Affiliated with the Essendon District Football League (EDFL), the Hillside Football Club (HFC) is a thriving Junior and Senior Club with our Senior Women's team currently playing Premier Division. Having played off in a preliminary final in 2019, then finishing 2nd on the ladder in 2021 prior to the cancellation of the season, the HFC is primed for ultimate success in season 2022. The HFC are planning to field two senior women's teams next season.

The HFC is seeking expressions of interest for the following senior coaching positions, within the women's program in season 2022.

Senior Women's Program

- Senior Women's Coach
- Senior Women's Assistant Coach
- Senior Women's Reserves Coach
- U18.5 Youth Girls Coach

We require highly energised, team orientated personnel to join the coaching ranks for what is planned to be an exciting 2022 season.

Prior coaching experience, in particular women's football, will be desirable but not essential.

Objectives for all roles;

- Provide game day leadership and coaching expertise support to senior coach (assistant coach)
- Excellent communication and organisational skills including great work ethic
- Ability to work together with the coaching staff, support staff and officials
- Experience working with young adults with the ability to identify and nurture talent
- In conjunction with the senior coach ensure consistent club coaching policies and strategies are applied
- Provide regular individual player and group feedback
- Ensure effective player policies, team rules and club policies are followed to uphold the reputation and aspirations of the HFC
- Ability to assess and identify recruits to build on the current senior playing list.

Interested parties are encouraged to apply in writing. Please include any recent coaching experience, contact details and any other relevant particulars. It is expected that all applicants will hold a minimum foundation level coaching accreditation (level 2 will be viewed favourably) and a valid 'Working with Children's' check.

For a confidential discussion or to seek further information please contact, HFC President, Sebastian Buccheri on 0411 201 908
