens of our senior men's competition shows a diversity of clubs:

- five women's teams from clubs in Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division
- three women's teams from clubs in Essendon Ford Division 1
- three women's teams from clubs in Strathmore Community Bank Division 2
- two clubs who do not have senior men's teams playing in the EDFL

It is also encouraging to see that the 13 clubs cover the full geographic footprint of our EDFL competition, and includes long-term, well-established clubs, and our newer clubs.

Good luck for the weekend.

By LUKE D'ANELLO
(via Moreland Leader)

DIGBY Morrell will depart West Coburg at season's end after five years at the helm as it fights to retain its place in Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division.

Morrell steered the Burgers to the 2014 Division 1 flag, with the club winning 16 games over the past four seasons in the top flight. The players were informed of Morrell's decision last week.

West Coburg sits in ninth spot on the Premier Division ladder with a 2-14 record, having lost its past 11 games.

The Burgers are equal on points with 10th-placed Essendon Doutta Stars.

"His contribution has been fantastic," West Coburg president David Gloury said.

"The level of professionalism he's brought to the club and also the respect he brings to the table given his profile, I think he's been more than just a senior coach.

"He's got involved in every aspect of our club, been instrumental in changing our junior program and the focus of our junior coaches.

"In the last 50 years he's been our longest serving coach, so that's testament to the type of bloke and coach he is.

"He'll be sorely missed."

Gloury said Morrell, who played 72 games for North Melbourne and Carlton at AFL level, was likely to coach elsewhere.

Morrell previously coached Strathmore for five seasons and led it to the 2011 Premier Division flag.

"Digby is looking for potentially a new opportunity, a new challenge, and he's really focused on trying to leave us in the best possible position he can over the remaining three games," Gloury said.

"He's not 100 per cent certain what he'll do. He's obviously going to field some offers and he's already had other clubs, as he has in previous years, contact him.

"I'm certain if he's not coaching next year, he'll coach the year after.

"He'll bob up again and he loves his footy."

Gloury said the club wanted to lock in Morrell's successor "sooner rather than later".

"I think it's important to our existing players, supporters and members," he said.

"Like most clubs, if not all clubs, we're already looking at 2019 and recruiting. Having a coach in place will be instrumental to that process.

"But we need to get the right person for the job."

The Burgers are confident most of their squad will remain intact, with several already contracted for 2019.

They will focus on bolstering their top-end talent in the off-season.

MARIBYRNONG PARK v ABERFELDIE

MARIBYRNONG Park's hard run home continues here with Aberfeldie looking to lock itself into another finals series.

The Gorillas are on a three-game winning streak and can't afford to let up now, because a loss here more than likely rules out a top two finish.

With some top-liners missing, they were able to take care of business last week against Glenroy with a 12-goal-to-two second half.

Given Marby's recent woes, Aberfeldie will be feeling good about its chances here, even if it is without some best-22 players come Saturday afternoon.

The Lions are just about shot, yet still have a tiny chance of making finals.

But the signs aren't looking good, as their four-game losing streak has come against the better sides of the division.

The healthier Aberfeldie should get up.

GREENVALE v KEILOR

The Jets should end up in the final four but need some help to get into the top two come the end of Round 18.

A loss here makes it hard.

The Jets did what they had to do at Coburg City Oval last week but it wasn't exactly the most convincing of victories.

Brett Stillman was best-on-ground with three goals and Jacob Thompson played his part with two, but the nature of the 38-point win showed that maybe Greenvale's depth isn't quite good enough to take the Jets all the way.

Coming up against the form team of the division, it's hard to pinpoint how an undermanned Greenvale can beat a Keilor side that is seemingly getting better by the week.

Losing gun mid Nick O'Kearney didn't hamper the Blues at Maribyrnong Park last week, so why would it here against comparable opposition?

AVONDALE HEIGHTS v WEST COBURG - Radio Game

It looks as though percentage could well decide who goes down to Essendon Ford Division 1.

If West Coburg does manage to snare a win... or even draw in this upcoming fortnight, then it could be enough to ensure survival.

The Burgers do have a more favourable run home than Essendon Doutta Stars and of the four combined games in question, this is the one that looks the most winnable for either club.

Last week West Coburg was never really in the hunt against Greenvale but stayed close enough to rise above Douthas on the ladder.

Omar Saad and Ruairi Cleary both kicked two goals while Daniel Archer and Setanta Macaodha played their roles despite the loss.

While their form has been ordinary, there are enough good players at Digby Morrell's disposal to do some damage here.

If they can put it together for long enough then the Burgers might be able to get it done here.

