

COBURG SUPERULES FC SEEKS WOMEN'S SENIOR MASTERS COACH

Coburg Superules Football Club in its 27th year is seeking expressions of interest in the role of Women's Senior Masters Coach for the upcoming 2019 season.

In the inaugural Women's Masters season Coburg fielded 38 players ranging in age from 30-60 years with two-thirds participating in Australian Rules Football for the first time. After a successful first year the club is now keen to develop the Women's coaching team headed by a Senior Masters Coach to lead an enthusiastic and growing playing group in 2019. It is quite probable that due expected growth Coburg will field two Women's Masters teams in 2019 and therefore may need to recruit two Women's Masters Coaches.

The Coburg Superules Football Club is an inclusive and diverse club that is home to 3 men's teams and 1 women's team and has a strong one club philosophy with men's and women's team having collaborative and respectful relationship.

We are seeking a coach that:

- Is highly adaptable and able to manage all levels and abilities,
- Has a focus on people and is a strong and effective communicator,
- Has a female player development focus relating to skills and game style, and
- Has a willingness to promote football for fun and one club philosophy of Coburg working with the Committee and Coaches.

Playing experience is preferred and It is desirable that the applicant has Level 1 AFL coaching accreditation or willingness to obtain one. The club is happy to fund a Level 1 accreditation for the successful applicant. There is also preference for a non-playing Coach.

The coaching role involves planning and execution of training, team selection and match day preparation and coaching.

Commitment required is training once a week between February and September and play matches on a fortnightly basis over 10 rounds with the potential for finals between April and September. Preseason is February to March. 3-6 hours per week.

Coburg offers a supportive environment working and buddying with the men's senior coaches as well as VFL level facilities based out of Coburg City Oval.

Remuneration is honorarium / casual based and can be discussed at time of interview.

All applications will be handled in strictest confidence and close on 28 February 2019. For more information or to apply contact:
