WITH all junior and senior women's football completed for Season 2018, the focus is now on the senior men's competitions. Last weekend the blue skies and warmer weather reminded us that it is footy finals time of the year! Essendon Ford Division 1 finals commenced last weekend, and for the second year in a row Tullamarine and Airport West met in the first week of the finals. This year it was the major semi-final where last year it was the elimination final. Intrigue was high going into the match as the two teams had played each other the previous week in Round 18. On Saturday, Airport West came away the victor, as they did in Round 18 and interestingly they also won the first final in 2017.

Congratulations to the Airport West Football Club players, coaches, support staff and administration with both their senior and reserves teams #WindyHillBound after qualifying through to the Essendon Ford Division 1 Grand Final on Saturday September 8.

In the Essendon Ford Division 1 first semi-final, Craigieburn withstood the fast finishing Hillside team to hold on for a thrilling two-point win. This Sunday will see Tullamarine play Craigieburn at Coburg City Oval. Tullamarine won both home-and-away matches, however the margins were close, being three points and 16 points.

An amazing Round 18 of Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division saw the teams placed second, third and fourth after Round 17 all change ladder positions within the top four. Aberfeldie were the big winners moving from fourth to second and securing the 'double chance' with a win over Strathmore.

Drawing a form line for the first two Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division finals is very difficult. First, there was only a one-win difference between first and fourth on the ladder, and when these teams played each other during the year the results have been split with one win each. Adding to the uncertainty is the fact that on all occasions when these teams have played this year, the away team won. Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 was very similar to Premier Division, with the top three places on the ladder changing after the final home-and-away round of matches. Northern Saints will enter their match against Roxburgh Park with the knowledge of finishing the home-and-away season on top of the ladder and having beaten Roxburgh Park on all three occasions this season so far. In the first semi-final, Moonee Valley will play East Sunbury in what also looks like being a close match-up.

Congratulations to all involved with the East Sunbury Football Club on qualifying for their first senior men's appearance in EDFL finals. As a new member club of the EDFL, it is pleasing to see that progressive improvement in recent years has led to making the finals this year.

Whilst talking of finals, please note that due to recent incidents, the EDFL has decided that no animals will be permitted into any finals venues except for dogs to assist people whose vision is impaired.

Good luck for the weekend.

CRAIGIEBURN has appointed Carlton Hall of Fame member Lance Whitnall as coach and declared its ambition to be an EDFL powerhouse.

Whitnall has received rave reviews for his work as football manager at the Essendon Ford Division 1 club this year and will replace Peter Bugden, who will step down at the conclusion of the club's finals campaign after five seasons at the helm.

Bugden steered the Eagles to the 2016 Division 1 premiership and president John Perrone described him as a "sensational football coach".

Whitnall played 216 games over 11 seasons at AFL level and captained the Blues in 2007.

The 38-year-old, who has signed on for two seasons, has previously coached Glenroy and worked with TAC Cup club Calder Cannons.

"He's been involved right down to the juniors, he's well-liked by everybody and I'm sure the hall of famer is going to bring a lot to the Craigieburn Football Club over the next couple of years," Perrone said.

"Speaking to a number of younger footballers, he always wants to highlight that the younger guys should be having a go and ensuring we grow our list in that manner.

"He's certainly a Craigieburn person now. He wants to be a long-term person, whatever role he fits in.

"I'm sure with his commitment, drive and his experience in AFL ... he's going to build a very, very good culture at Craigieburn.

"He has got a very strong rapport with the playing group. There's going to be a lot of strength in terms of retention with the list and people wanting to come back. That's what we want to build.

"We want to become a powerhouse."

The Eagles focused on laying a platform for sustained success after a winless season in Strathmore Community Bank Premier Division in 2017.

They qualified for finals in Division 1 this year after securing Dean Limbach, Shannon Smith, Josh Marino and Jacob McNicol in a fruitful summer of recruiting.

Brock Chircop, Josh Vilinskis and Liam Middleton are among the young guns at Craigieburn's disposal, indicating a bright future.

"Our endeavour last year was 1-3 years to consolidate and Peter and Lance have done an awesome job to get us to where we are," Perrone said.

"We want to be up there (in Premier Division) in the next 1-3 years, there's no doubt about that.

"That's the message I've given the new coach ... is to get the right structure in place and become a powerhouse with the new facilities.

"We want to marry that together and really reward our community as one of those clubs that's actually going to be up there for a while."

Perrone praised the impact of Bugden, who led the club to consecutive grand final appearances in 2015 and '16 after inheriting "a poor list".