It's important they see off the departing Morrell on a good note, and not with relegation.

Avondale Heights was good against Strathmore last week with Tom Russell and Luke Edwards combining for four goals.

Losing Tom Jeffries to VFL duties didn't help their cause but prime movers Ciaran Sheehan and Mathew Cravino stood tall.

On balance the Heights have a better complement of talent, but a desperate West Coburg outfit that's fighting for Premier Division survival will be sure to throw everything at this one.

This is sneakily the best game of the round.

PASCOE VALE v GLENROY

Glenroy would love nothing more than to eliminate its local rival from finals contention.

But the Roys' form against finals contenders hasn't been great this year and the fact they went down by 89 points to the Panthers back in Round 8 doesn't bode well here.

Matthew Watson booted nine goals and Gavin Urquhart chipped in with six with Lachie Hansen out of the line-up on that day.

So with similar personnel here, the Panthers will be feeling good about their prospects.

There are two factors playing to Pascoe Vale's advantage in their quest for an unlikely finals berth.

One is their soft run home (Glenroy and West Coburg), while the other is their somewhat healthy percentage of 133.33.

But that percentage is still 4.8 per cent lower than that of Maribymong Park's, so the Panthers will be keen to get their skates on and kick another big score on Glenroy's leaky back line.

STRATHMORE v ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS

About a month or so ago, we were quite bullish about Essendon Doutta Stars.

After a shocking start to the season, their form had come good and it culminated with important wins over West Coburg and Avondale Heights.

But that momentum has now come to a halt, with successive heavy losses to Aberfeldie and Pascoe Vale.

They were quite disappointing last week against the Panthers, only managing to muster four goals on home soil.

Their prospects of a third win have dwindled dramatically and with a very hard run home that includes Strathmore this week and Greenvale next week, Douttas might end up relegated after all. Strathmore was tested by Avondale Heights last week but had enough character to still get the win.

It was their sixth win in a row, with Hamish McIntosh (three goals) and Alex Grima (two) stepping up in key moments.

A big enough win here will go close to guaranteeing a top two finish, so don't expect the Mores to pull any punches here.

It could get ugly.

By TARA MURRAY (Star Weekly)

AIRPORT WEST v TULLAMARINE

ON paper this is set down to be a cracker of a game, but how it plays out is anyone's guess.

With both sides already knowing that they will face each other in the first week of finals, the only thing on the line is whether they want to finish on top or not.

Demons coach Dave Connell said earlier in the week they would play it safe in the final round and not take any risks.

They did that against Taylors Lakes in their most recent game, icing up players at quarter time.

Despite not having a bench after quarter time, the Demons were able to have a big win and end Taylors Lakes' finals hopes.

Connell said the first three quarters were some of the best football they had played. Youngster Tim Matson stood up, along with Will Becker.

The Eagles will also enter the match in good form, with their forward line again having a day out.

Alex Penaluna kicked another bag, as 10 players hit the scoreboard.

Kris Briggs, who kicked four goals, was named their best.

After kicking more than 170 points in each of the last two games, the Eagles would have defenders worried.

TAYLORS LAKES v CRAIGIEBURN

In what could have been an early elimination final if results had have fallen the right way, it still looks like and interesting final round match.

For the Lions, they needed to defeat Tullamarine to keep their finals hopes alive.

While they could finish on the same amount of points as Craigieburn, their percentage will be an issue and they won't be able to overtake them.

The Lions were no match for the undermanned Demons, only winning the last quarter as the Demons ran out of legs.

Matthew Dalla Libera and Christopher Vulic were named the best.

The Eagles didn't even have to kick a ball on the weekend to seal their spot, having had the bye.

They'll want to finish the regular season on a high and get some good form heading into finals.

EAST KEILOR v WESTMEADOWS

With not much on the line for either of these sides, it's about finishing the season on a high.

Overall, both teams would be disappointed with their seasons and ladder positions.

East Keilor would be disappointed after not coming away with the points against Oak Park in a very winnable match.

The third quarter proved to be the difference, with five goals to two giving the Kangaroos enough breathing space.

James Philpot kicked six goals for the Cougars, while Nathan Kennedy was named their best.

Westmeadows proved no match for an Airport West side that has hit its straps at the right time of the year.

Dean Clare was the standout up forward for the Tigers kicking six goals.

Leigh Owen was named best for the Tigers for a second straight week.

JACANA v OAK PARK

This is the last opportunity for the Jaguars to get a win.

After a tough season in the higher grade, the Jaguars will be looking to finish on a high and send coach Robert Fletcher off on a good note.

