LAST weekend saw the conclusion of junior football for Season 2018. We were delighted that this year we had 327 junior teams playing Australian Rules football in the EDFL. This comprised 264 junior boy's teams competing from under 9 through to under 17, and 63 junior girl's teams competing from under 9 through to under 18. This represents 44 more teams than played in the EDFL in 2017.

To allow these girls and boys to enjoy playing our great game every weekend, we thank their parents, coaches, team managers, thousands of volunteers and club administrators. All sports competitions and teams rely on generous people who volunteer their time and this year has been no different.

Recently we announced the results of the junior competition best-and-fairest awards for 2018. Winning an EDFL competition best-and-fairest award is an outstanding achievement and we pass on our congratulations to all winners and runners-up. A complete list of every vote from all junior competitions is available on our website.

It was encouraging and rewarding to note that the best-and-fairest award winners represented 26 different EDFL clubs across the junior boy's and girl's competitions.

A key component of our junior football program are the umpires. This year we had over 240 umpires on our junior panel who went out each weekend and contributed to our junior football. Like the players and coaches, our umpires train and perform each week hoping to be rewarded with the opportunity to umpires finals matches and a grand final. Congratulations to those umpires who were selected for grand finals.

I had the opportunity to attend the EDFL junior umpires presentation night in the lead into the final week of the junior season. Leaving the function I felt confident in our future having seen and heard the quality of these umpires. It was a fantastic night with special guest ex-AFL field umpire Steve McBurney, who shared his junior umpiring experience as well as umpiring in four AFL grand finals.

And finally, congratulations to the players, coaches and volunteers who enjoyed the success of winning a junior EDFL premiership in 2018. I was fortunate to watch many grand finals and witnessed some excellent football and great matches. All clubs are to be commended for the spirit in which the matches were played.

It was fantastic to see that across both boy's and girl's competitions, 21 different clubs took home an EDFL premiership cup this year.

Good luck for the weekend.

PASCOE Vale made history at Windy Hill on Sunday when it claimed a 55-point win over Burnside Heights.

A five-goal-to-none second quarter opened the floodgates for the undefeated Panthers to continue their reign, despite captain, Bridgette Aparo not playing and leading goal kicker, Siobhan Carlton failing to register a major.

Jessica George stood up in their place, winning the best-on-ground medal, which was awarded by the umpires.

The Panthers lost the toss and kicked to the Napier Street end, where goals were at a premium in a day of miserable conditions.

That didn't seem to faze them though, as they scored the opening goal, courtesy of Lisa Kirby, to take a seven-point lead into quarter time after a tight first term.

Enter Sarah Theuma.

The star forward turned the game on its head, kicking three consecutive goals in four minutes to begin the second term.

One goal in particular generated plenty of crowd noise, as Theuma threaded the needle on the boundary line in what was a marvellous goal.

The second-term goals didn't stop there though, as Lessey Hodgkinson got on the board seven minutes later.

Midfielder, Aimee Whelan also got on the board late in the quarter, which acted as a reward for her efforts in the stoppages.

The forwards may have to thank Sarah Larkings for their dominance, as she was able to repel the ball magnificently off half-back and penetrate it forward.

This gave the Bears no chance to enter their forward 50 and consequently, they went into the main break with a 40-point deficit. To begin the third quarter, Krissy Trang continued to dominate for Burnside Heights, often accumulating the ball on the outside and using her speed and smarts to evade opponents.

She had an enthralling battle against Rebecca Foggie, whose long kicks and strong hands allowed the Panthers to pile the pressure onto the Bears.

One Bear in particular who was feeling the pressure was captain, Kayla Ravanello.

In her 50th game, she struggled to make an impact but played the team role when she needed to, often rotating through the midfield and the forward line to help her team gain some momentum.

On the Pacco side of things, EDFL Women's Team of the Year centre-half back, Emma Westgarth kicked the only goal of the quarter, allowing her side to increase its lead to 49 points at the last break.

Trang and teammate, Maria Afuhaamango continued to try hard for their side in the last quarter, going in hard to win the ball.