"His experience, leadership and commitment to the football club has been second to none," he said

"We couldn't have asked for any more from Peter. He certainly put his hand up to perform for Craigieburn over the five years.

"His results for the club are outstanding and we certainly want to wish him all the best.

"I want to make sure he's always welcome at the club."

By TARA MURRAY (via Star Weekly)

TULLAMARINE will need to bounce back if it is to keep its Essendon Ford Division 1 premiership hopes alive.

The Demons produced their worst performance of the season at the wrong time when they were comprehensively beaten by Airport West last week.

The Demons were in the game on the scoreboard at half time, but never looked likely.

A nine-goal-to-one second half resulted in the Eagles winning 15.13-103 to 6.11-47.

Demons coach David Connell said it was a disappointing game all round.

"I don't think we could have played any worse," he said.

"They were in control for most of the game. Most of the areas we concentrate on, we were beaten on.

"I'm not worried about the margin – we tried a few things in the third quarter to see if we could get something going."

Connell said resting players the week before hadn't been the reason for the loss.

He said there had been no choice about resting those carrying injuries and the knowledge they had a second chance might have played a role in the performance.

Connell said there wasn't one player that stood out in the loss.

"We had no winners," he said.

"Five or six broke even, but that's it.

"It's the worst performance of the year. We're hoping we don't do that again."

The Demons will this weekend face Craigieburn in a preliminary final, with the winner to play Airport West in the grand final.

Connell said hopefully the outcome would be different, but nothing else would change this week.

"We went into Saturday needing to win one game to make a grand final and nothing has changed with that result," he said.

"We still need to win one game to make the grand final.

"We will be remembered by how we play this week.

"If we win, no one will remember it.

"If we lose, we will remember it for the next six months."

Adam Bartrop is in doubt for the game after hurting a knee early on Saturday.

It was his return game from an injury to his other knee.

Connell said he hoped they would get Tim Barresi and Anthony Prestia back from injury.

SEMI FINALS 1-2 September

Keilor v Aberfeldie

Strathmore v Greenvale

By ADEM SARICAUGLU

SEMI FINAL 2 - KEILOR v ABERFELDIE

Saturday 2:15pm @ Windy Hill

IT was a remarkable final day of the home-and-away season and as proven by our two combatants here, it pays to come into finals with some form.

Let's start with the minor premier.

The Blues have done well to hold their composure since losing Nick O'Kearney to a season-ending neck injury, going down to Greenvale at Section Road, and then losing the services of David Gourdis to suspension.

In a game that could have easily been dropped, Keilor was as professional as ever last week against Avondale Heights, clinically taking care of business to the tune of 98 points.

Aberfeldie had a similarly convincing win, only to much stronger opposition in Strathmore.

It was a battle for a top two spot in perfect conditions at Clifton Park and with Courtney Johns missing from the 22, Abers had little trouble in disposing of a somewhat undermanned Strathmore.

Johns aside, Aberfeldie is just about as healthy as it can be heading into the finals and is enjoying a five-game winning streak.

But that last loss was to Keilor, who soundly beat Aberfeldie at Clifton Park with Dean Galea kicking seven back in Round 13.

That might leave you inclined to tip the scales in Keilor's favour, but Aberfeldie is currently the team in better form... and that usually matters a lot at this time of year.

SEMI FINAL 1 - STRATHMORE v GREENVALE

Sunday 2:15pm @ Windy Hill

Unlike the two teams above, both Strathmore and Greenvale come into this elimination final off the back of some very questionable form.

Strathmore could only muster eight goals last week against Aberfeldie and prior to that, had to win ugly against both Avondale Heights and Essendon Doutta Stars.

That said, though, Nathan Grima's men did get the job done in both of those games and at the end of the day, they're in the business of winning.

But the Aberfeldie loss was concerning.

Tyson Mitchem and Reynolds Medal fancy Luke Jarrad were huge outs last week but their inclusions probably wouldn't have made a five-goal difference against the reigning premier.

The fact that the Mores still had many of their stars on the park and couldn't penetrate on the scoreboard will fill Paul Chapman and his side with some confidence coming into this knock-out final.

As far as the Jets are concerned, confidence might be a key theme in their lead-up to Sunday.

No doubt they were buoyed by their win over Keilor, but exactly how deflating was their effort against Essendon Doutta Stars seven days later?

Fort Caruso was the only notable exclusion from the Keilor win and with a top two spot up for grabs, the Jets stunk it up at Nipper Jordan Oval.

In the space of seven days, Greenvale showed us that they could either win the flag or go home with their tails between their legs this Sunday evening.