The Jaguars were left to rue a poor first half against Hillside on Saturday.

The Sharks led by 40 points at half time, but only outscored the Jaguars by 13 points in the second half.

For the Kangaroos it's another chance to get a win on the board and maybe move up a ladder position.

It's a match the Kangaroos are expected to win and would give them two wins in a row to finish the season.

They were able to do enough to account for East Keilor by nine points.

Aden Harris was the key up forward for the Kangaroos, kicking six goals in a best-on-ground performance.

NORTHERN SAINTS v COBURG DISTRICTS

IT'S been a disappointing season for Coburg Districts.

But with pride on the line and an opportunity to defeat the high-flying Saints, the Lions will be keen to get over the line in the closing stages of the season.

They will especially be hoping that the Vesnaver brothers can continue their fine form in front of goal, as this will be crucial in matching the Northern Saints' attacking style of football.

Last time these two sides went head-to-head, it was the Saints who got on top with a 12-point win.

Coburg Districts could challenge the Saints again and the home ground advantage might not be all that beneficial for the Saints, who have won four and lost four at Charles Mutton this year.

Additionally, both teams have won three out of their last five games, so form lines haven't favoured either side in this match-up.

However, expect Northern to put all that aside and come out firing in the hope of securing a handy win to go into finals on a high note.

ROXBURGH PARK v BURNSIDE HEIGHTS

Coming off three consecutive wins puts the Magpies in a good position to continue their streak and knock off the ever-improving Bears.

Burnside Heights has claimed some big scalps this year, including ladder-leaders Moonee Valley, and is coming off another big win against Coburg Districts.

The Bears have now defeated last year's grand finalists twice this year and will be looking to spoil the finals party for Roxburgh Park.

This happened last time these two teams met, as the Bears claimed a thrilling three-point win in Round 13.

Since then, the Bears have won three of their last five games, as have the Magpies, so this match is actually pretty even on paper.

Despite a discrepancy in ladder position, expect both teams to come out firing in the hopes of ending their seasons on a high.

HADFIELD v MOONEE VALLEY

After a win over the Northern Saints followed by a loss to East Sunbury, Moonee Valley would be hoping to return to scintillating form against Hadfield.

In a classic top-versus-bottom clash, expect the Fog to come out firing in a hope to boost their percentage at the top of the table.

Although the Hawks sit on just one win for the season, they have shown promising signs in the last couple of weeks.

They went down to the in-form Bears by just 24 points in Round 18 and went down to the finals-bound Magpies by a similar margin last week.

If Hadfield can prevent an early onslaught, then it may be able to spoil Moonee Valley's hopes of claiming a big win.

With pride on the line for the Hawks, it could be a danger game for Moonee Valley if it takes the foot off the pedal on Saturday.

GRAND FINAL

Pascoe Vale v Burnside Heights

By JULIA MONTESANO

PASCOE VALE v BURNSIDE HEIGHTSSunday 3pm @ Windy Hill

LAST time these two teams met, the margin was only 13 points.

This is the one of the closest games that Pascoe Vale have been involved in all season, proving that the Bears are up to the challenge in what will be a marvellous game at Windy Hill.

Burnside Heights has experienced some challenges this finals series though, winning both games by a combined margin of six points.

Meanwhile, Pascoe Vale has won both of its games by a combined margin of 104 points, highlighting the Panthers' forward line depth.

Not only has Siobhan Carlton lit it up inside 50 this year, she has been complemented by majors throughout the year from players like Sarah Theuma and Elana Lilla.

The trio have been aided by wonderful delivery from the midfield brigade with Emily Bof, Aimee Whelan and Bridgette Aparo all using the ball with class throughout the season.

Aparo in particular will be a key player in this match, as she was a standout last time these two teams met and has been a class above all season.

Her opposing skipper, Kayla Ravanello has also been impressive this season, kicking 37 goals from 14 games.

Ravanello can also make an impact higher up the ground, not just playing as a deep forward, which could be a scary prospect for the likes of Cara Matsa and Rebecca Foggie in the Panthers' back line.

Like Carlton, Ravanello too has some excellent contributors by her side inside 50 with Maria Afuhamango and Maddison Cooper getting among the goals throughout the season.

Afuhamango's dash inside 50 will be something to keep an eye out for the Panthers, as she was instrumental up forward for the Bears last week.

Another player to watch out for will be Krissy Trang, whose dash across the field is simply electrifying and can break the lines open.

With key players left, right and centre in this game, we are set for a grandstand finish to what has been a magnificent inaugural season of EDFL Women's.