Sina Mason was one of the Bears' best, accumulating plenty of the ball and consistently going in hard to win it.

But Jessica George's long kicks and ability to find and create space caused headaches for the Bears, making it impossible to gain any territory during the game.

Up forward, it was Sarah Theuma who scored early in the last term to take her goal kicking tally to four for the day.

She was complemented by some good delivery from Abigail Storer, whose ball use was sublime and played a huge part in the thumping win.

Theuma's goal extended the final margin to 55 points, and saw the Panthers become the first EDFL Women's premiers.

WORK commitments have forced East Keilor star Ash Arrowsmith to step down from the top job after two years in charge at the Essendon Ford Division 1 club.

Arrowsmith and Nick Grigg took over as co-coaches in 2017 after the club earned promotion following its Division 2 premiership triumph.

Grigg walked out on the Cougars in June, crossing to Riddell District league outfit Rupertswood.

East Keilor president Geoff Nicholl said Arrowsmith was offered the opportunity to continue as coach.

"He's just started a family and taken over his father's business, so he's under the pump a bit," Nicholl said.

"He's said if he's going to be playing anywhere (in 2019), he'll be playing at East Keilor.

"He said the work commitments are starting to get too much for him."

The Cougars finished sixth with a 6-10 record after a fruitful off-season of recruiting.

But it was hit hard by injury and ended the year four games behind fourth-ranked Craigieburn.

Matthew Knight, Tom Gleeson, Dion Hill, David House, Tom Madden, Michael Licciardo and James Philpot were among the additions.

"Every club's got injuries, but we seem to have got more than enough this year," Nicholl said

"He (Arrowsmith) has given opportunity to the young ones coming up as well. We've blooded a fair few under-19s through the senior side and given them a taste of it. That's been pretty positive.

"It's a good (job) for a new coach to take on, especially with the young juniors and under-19s coming through."

Nicholl said the search for a new coach would start immediately. Skipper Vince Madaffari and Hill headline those who have resigned for next season.

"The key players and the leadership group, I've already spoken to them and they've given me a verbal commitment," Nicholl said.

"It's just a matter of getting it on paper."

Aberfeldie v Strathmore

West Coburg v Pascoe Vale (CCO)

Glenroy v Maribyrnong Park

Essendon Dousta Stars v Greenvale

Keilor v Avondale Heights

By ADEM SARICAUGLU

ABERFELDIE v STRATHMORE

THIS is clearly the biggest game of the round, as the winner will at the very least finish higher on the ladder.

With Keilor and Greenvale expected to win elsewhere, it's going to be hard for Aberfeldie to sneak into the top two.

It'll therefore be interesting to see how Adam Potter approaches this.

Does Aberfeldie go all out and hope either Avondale Heights or Essendon Doutta Stars do them a favour, or do they self-preserve ahead of a knock-out Semi Final at Windy Hill on the first Sunday of September?

If it's the former then Strathmore's in for a hard day, because the reigning premier has arguably been the form team of the division over the last month, including strong wins over Greenvale and Maribyrnong Park.

Strathmore has won seven straight but haven't been overly convincing in their recent close wins over Avondale Heights and Essendon Doutta Stars.

A win should be enough to guarantee a top two finish but a loss will see them slip to fourth, which would result in another date with Aberfeldie as the away team at Windy Hill in the following weekend's knock-out semi.

If the rumours of some potential injuries to key players are true, then it could be telling.

This week's edition of EDFL Teams will make for interesting reading on essendondfl.com.au.

WEST COBURG v PASCOE VALE

The Burgers shot themselves in the foot after a promising start to their game against Avondale Heights last week.

Omar Saad's two first quarter goals helped kick-start West Coburg but all their momentum came to a quick halt once they had to start kicking into the wind in the second.

Outgoing coach Digby Morrell was left bitterly disappointed as his side failed to regain control, eventually going down by 45 points after conceding 11 goals to two after quarter time.

It left the Burgers in last place and .80 per cent below Essendon Doutta Stars.

So if both the Burgers and Stars get the same result, then percentage will decide who goes down.