This game will likely be decided by which version of Greenvale shows up at Windy Hill.

PRELIMINARY FINAL 2 September

Tullamarine v Craigieburn

By TARA MURRAY (Star Weekly)

PRELIMINARY FINAL - TULLAMARINE v CRAIGIEBURN

Sunday 2:15pm @ Coburg City Oval

WE'RE down to the final three teams.

It seems somewhat fitting that Airport West, Tullamarine and Craigieburn are the last three teams, having been the best three teams for most of the season.

Airport West sealed its grand final spot with a comprehensive win against the Demons on Saturday afternoon.

After beating the Demons in the final round of the season, the Eagles did it again a week later, this time by 56 points.

For the Demons this was a woeful performance and one coach Dave Connell has said was their worst for the year.

He said maybe they had gotten ahead of themselves, knowing they had a double chance.

It was all single goalkickers for the Demons, with Connell saying they had not one winner.

Jack Kennedy and Adam Scott were named the best on SportsTG.

Craigieburn looked winners against Hillside at three-quarter time, before the Sharks came storming home.

The Eagles managed to hold on, winning by two points.

Eagles coach Peter Bugden said his side got lazy in the last quarter and it nearly cost them the game.

He said Ben Fynch was their best player at half-back and he was well supported by the young brigade of Liam Middleton, Brock Chircop and Sammy Laffan.

Dean Limbach kicked four goals.

Both the Demons and Eagles will be sweating on some fitness tests here.

Both teams look set to lose players with knee injuries, while some handy players are in the mix to return.

Adam Bartrop injured his other knee on the return from a knee injury, while Damien Bugeja appears to have done his ACL.

The Demons' Anthony Prestia and Timothy Barresi and the Eagles' Christian McErlain, Ryan Bongetti and Stefan Terzievski, are all chances to return according to their respective coaches.

As for form, both sides enter the game with up and down form having lost their final round games.

Both had little to play for, though.

The Demons won both games between the sides during the season, but weren't able to blow the Eagles away.

For the Demons, they can't put in another performance like they did against Airport West, otherwise their season is over.

For the Eagles, they need to play consistent football for four quarters.

They've shown they can match it with the top two sides for periods, but haven't been able to put it together for the full four quarters.

LOVE THE GAME?

SEMI FINALS 1-2 September

Northern Saints v Roxburgh Park
Moonee Valley v East Sunbury

By JULIA MONTESANO

SEMI FINAL 2 - NORTHERN SAINTS v ROXBURGH PARK

Saturday 2:15pm @ Coburg City Oval

It's hard to tell which side comes into this match with more momentum.

The Northern Saints have come off a 37-point win over the Bears, making it their fourth win from the past five games.

The Magpies come into this game off the back of a huge 61-point win against the Fog, which earned them a coveted second chance in the finals.

That win made it five straight for Roxburgh Park, with an average winning margin of 50 points.

This gives the Magpies a huge burst of confidence heading into this clash, and the dimensions of Coburg City Oval could suit their attacking game.

However, the Saints' attacking game is just as good and has resulted in them claiming the minor premiership, meaning that Roxburgh Park faces a huge challenge on Saturday.

The Magpies' last loss was against the Northern Saints, and since then, their winning ways have helped them storm into the top two.

The Saints have made it three from three against the Magpies in the home-and-away season, but finals is a whole different ball-game.

Both teams would be well aware of that coming into the massive clash, so it should make for a thrilling encounter.

SEMI FINAL 1 - MOONEE VALLEY v EAST SUNBURY

Saturday 2:15pm @ Keilor Reserve

The biggest day in the history of the East Sunbury Football Club will take place here when the club plays its first ever final.

This result looked like a no-brainer at one point during the season, with the club flying high on top of the ladder.

But a shock coaching departure and a couple of consecutive one-point losses hurt the Thunder's chances of making it into the finals series.

Moonee Valley has also had a difficult journey to make it into the finals, with late injuries to star players such as Jordan Faba and Braden Padmore halting its finals charge.

They particularly struggled against East Sunbury two weeks ago, as the Thunder ended the Fog's six-game winning streak.

But there was no real doubt about Moonee Valley making finals, as the Fog overcame the injury obstacles to finish third on the ladder.

The doubt will come in on Saturday though, as a loss will kick them out of the finals.

Moonee Valley had a chance to sew up a top two spot against Roxburgh Park but were beaten comprehensively at Ormond Park last week.

Now, the Thunder has a chance to re-discover its lightning form from the start of the season and use it to advantage against one of the strongest Strathmore Community Bank Division 2 outfits in a do-or-die clash.
