The Glenroy Football & Netball Club is seeking expressions of interest for our Director of Female Football position for season 2021 and beyond

Our club is a very successful family orientated club built on respect and inclusion since 1946.

We are committed to building a very successful female football pathways program, we acknowledge that this space has specific skill set requirements that differ from the male football program. This is why we are seeking to appoint someone with these specific skills and attributes.

The successful applicant will need to have an expansive knowledge of the female football space, be passionate, committed and energetic about building, implementing, developing and overseeing our female football program.

Remunerations are available for the suitably qualified successful applicant

All inquiries and resumes can be forwarded to Murray Nilsson at