In what will be Morrell's last game with the club, the young Burgers need to save their best for last in order to avoid relegation, because Pascoe Vale won't hold back.

The Panthers made light work of their local rival, Glenroy, last week, in a game that turned out to be a dead rubber.

With finals now mathematically out of their equation, Pascoe

Vale is free to inflict as much damage onto another local rival as possible.

Kyle Hardingham and his men would love nothing more than to send their neighbours back down to Essendon Ford Division 1 and with the star power of Matt Watson, Dean Soncin, Eamonn Ogden and the Ross brothers all on the park, they should have far too much firepower here.

ESSENDON DOUTTA STARS v GREENVALE

The scenario here is very similar to that of the game above but with one key difference; the favourite still has something to play for.

Greenvale welcomed both Marics and Nat Caruso back into its side last week and it paid immediate dividends, with the Jets managing to hand Keilor its first loss since Round 6.

It was a reminder that Greenvale's top-end talent is as good as anyone's.

As long as they can stay healthy, the Jets will be in the premiership conversation.

Second spot is up for grabs but the Jets find themselves in the unusual position of barracking for Aberfeldie.

Providing Greenvale looks after its own backyard here against Douttas, the Jets will jump to second if Aberfeldie beats Strathmore.

But if Strathmore gets up, then percentage will keep Greenvale stranded in third.

Therefore the margin here is very important for both sides.

You do have to be careful in handing Greenvale the win because earlier in the year this game came down to the wire at Section Road.

But assuming the Jets will win, then it's important they win well, not only to give themselves a shot at the top two, but to help sink Douttas back down to Essendon Ford Division 1.

Douttas scrapped hard against Strathmore.

Do they have the energy to do that again for one last time here?

KEILOR v AVONDALE HEIGHTS

Keilor was handed a reality check last week up at Greenvale, which could work one of two ways.

It was either a loss the Blues had to have in the lead-up to finals or a sign that things could start to unravel.

They've already lost Nick O'Kearney for the year but now they have a new headache concerning David Gourdis, who earlier in the week was found guilty of umpire contact and handed a four-week suspension.

If those four weeks stand, then his season is over.

Please note an appeal was lodged prior to this publication going to print. The appeal hearing occurred after print deadline.*

If Keilor wins this then the minor premiership is theirs, and all things being equal, they will.

A draw between Aberfeldie and Strathmore is the only way the Blues can slip out of the top two if they lose, so there's no point in taking any major risks.

But given some personnel adjustments may be required, this is Mick McGuane's last chance to get his team balance right for September.

Avondale Heights will give the Blues a good test after displaying some good form in decent outings against Strathmore and West Coburg.

While their season is over, the Heights will take a lot of pride in potentially putting a dent into Keilor's premiership hopes with an upset here at Joe Brown Oval.

This is the only game of the round with nothing on the line.

Maribyrnong Park's second half of the year has been bitterly disappointing after a promising start that had the Lions on top of the ladder on a near-weekly basis.

Injuries to key players, including a serious neck injury to star interleague rep Caleb Vearing, have de-railed Marby's year and now the club has to re-group for 2019.

Glenroy is in a somewhat similar boat, as it too is in 2019 mode.

The Roys have also been quite ordinary late in the year and didn't really give much of a yelp at Raeburn Reserve last week.

But knowing both Ross Terranova and Robbie Castello as I do, neither will be resting on their laurels here.

This will be a fast, free-flowing game of footy and it'll be played with plenty of spirit.

It's amazing how a final-round win can give you momentum leading into the next pre-season.

SEMI FINALS 25-26 August

Airport West v Tullamarine

Hillside v Craigieburn

By TARA MURRAY (Star Weekly)

SEMI FINAL 2 - AIRPORT WEST v TULLAMARINE Saturday 2:15pm @ Greenvale Recreation Reserve

THE two best teams all season will fittingly play off for a grand final spot.

The Eagles and Demons have been above the pack for most of the season, with both sides able to find another level when needed.

They got a look at each other in the final round, but how much you can take from that game is questionable.

The Demons had 12 changes to their squad, with David Connell telling local media that the result was irrelevant.

The Eagles themselves also had a few changes.

They got the jump early with nine scoring shots to two in the first quarter and had a 32-point lead at quarter time.

That lead would be a match-winning one.

Bior Malual and Ryan Pretty kicked three goals each for their respective teams.

Luke Ryan was named best-on-ground for the Eagles, with Jack Burns again leading the way for the Demons.

The win though did hand the minor premiership to Airport West.

The Eagles have now won six of their last seven with a slip up against Hillside, which secured their finals spot.

The Demons have a similar record, with their only loss during that time being the one to the Eagles.

While there isn't much to take out of last week's game, the other match between the side's back in Round 9 saw the Demons win by 70 points.

The Demons kicked 13 goals to three after quarter time.

SEMI FINAL 1 - HILLSIDE v CRAIGIEBURN Sunday 2:15pm @ Windy Hill

For much of the season, it's been a battle between three sides for the last two spots in the top two with Hillside and Craigieburn coming out on top.

The Sharks, who have got better as the season has gone along, enter the game on the back of a bye.

Injuries hurt them earlier in the year, but with closer to a full side the Sharks have found form.

Their win against Airport West, which really helped set up their season, is evident of that.

The Sharks, though, haven't been able to beat Craigieburn.

The sides played back in Round 1 and then again in Round 10, with the Eagles getting comfortable wins both times.

One key for the Sharks is whether Brandon Coletta plays.

The Eagles have looked like a finals side for most of the season.

They made a statement in Round 1 that they meant business and have showed that all season.

They enter the finals on the back of a loss to Taylors Lakes, which ended up behind them only on percentage.

The Eagles had little to play for in the final round, but Dean Limbach kicked three goals, his highest return in a month, while Nicholas Watts was named their best.

By JULIA MONTESANO

MOONEE VALLEY v ROXBURGH PARK

THIS is a potential Grand Final preview.

If Roxburgh Park wins this game, it could slide into the top two, thanks to a superior percentage.

Last time these sides met, it was the Fog who got the win in blustery conditions.

The Magpies were inaccurate, kicking 4.15 for the day and would want to ensure that their fortunes change in this match.

This could be helped by the absence of dominant duo, Braden Padmore and Jordan Faba from the Moonee Valley side.

This gives license to players like Harley Short and Luke Capuano to capitalise on this absence in the midfield and inside 50.

But the Fog's depth could come to hurt Roxburgh Park, as they have risen to the occasion in plenty of instances during the season.

They come into this game having won four out of their last five games and know how important this game is to their top two chances.

BURNSIDE HEIGHTS v NORTHERN SAINTS

Last time these two sides met, it was Burnside Heights who got over the line by eight points.

The Bears have also claimed the scalps of Moonee Valley and Roxburgh Park at home so anything is possible here.

Burnside Heights has nothing to play for and would love to end its successful season on a high note.

But the Northern Saints are fighting to keep their top two spot and must win to keep it.

They would also be hoping for a big percentage boost at season's end to head into finals with momentum.

Star Saints forward, Khodr Taleb would be keen to play a big part in this as he looks to build on his 54 goals for the year.

He only kicked one in the Saints' last match-up against the Bears with Daheg Abdul-Wahed kicking three.

With finals on their minds, the Saints would not want to drop this game as it could be the difference between a qualifying final and an elimination final.

COBURG DISTRICTS v EAST SUNBURY

With the top four locked in and East Sunbury securing a guaranteed finals berth, the Thunder would not want to take any risks at Cole Reserve.

They come into this game having won three out of their last five games.

With the losses in that period being by a combined margin of two points, the Thunder would want to make sure that they don't concede another close loss to end the season.

Last time these sides faced off, it was a low-scoring affair where East Sunbury went down by eight points.

This was Glenn Hopkins' first game in charge of the club and he would be hoping to show how much he has learned about the division this time round.

However, with Coburg Districts desperate to end its season on a high, it could again prove to be a difficult task for the Thunder.

Add that to losing four out of its last five games and you have a determined Coburg Districts outfit that could defy ladder positions and get a big win.
